The Mayor's Message. Gentlemen of the council,-A misunderstanding has arisen as to the amount of salary payable to the mayor of this city. When I assumed onice I found the provision to be $4000 as mayor and $2500 as member of the board of control. For these two positions the mayor has always been paid separately, except last year, when $5000 in all was drawn. Since the estimates were no matter how right their method is," brought down I have been informed by mber of the members of the counthat they intended then to establish a new basis, fixing the mayor's total salary at $5000 per year. Under such circumstances I consider that the intention of the council should govern, and am quite content that the council should pass an appropriate amending bylaw-Respectfully submitted,
