

CHAPTER V.

OF REMEDIES FOR TORTS.

	PAGE
Diversity of remedies	184
Self-help	185
Judicial remedies : damages.....	186
Nominal damages	187
Nominal damages possible only when an absolute right is infringed .	189
Cases where the damage is the gist of the action.....	190
Peculiarity of law of defamation	191
Ordinary damages	191
Exemplary damages	193
Analogy of breach of promise of marriage to torts in this respect....	196
Mitigation of damages	196
Concurrent but severable causes of action	198
Injunctions	197
On what principle granted	198
Former concurrent jurisdiction of common law and equity to give compensation for fraud	199
Special statutory remedies, when exclusive	200
Joint wrong-doers	202
Rules as to contribution and indemnity	203
Supposed rule of trespass being "merged in felony".....	205
No known means of enforcing the rule if it exists	206
Locality of wrongful act as affecting remedy in English Court	208
Acts not wrongful by English law	208
Acts justified by local law.....	209
Act wrongful by both laws	210
Phillips v. Eyre	213
Limitation of actions	214
Suspension of the statute by disabilities	214
From what time action runs.....	215
Statutory penalties	215
Special protection of justices, constables, &c.	215
Exception of concealed fraud	216
Conclusion of General Part	217