FOE OF THE MIDDLEMAN Why W. T. R. Preston Was Disliked in the Orient.

OTTAWA, July 20.—Complaints have been received by the government from the British Colonial Office and the British ambassador at Tokio regarding the methods adopted by W. T. R. Preston, lately Canadian Trade Commissioner in the Orient, while working to establish and develop Canada's trade with Japan.

Mr. Preston, who is at present at Ottawa, this morning said that when he went there he found himself up against the whole foreign commercial element, particularly Great Britain, Germany, and the United States. It was not only, he said, that they objected to Japan buying from Canada what she had been purchasing from them, but they feared the application of the larger principle, the disturbance caused, they claimed, by Canada's at-tempt to do without the middleman. Mr. Preston may not go to Holland for some months yet. He will represent Canadian interests there.
