SPECIAL SALE MONDAY
OF ARMY REJECTS

The Dominion and Imperial Governments have purchased through us during the past few weeks some thousands of remounts, artillery, ambulance and army service horses. Their careful selection has left us on hand several hundred very fine geldings and mares which are either too tall or not tall enough, too young (4 years old) or too old (9 years), too heavy or not heavy enough, too light in color or flesh, etc., and they are therefore termed Army Rejects. We need the stabling room, and our shippers have decided to sell without reserve, so that this is a fine opportunity for anyone who needs any horses, as the defects are army service, and are not defects for ordinary purposes. Amongst the large number to be offered are dozens of very fine 15-hand Farm Chunks (mares), and dozens of fine 16.1 geldings and mares, some a little poor in flesh, maybe, but of fine quality.
