City in Holiday Attire Extends Warm Greeting To First Home Comers

Glad Scenes at Union Station—
Some Tales Old Boys Tell.

To the alluring strains of "Home, Sweet Home," Toronto received the advance guard of her returning sons yesterday. Several old boys bands were sheltered by the splendid display of flags in the central arch of the Union Depot during the evening. It was the first greeting to the returning host. The visitors caught the genial spirit of the occasion as the special trains rolled into the station. Five hundred cheering Canadians, fresh from their adopted country around Detroit, arrived just before dark. The generous folds of a big American flag provoked a whoop. Then they caught a glimpse of the dear old British colors and they went mad. Two old boys hugged each other and a gang of their companions formed a ring around them, and beneath the waving Union Jack they joined in the chorus of "The Maple Leaf Forever." A platoon of police rushed in that direction, prepared to resist a mob. When they discovered the cause of the riotous outburst they joined in the hurrah. It was a thrilling scene—it was the baptism of the first home comers' festival. The initiation is a suggestion of the character of the reception to be accorded to the returning thousands beneath the vine and fig trees of their native land.

Many of the Detroit offering brought their wives and children with them. Others brought their American relatives to see the Ontario metropolis in its holiday attire. They carried a big chorus and popular airs were rendered before they took the cars to the tribune around the city. "In the Good Old Summer Time" received an ovation, and the outside crowd took up the melody. It was contagious and spread out into the street. It was an omen of good luck and welcome.

Many of the visitors were taken care of at the Elliott House. As a delicate compliment to the adopted country of Canadians, a great American flag was stretched across the road at the hotel, and waved by the side of the Canadian colors of equal size.

From All Over.
If there was any doubt in the minds of the committees as to the popularity of their scheme, it was dispelled by the first rush of the crowds last night. Telegrams from different points in the States three hundred miles in different directions announce the tidings of even more promise. The morning train will bring in from fifteen to twenty thousand. This aside from those in Ontario who will visit Toronto on this occasion. Rochester sends a train of fourteen coaches. From Cincinnati comes a special, and Chicago sends three specials made up exclusively for Toronto. Many of these have been unable to obtain in the States a supply of Canadian flags and have wired ahead to different dealers to send big consignments to the depot. They want to have their native colors ready when they leave the depot.

Lots to Admire.
The Union depot is banked with colored lights, festoons and red, white and blue, with a big "Welcome" card in letters of fire. It is an artistic display, but when the Detroit delegation turned into Yonge-street at King the riotous display of scarlet and waving bunting, denoting the hearty welcome prepared for their reception, cheer after cheer was elicited. "Toronto, Toronto," they yelled and spelled the college yell style. Here the color scheme seemed to impress the early visitors very pleasantly. Many of the buildings, in addition to their dress of scarlet and yellow, were bathed in a flood of light from a myriad of electric bulbs. Exclamations of admiration were freely indulged in.

"Good Old Toronto," screamed a six-foot Canadian, fresh from the wilds of Chicago, as he threw up his hat, re-

WHEN "CAPORA" TITTERED WELCOMERS GOT SCARED

City's New Elephant Has Arrived—
She is a Beauty and Will Receive Visitors To-Day.

"Capora" has arrived. Who is Capora? Why, the new elephant at the Riverside Zoo to be sure. Everybody cannot travel by special car, but Capora did, and in no mean cattle car either. A nice finished Lackawanna coach for her!

A guard of honor comprising the park attendants and a crowd of some two hundred spectators were in waiting when the train upon which the distinguished traveler was riding drew up to the siding at Riverdale Park at 8 o'clock.

Caretaker Carter was on board, having accompanied Capora, from New York, where they went to receive her upon her journey from abroad. He immediately started the work of landing his guest and of escorting her to the brick house which is allotted for her residence.

How "Capora" Alighted.
No difficulty was experienced, the means of alighting from the coach was a trifle different to those used with most females. A heavy rope was attached to her neck and another, to act as a guide rope, was fastened to her hind legs. Nearly 100 men and boys, at a signal from Mr. Carter, hauled on the rope and the young lady elephant appeared to the gaze of the public. It was not her first public appearance on any platform, however, nor were there any time lights thrown upon her, but she did create a scene.

She is a Beauty.
The first thing she did was to commence a most alarming bellow or roar, the first sounds of which scattered the crowd in all directions and compelled many of the youngsters who hauled the lead rope to scamper to safety. It was only a playful titter according to elephantology, and confidence was soon restored. In a few minutes the house was reached and Capora safely and comfortably settled for the night.

Will Be Reamed.
Ex-Alt. Daniel Lamb was unfortunately prevented from being present at the landing, as he still suffers from the effects of his sprained ankle. He says that he will invite public expression of a suitable name to call the new member of his animal family. Capora being only a temporary appellation.

Meanwhile Capora will be at home in her new quarters to-day to Toronto's citizens, young and old alike.

Strike at Paper Mills.
Niagara Falls, N.Y., June 30.—The plant of the International Paper Company has been closed by a general strike. The men want a three-shift system and 25 cents an hour. The plant makes 120 tons of news paper a day.

Crushed Fruit. Known all over the city.
Today from the Atlantic to the Pacific throughout Canada the leading military bands of the Dominion will play and sing "My Loved Canadian Home," the patriotic song selected for the Home Comers' Festival as the festival song. As the edition is limited and will positively not be duplicated, the committee earnestly hope that every citizen will secure the souvenir copy of this fine composition at once, as a souvenir of the festival. To encourage this the low price of 15 cents has been put on them, but afterwards the regular issue and price, 40 cents, will take effect.

Notice to Bailymen and Others.
Ten dollars reward will be paid for information and conviction of any person using the Osgood Daily bottles after 1st day of June. T. Brennan, proprietor.

None Need Stay at Home Many Attractions To-day

This is Dominion Day and the 38th anniversary of Confederation. As a rule, it is looked upon by those interested in lake and rail transportation as a day of harvest, but in spite of the allurement abroad the majority of citizens who usually take a trip out of town for the holiday seem willing to stay at home to assist in receiving the home comers.

Should the weather prove favorable, the Weatherman promises that the day shall be hot with perhaps a few scattered thunderstorms—Toronto should spend one of the gayest holidays it ever had.

Home Coming Contingents.
The official program for the various events in Toronto includes, of course, the arrival of the home-coming contingents. At 7.15 p.m. the Montreal crowd will arrive. At 7.30 the steamer Toronto will bring a load from Rochester, which the P. & C. will deliver at the Union Station, where the band of the G. G. B. G. will be in waiting. At 8 o'clock the Detroit contingent, some 600 will pull in and headed by the Foresters' Trumpet Band, parade to their headquarters. Then the regular and special trains from every direction will bring in their loads of visitors to swell the crowds.

Two Hundred in a Mine Cut Off From the World With No Hope of Rescue

SKELETON OF A SHADOW IS CANADIAN MILITIA

Physique of the Men Lamentable,
Says Col. Thompson, in Plea for Higher Pay.

Ottawa, June 30.—A dismal picture of the militia force of Canada was presented to the House tonight by Col. Thompson of Haldimand. "A skeleton of a shadow of a militia," Col. Thompson described the militia. He declared that a large number of the militia are culls and that the permanent corps are frightfully undermanned. The rural militia, according to the member for Haldimand, is three-fifths of the total force and is worse off to-day than it was two years ago. If the retrogression continued both the militia and permanent corps would in a few years be demoralized.

For the unsatisfactory condition of the militia, Col. Thompson held the small pay primarily responsible. "It is a nice pretence," he said, "and there should be more liberal allowance. Of the regiments averaging 253 men those called on to drill this year numbered only 181 men. Of the 181 men, only 124 were fit for duty, the rest being unfit for duty because of lack of training."

Pay Not Enough.
"A sergeant with no command duties to be a sergeant," said the colonel. "He loses his zeal and becomes indifferent to discipline." He pointed out that the London district, exclusive of the city regiments, boasted of 2011 men, sent only 1243 men to camp this year.

The physique of the men, Col. Thompson declared, to be lamentable and this he attributed to the fact that good Canadians cannot be obtained for 50 cents a day. Old men and boys enter largely into the make-up of the militia, he said. He argued that the pay should be increased to a dollar a day, which he estimated to be a fair figure.

Explosion of Fire Damp Causes Worst Disaster in History of Wyoming.

Hanna, Wyo., June 30.—Probably the worst disaster in the history of Wyoming occurred here to-day when a terrific explosion of fire damp in Union Pacific Mine No. 1 shut off the means of escape of 200 men, who were working in the pit. The fire, which started immediately, is defying all efforts of the rescuers, and there is slight hope of saving any of the men. Twenty-eight bodies of those working near the mouth of the mine have been brought out, all of them horribly mangled and some still showing slight evidences of life.

The Union Pacific Railroad Company, which owns the mines, has a large force working to reach the imprisoned men. The flames seem to be abating, and there is hope of getting most of the bodies out by morning. So tense is the excitement that no one seems able to say how the disaster occurred. The supposition is that a careless miner allowed his lamp to come in contact with fire damp.

DIED TO ESCAPE POLITICIANS.
Pittsburg, June 30.—Joseph Owen Brown, formerly recorder of this city, who died suddenly on March 15 last, did not die a natural death. At the coroner's inquest, begun to-day at the demand of James K. P. Brown, a brother of the deceased, it was learned that the recorder died from the effect of cyanide of potassium.

It was alleged that Brown was a martyr to politics, that he deliberately killed himself by slow poisoning to escape the politicians who swarmed about him day and night.

TRUSTED EMPLOYE ARRESTED.
Belleville, June 30.—George Lucas of Trenton was arrested in this city on the charge of cashing a cheque for $100 on a bank in which he had no funds. For many years the accused was a trusted employee of the Gilmour Company of Trenton.

"Good Morning, Are You a Home Comer?"
All citizens of Toronto extend to their returning friends a very hearty home welcome. Today we celebrate also the initial day of our Confederation—the most important event in the history of Canada. We are proud of it, and you, we are sure, in a measure, also. Most business enterprises have been successful, and because of this we, the W. & D. Dineen Co., Limited, largest furriers in Canada, extend to you a royal welcome.
