Nine Officers and Thirty-Four Men Crossed on Metagama.

CAPT. ALLEY RETURNS

forces returned from England on the Canadian forces returned from England on the Canadian Pacific S.S. Metagama, which reached Montreal at 7.45 tonight. Only the officers came on to Montreal, the men stopping off at Quebec this morning. Almost all the returned officers have been wounded, and have received leave of absence ranging from two to six months. The majority of the officers have spent considerable time in hospitals. All seem optimistic as to the "great drive" which they anticipate will take place in due time.

Among those who have returned are: Capt. Alley, 3rd Battalion, Winnipeg; Capt. Burton, formerly of the 90th Winnipeg Rifles, Winnipeg, lost three or four inches of his spinal column thru an exploding shell; Lieut. Cotton, 3rd Battalion, Toronto; Major Domerty, Army Medical Service, not wounded, but here on luty; Dr. E. R. Forbes, veterinary surgeon; Bomb. LONDON, Sept. 6.—Money and discount rates were easy today. The stock market passed another dull session. The recent activity in shipping shares slackened owing to the sinking of the Hesperlan and quotations were easier. Kaffirs were fairly busy and International Mercantile Marine advanced.

American securities were quiet owing to the holiday, but prices advanced following the fall in exchange rates. United States Steel, Erie and Chesapeake and Ohio were occasionally marked. Bonds were neglected. The closing was firm, but dull.

> The cattle market was fairly active, cattle going to the scales without much break. The good beef animals were in demand and sold out firmly. One load of 19 cattle, weighing 1350 lbs., the only of 19 cattle, weighing 1350 lbs., the only choice heavy steers for some time, brought $8.75, sold to Swift Canadian thru McDonald & Halligan. The common stuff and bulls were draggy and easy. Cows sold briskly and seemed to hold their prominent position of last week at steady values with Thursday's Stockers and feeders: Many visitors were in attendance yesterday and interest chiefly centred in this market, altho little business was transacted, the newcomers being mostly enquirers. The condition of this class is about the same as last week the sealer prices conted as last week, the easier prices quoted in the price list prevailing. Quality, as yet, is not good enough.

Sheep and lambs: The filling of the lambs during the week-end and the large names during the week-end and the large number present made prices somewhat easier; $8.75 was bid for the tops. The market, in regard to quality, was about steady. Sheep were steady, as they have been for some weeks. Calves were firm up to 11c for choice yeal. No fancy prices were quoted yes-terday.
