SALE.

OH!

SEMEN,

seil on

WNSEND ST. & CO.

May Concern 1

CO., Ltd.

Oct. 14th.

phouse, cor. Princess

ows and a

Household ictures, etc.

Sale at 11 o'clock.

WNSEND EST. & CO.

OWNSEND WEST. & CO. E of Valuable Store

ale contained in a cerete vendors, now in deduced at time of sale, for sale by public aucrooms of Messrs. C. J.

King-street west, To-, the seventh day of the hour of 12 o'clock what part of town lot he east side of Jarvistricularly described in tered as number 3283M the property is situate corner of Jarvis and ring a frontage on Jarvis and fing a frontage on Jarvis-street for the Jarvis-street front-estorey brick store and 117 Jarvis-street and on frontage is erected a and dwelling, known as et. The property will subject to reserve bid. of purchase money to f sale and balance ace terms and conditions and known. For further KSTOCK, NESBITT, KIDDELL,

OWNSEND WEST. & CO.

lished 1843.

STORE

Oct. 10, '96.

are identically

NSEND & CO., Auctioneers

SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 10

TEN PAGES

DEATH IN THE GALES.

VING and Yonge, not I only the busiest but the

A BUDDING AUTHOR.

Railway Brakeman for Years is a Coming Writer of Merit.

FRANCESSEARCH ROLL

FRANCE What is likely to prove one of the markham Fair.

Asked his motive for taking up psychology as a subject, Mr. Duniord replied that he wanted to show the lines up. The gate receipts were $47 behind last year, when there were two fine days, and that psychology really is. He said he lid not agree with Herbert Spencer's riew that the mind was simply another manifestation of the body, and part of his work was to confute that philosopher. "Psychology is the missing link between the sciences," added Mr. Duniord, "and when we discover what it is we shall have all things plain."

Looking about the room the reporter faw copies of Dickens' works, the Essays of Bacon, Shakespeare, and copies of the Arena, His reading, he said, had liso been in Aristotle, Plato, Sir Isaac Newton, Kant, Spencer, Carpenter. But femarked Mr. Duniord, "when I write I feel that I am worked upon, ab extra, and I don't know where the power tomes from." Asked if he always used most dangerous corner in Toronto. Nearly every street car passes the corner, and rain or shine it is crowded with people waiting for transfers.

a pencil in writing, he replied, "Always, for you can't sit and take notes by the river of thought with a spluttering pen." Dinner was now brought in downstairs, and the interview here ended.

PUBLIC LIBRARY BOARD.

Monderfully beautiful.

Huddled up with this philosophy were the manuscripts of several poems in many subjects and all filled with heart-reaching lines. The following are from that on "Noontide":

Uh, the splendor of the noontide, with its glowing light and grace,

When the sun hath far ascended,
And the morning's work is ended,
And the morning's work is ended,
And the morning's work is ended,
And the will bee, idly droning,
And the will bee, idly droning,
Chants his faint and drowsy music in the sulty ear of noon.

There is splendor in life's noontide, when the strong will hath attained,
By the paths of toli and duty,
I lis own heights of joy and beauty,
And las won heights of joy and beauty,
And space while and reckon all the treasures it hath gained.

Asked his motive for taking up sychology as a subject, Mr. Dunjord of the strong will be more than the strong will be treasures it hath gained.

Asked his motive for taking up sychology as a subject, Mr. Dunjord of the strong will be more to taking up sychology as a subject, Mr. Dunjord of the strong will be and recken all the treasures it hath gained.

Asked his motive for taking up sychology as a subject, Mr. Dunjord of the strong will be and recken all the treasures it hath gained.

Asked his motive for taking up sychology as a subject, Mr. Dunjord of the strong will be the strong will b

IVORY AGAIN IN COURT.

estimony Showing That He Was Regarded
With Suspicton on His Arrival in Glasgow. London, Oct. 9 .- Edward J. Ivory, alla was arrested in Glasgow Sept. 12, was arraigned for the third time in the Bowstreet Police Court this morning. A boy named James Burns, step-son of Patrick McCaffrey, was called to the witness stand, and identified Ivory as having called at his mother's house in Glasgow, and as afterwards having gone in search of O'Hara and Meagher, to whom he hadiletters of introduction from Kearney.

Meagher's wife was piaced upon the witness stand, and testified that her husband was a member of the Young Ireiand Society and also of the Amnesty Society. Mrs. Meagher identified Ivory as having brought a letter to her home addressed to her husband. The prisoner, she said, told her that he had come from America, and that he had never crossed the Atlantic before. Mr. Meagher, the witness said, was absent from home at the time, and she refused to take the letter because she did not know the prisoner, and told him that if he left the letter she would burn it. Ivory finally left, taking the letter with him. Elizabeth Harper, a nurse in the Cancer Hospital, identified Ivory as having visited McCaffrey while the latter was confined in the hospital.

Police Sergeant Maguire detailed the arrest of Ivory in Glasgow, who, when he was taken into custody, said: "I've nothing to fear. I fancy that somebody has brought something to Glasgow for which you blame me." arraigned for the third time in the Bow

SCARBORO TOWNSHIP FAIR.

Vessels Foundered at Different Points on the British Coast—Lives Lost and Much Damage Done.

It was the gala day of the year at School No. 26, Little York, yesterday, the occasion being the annual distribution of diplomas and prizes to those who had gained honors for the school at the late examinations. The building was in bright decoration, especially in the large schoolroom, which was decked out with nearly every flower known. Inspector Fotheringham took the chair. After congratulatory speeches by Revs. J. R. Johnston, J. Fitzpatrick and Mr. Brokovski, and a number of clever recitations and singing by the school, the different certificates were handed to the winners. The number of diplomas won is twice that of last year.

The Supreme Chief Ranger's Californian tour, judging from the reports received at headquarters, is one of unqualified success. The doctor is being right royally entertained by the brethren of the Golden State, while the people are receiving him enthusiastically, all the meetings being held by the Supreme Chief being crowded to the doors. doors.
Thomas Lawless, Assistant Supreme Chief Ranger, who has been in the Old Land for some weeks on a holiday, sails to-day for home.

London, Oct. 9.—The Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, was landed at Liverpool yesterday on a special tender upon his return from his visit to the United States. He traveled by the midnight train to Birming-Mr. Chamberlain declined a request for

Mr. Albert Jordan of Lee-avenue, and a clever pupil of the Toronto College of Music, has been appointed organist of the Mothodist Church at Brantford. Gloucester Mass., Oct. 9.—Great excitement prevails here to-day over the suicide of Treasurer Marsh of Cape Ann Savings Bank. PAWNBROKERS' RIGHTS.

Bold Attempt to Levy Blackmail Harris-A Man Arrested.

BLACKMAILERS AT WORK.

New York, Oct. 9.—A special correspondent in London, Eng., cables: An attempt has just been made to blackmail Lady Harris, widow of Sir Augustus Harris, the well-known impressrio and dramatist. She received not long ago this letter:

"Madam,—We are in possession of cortain letters to the price of the possession of cortain letters." certain letters, etc., relating to the pri-vate and intimate life of the late Sir to the world, would place you in an unenviable position—the living having you wish to avoid any unpleasantness, which would do you much harm, our terms are, for remitting to you the letters, documents, etc., £40 in bank notes. If you accede to our request, kindly put a paragraph in Friday's Telegraph, in the Agony Column, thus:

destroyed the morocco factories of Charles Baird & Co. and Washington, Jones & Co. Total loss, $215,000. William McNell, a member of the Washington fire company, was crushed to death by falling walls. Many hands will be thrown out of work, as all the shops had just begun active oper-ations.

At St. John the Evangelist.

The Church of St. John the Evangelist has arranged to hold their annual harvest home services in the church, corner of Stewart and Portland-streets, to-morrow. The services will be fully choral, and the choir, directed by Mrs. Williamson and assisted by Mrs. A. Moir-Dow and Miss E. Hall, will render several appropriate anthems and hymns. Rev. Prof. Cayley will preach in the morning and in the evening the Rev. H. C. Dixon. A special children's service will be conducted at 3 p.m. in the church by the rector, Rev. A. Williams. The offerings at these services will be devoted to the fund to aid the widows and orphans of this diocese.

The Girls' Friendly Society, which is doing so fine a work in the city, held its annual meeting yesterday afternoon in the school room of Holy Trinity Church. The President, Mrs. S. C. Wood, who had represented the society at the National Council of Women in Montreal, gave a full and graphic account of the work done there in connection with the G.F.S. all over Canada.

An interesting paper was read by Mrs. Davidson on the mutual benefits to be received by the frequent bringing together of the elder and younger members of the society.

Mrs. M. Boulton, Hon. Secretary, presented an encouraging report of the society work during the past year in brightening lives and giving encouragement to thrift.

An Interesting Review From a Lega Standpoint as to Rates of Interest They are Allowed to Charge. Editor World: Having been asked pawnbrokers, and being tired answering I take the liberty of sending you these portions of the statutes on the matter, most needed, which you can publish or not as you think proper. However, I think it would be well to do so in order that people, who, from dire necessity, pledge often even their heirlooms, and are frequently victimized.

tung asserts that a written treaty of allighter ance is in existence between Russia and France, but that it is only defensive in its provisions." The Vossische Zeitung doubts the accuracy of this report, and asserts that a written treaty of allighter ance is in existence between Russia and France, but that it is only defensive in its provisions." The Vossische Zeitung doubts that up to Tuesday night the draft of the treaty of allighter ance is in existence between Russia and France, but that it is only defensive in its provisions." The Vossische Zeitung doubts that up to Tuesday night the draft of the treaty had not been signed either by the Czar or Fresident Faure.

WILL NOT LAUNCH A WAR.

Rt. Hou, C. P. Ritchie, Conservative member of Parliament for Croydon, and Possische Zeitung doubts that up to Tuesday night the draft of the treaty had not been signed either by the Czar or Fresident Faure.

dire necessity, pledge often even their heirlooms, and are frequently victimized.

The Revised Statutes of Ontario.

1887, chapter 155, section 1, states:
"Every person who takes or receives, by way of pawn, pledge or exchange, any goods for the repayment of money lent thereon shall be deemed a pawn-broker within the meaning of the Act."

Section 2 of the same Act requires pawnbrokers to take out a license from the municipality.

Section 3 imposes a penalty of $50 for every pledge taken without license.

Section 4 fixes the price of license at $60.

Section 5 for Mds plurgity of the same Act requires pawnbrokers to sake out a license from the municipality.

Section 5 for Mds plurgity of the section 6 for Botton 1 for Croydon, and President Faure.

WILL NOT LAUNCH A WAR.

Rt. Hon. C. P. Ritchie, Conservative member of Parliement for Croydon, and President for the Board of Trade in the Cabinet, section 5 for Act of the Board of Trade in the Cabinet, section 5 for Notation 1 for Croydon, and President of the Board of Trade in the Cabinet, section 5 for Notates of Parliement for Croydon, and President of the Board of Trade in the Cabinet, section 5 for Board of Trade in the Cabinet, section 6 for Board of Trade in the Cabinet, section 6 for Board o

FRANCO-RUSSIAN ALLIANCE.

TEN PAGES

Treaty Said to Mave Been Entered Int Which is Only Defensive in Its Provisions.

many times as to the law relative to of The Times says: "The Kolnische Zeipawnbrokers, and being tired answer- tung asserts that a written treaty of alli-eonand hand you the incriminating letters.

Yours, etc., Walter Wallace."
Lady Harris gave the letter to her brothers, who turned it over to the police, and they have arrested on suspicion Alexander H. Morgins, believed to have many aliases. He was arraigned in Bow-street Police Court last Tuesday and was remanded pending further Investigation.

MARY GRANTS DEATH.

Section 3 imposes a penalty of $50 for every pledge taken without license. Section 5 forbids plurality of shops under one license. Section 7 requires the word "Pawnbroker" and the name of the party in large letters over the door.
Section 8 provides forfeiture of $40 for neglect of such sign.
Section 10, 11, 12 and 13 refer to entries of the pledges in the pawnbroker's books and the giving of pawn tickets.

Section 14 reads: "When the sum broker's books and the giving of pawn tickets.

Section 14 reads: "When the sum given provided for the party in the paynbroker's books and the giving of pawn tickets.

Section 14 reads: "When the sum given provided for paynbroker's books and the giving of pawn tickets.

Section 14 reads: "When the sum given provided for pledges in the paynbroker's books and the giving of pawn tickets.

Section 14 reads: "When the sum given provided for paynbroker's books and the giving of pawn tickets.

Section 15 forbids plurality of shops under one license. Section 5 forbids plurality of shops are warned that if they do not return. Those who have already left the country are warned that if they do not return within two months they will be forever afterward elearned from returning, even though they will not be accepted. All fugitive Armenians returning to Turkey in deflared or these conditions will be arrested.

PROVINCIAL MATTERS.

Tasked Fundaced at Different Points on the British Casal—Live Lead and Landon, Oct. 5.—The crystal of Friends Previous of Section 1. Section 1.

The Princess de Chimay is a daughter of Mrs. Morrow, whose resilence is at the corner of Church and Carlton Streets in this city. It is rumored that the Princess, who has parted from her husband, may