QUEBEC CONSERVATIVES LINE UP FOR ELECTIONS

Jacques Bureau Telling Propl-There's to Be Another 5 8 -But Work Goes Ci..

MONTREAL, Aug. 11 .- (Special.)-The World has it on the authority of Hon. William Mitchell of Drummondville that to all he meets that there will be another session before the present parliament of Canada is dissolved. The Conservatives are working like beavers at their organization both here and in the eastern

That Hon. Sydney Fisher appears to be avticely engaged in inciting Liberal candidatures in his section of the province, is also in Conservative eyes sufficient proof of elections not later than Novemproof of elections not later than November.

In Megantic the opposition will select their standard-bearer on the 20th of the month, while two days before the Conservatives of Brome will meet at Knowl-ton to select a man to oppose the minister of agriculture, and the statement is made that they have a strong man in view. In Mississiquoi Dr. Pickel, Conservative, is already in the field, while the opposition candidate in Stanstead, Geo. W. Page, is making a house to house canvass against the sitting member, C. H. Lovell, who was also renominated the other day.

In Shefford the Conservatives have been able to carry the county by 300 at the two later local fight to the county of the county of the county of the county of the county by 300 at the county local state local fight.

In Shefford the Conservatives have been able to carry the county by 300 at the two last local fights, hence their hope in placing the county in the Conservative column for Ottawa.

It appears that Sir Wilfrid Laurier has affixed his veto upon the nomination of Charles Parmlee, M.P., to the position of King's printer at Ottawa, and this means that the present representative will again have to face the electors.

In St. Lawrence the adjourned Conservative convention will take place on Thursday evening, while it is generally understood that the gifted L. T. Marechal, K.C. will be the Conservative standard-bearer in the division of St. Mary's.

Salvation Army Reduces Work of Im

Col. T. Howell, chief of the immigration department of the Salvation Army, has just returnel from England. He states that seven out of ten ships chartered for this season have been canceled, and that immigrants brought out will be given the rural districts. The Army has expended $155,000 on this department, exclusive of government grants, and the funds of the Army have not been aided with money raised for this movement

"One hears much about the parasites of the rich who live by the possession of some secret thru which they extort blackmail," says Baxter Ware in the current Harper's Weekly, "but there is a parasite of the poor of more the sinister aspect: the money-lender who takes a mortgage upon the salary of the clerk or poorly paid employe in ing,

States there is a loan shark's office, and they are especially numerous in railroad towns and towns where the colored population is an element. In a town of 10,000 inhabitants there will be not less than five offices, and in towns of a hundred thousand to two hundred thousand inhabitants there will be fifty to sixt yoffices. None of ese offices can be run at an expense of less than $150 per month, and the profit is anywhere from $50 to $3000 per month. A certain shark in one of the large cities loans $6000 a month, and makes a clear profit of $900 per month; another loans $5000, and clears another loan $2500, and clears $400. So it is not far wrong to estimate the average monthly profit of each office at $200; and in a city of a hundred thousand population, with about twenty offices in operation, that would mean that some $4000 accrues to the shark each month as profit, or $48,000 a year." Jack London's Sea Adventures. How Jack London lost his land-legs after twenty-seven days aboard the Snarw is divertingly recounted by the author in the current Harper's Weekly in the following words: "I sprad-dled along the wharf and nearly fell into the water. I glanced at Char-mian, and the way she walked made me sad. The wharf had all the seeming of a ship's deck. It lifted, tilted, ,and sank; and since there were no hand-rails on it, it kept Charnian and me busy avoiding falling in I. Ald. Farrar could not expect any other mian and me busy avoiding falling in. I treatment after outraging public opin never saw such a preposterous little ion by voting for the Cataract deal. Whenever I watched it closely, it refused to roll; but as soon as I took my attention off it, away it went, just like the Snark. Once I caught it in the act just as it upended. and I looked down the length of it for two hundred feet, and for all the world it was like the deck of a ship ducking into a huge head-sea."

ST. RAILWAY PROPOSES DEAL TO AVOID VOTE

olicitor-General Jacques Bureau declares Afraid to Trust Agreement to the People-What Col. Gibson Pleads.

> HAMILTON, Aug. 11 .- (Special.)-There is a brand new street railway deal on. Just what the details are is not yet known, but it has a worse appearance than the power deal. The aldermen and the company have been in almost endless negotiation, and the result was embodied in a bylaw changing the present agreement with the company. The principal features of it were that the company was to have its bonds guaranteed by the city to the extent of $500,000, and that the city was to accept 6 instead of 8 per cent. on the company's earnings above $316,000. For this the company agreed to build a new system and furnish fifty new cars. This bylaw had been given one reading and was supposed to come before the council to-night for a second reading. It was distinctly favorable to the company, but the trouble, from the point of view of the company's fairly accepted. pearance than the power deal. The the trouble, from the point of view of the company's friends, was that it had to be submitted to the people and the people are not in any temper to ratify a deal of that kind. The reason that it had to be submitted to the people was because the countries.

consent of the retepayers. This deal was called off by the company this afternoon and a new one proposed. the distinguishing feature of which is that it is the kind that the council can make without the consent of the ratepayers. The new proposition was made to the sub-committee of the special conference committee by Col. J. M. Gibson and W. C. Hawkins. They said that they would waive the guarantee of the bonds by the city if given instead of three years to make improvements and if the number of new cars to be furnished by the company was cut down from 50 to 30. They intimated that the reason for the change was that they feared the credit of the Dominion Power and Transmission Co. would be injured by
