

THE POLITICAL

CAUSES AND CONSEQUENCES

OF THE PROTESTANT

“REFORMATION:”

A LECTURE.

BY THOMAS DARCY MCGEE.

J. B. Co. 7

(PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE CATHOLIC INSTITUTE OF NEW YORK, BEFORE WHOM IT WAS DELIVERED AT THE TABERNACLE, BROADWAY, JANUARY 26TH, 1853.)

“The last revolution of doctrine and theory, which has happened in Europe, is the Reformation. The effect was to introduce other interests into all countries, than those which arose from their locality and natural circumstances.”—BURKE.—“Thoughts on French Affairs in 1791.”
