OSGOODE HALL RULING Liquor Conviction at Oshawa is Ordered Quashed by Mr.
Justice Latchford.

According to a judgment handed down by Mr. Justice Masten yesterday at Osgoode Hall in connection with the Green Valley separate school Lancaster, a fine of $500 and costs must be imposed on each of the trustees, Mederic Poirier and John Men-and, unless they undertake to provide the use of French in the school, and so far as possible prevent the use of French, contrary to law. The fine will be made if the order is not complied with in a month, and the undertaking must be accompanied with the costs of the applicant, D. McDonald, a Scottish taxpayer.

His lordship finds that the trustees have disregarded not only the spirit but also the letter of the injunction granted by Chief Justice Falconbridge in May, 1914. He says: "They were obliged with a rigid and obstinate desire to carry the matter to the last ditch."

An Ottawa Judgment.
Gervais Poulin of Ottawa, who brought an action against the corporation of that city for damages in consequence of injuries sustained when he fell off his wagon, has been awarded $250 and costs by Mr. Justice Sutherland. Poulin was driving along Parkdale avenue, Ottawa, when his horse took fright at a steam roller which was covered with white canvas, and he was thrown to the ground.

Mr. Justice Latchford quashed a conviction and $300 fine imposed on William Hewson of Oshawa, who was charged with keeping a cinder for sale in his restaurant, which was too "hard." The liquor seized was not sealed for two hours afterwards, and his lordship held that there was no proof that the liquor was the same as that which was analysed.

At a meeting of the Ontario Safety League the legislation committee, consisting of Messrs. Jas. H. Forrest (chairman), J. H. Doolittle, M.D., David Archibald, H. H. Couzens, and R. C.
Harris, was asked to report upon the street traffic code prepared by the Safety First Federation of America, New York. This code embodies the experience of the best traffic experts in the United States, and is the result of considerable labor and experience.

The legislation committee will probably ask the Ontario government to make certain alterations in the Motor Vehicle Act to cover the code mentioned.

B. Morley, secretary-treasurer of the league, has been granted leave of absence from the end of this month substantial rise in the value of the

IF KIDNEYS AND
BLADDER BOTHER
Take Salts to Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating
Acids

Kidney and bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority.
The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflammation, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, compelling you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very painful, again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they cannot control urination.
While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to cure. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continuing this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs, while then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with actual and is used by thousands of folks who are afflicted by urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. And this is spending for kidneys and comes no with effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effective, and health-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

TO USE FALSE COLORS?
Germany Admits Ruse May Complicate Matters to Some Extent.

BERLIN, Feb. 11.—The German Government's decision to treat armed merchants of hostile countries as warships has been received with the hottest approval. The press of all parties express the belief neutrals will now be compelled to avoid all merchants of nations at war with Germany and also to treat such vessels, when in their harbors, as warships, granting them only the usual right to a limited stay for taking on coal and so forth.

Captain I. Perissus says in The Tagblatt that the copy of the British admiralty instructions concerning operations against submarines will open the eyes of neutrals in regard to merchantmen armed "for defence only," and that neutrals will treat them as warships. The new procedure, he says, will make the way easier for the submarine, although there is still the possibility that Germany's enemies will fly false colors.

Just a Coincidence.
The editor of The Tagblatt, in a paragraph introductory to Captain Perissus' article, points out that the appearance of the German memoraandum at this juncture is in no way dictated by the status of the Lusitania case, but that it is simply a coincidence.
The memorandum was issued at the time when the negotiations with the United States had reached their present phase.

The Kreuz Zeitung asserts the memorandum opens the way to a settlement of the Lusitania case, and also abolishes the possibility of protecting hostile ships by placing Americans on board. It refers to the flying of false colors and continues:
"America and other neutrals permit this deceptive use of their colors.
No matter whether they cannot or will not stop it, they must bear the responsibility. If we are to treat all enemy merchantmen which are armed as belligerents we cannot but believe that the Lusitania case is a neutral flag is used wrongfully, the warning we gave a year ago, that even neutral ships entering the war zone do so at their own peril, still holds good."

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—Under the says editorially:

"The Herald would be untrue to its public if it did not explain the situation at Washington, instead of being cleared by the reported understanding with Germany, is far worse than at any time since the European war be-

"The United States has suffered terribly in lost prestige in the last few days. But no one imagined that matters had been maneuvered by our statesmen, supreme under the influence of the German ambassador, that we were now posing as a sort of halfwitted being, who had been slapped in the face repeatedly by the German diplomats at home, and yet who had been dragged into a league with Ger-ships that do not conform to disarmament after March 1.

CLOAN HAS BRIGHT IDEA.
He Would Have Truce Apply to Vacancies in Senate.

OTTAWA, Feb. 11.—Senator Cloan is out with a proposal to apply the party-by-election truce to the senate as well as the commons, and will ask the government whether it is the intention to fill vacancies due to death of Liberal senators with Liberal men, and whether the war is in progress.

There is really no truce agreement regarding the use of commons, and unless one is arranged it is probable that the seats will be allowed to remain open.

"THE DYNASTS."
Next week at the Alexandra Theatre will be society week, when "The Dynasts," Thomas Hardy's great spectacular play, will be presented for the entire week, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. The object which the producers have in view is to be able to contribute a handsome sum to the Toronto branch of the Red Cross Society. It is under the patronage of Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Duchess of Cornwall, who will come to Toronto for the occasion and attend the Thursday evening performance.

The production will be under the personal direction of Mr. Frank Lascelles, who is recognized as the world's greatest living master of the art of pageantry. "The Dynasts" presents in a series of scenes spoken in blank verse, the great events which swayed Europe and the world over a hundred years ago.
The scenes are presented in turn. Moreover the social life of the times in Wessex, London, the peninsula and Waterloo, are presented in a series of scenes. It is a period of history covering the years 1815 to 1848.

The production will be many luminaries of society, among whom are: Miss Hendrie, and the Misses Mackenzie, Miss Dorothy Walker, Miss Kathleen Alexander, Miss Conyn, Miss Gwyn Francis, Mrs. Leah McCarthy, Miss Gwyn, Miss Dorothy Chapin, Miss Rosemary, Miss Joyce Ince, Mrs. Cawthra Mulock and others. Among the men in the cast are:
Frank Burton, Lord Griffin, Fane Sewell, William Beardmore, Frankfort Rogers, Lieut. Ogden, Cochrane and others.

"WAKE UP!"
The London Daily Express, in speaking of "Wake Up!" the stirring patriotic photo play, which will be at the Grand Opera House all next week under the auspices of the Citizens' Recruiting League of Toronto, uses the following terms: "This wonderful patriotic film, which has been produced with the assistance and approval of the war office, has electrified the country, and already bids fair to become the greatest film produced during the war. Praise like this coming from a paper of the character of The Express is a high commendation, and there is no doubt but that the Canadian showing of this picture will be marked by the same enthusiasm that has greeted its English presentation. Following the custom of the English exhibitors, the management of 'Wake Up!' is inviting the soldiers at the Grand Opera House to attend the Wednesday afternoon showing of the film as guests of the house."

SHEA'S THEATRE.
The Hat Salesman, with the immittable comedian Frank McIntyre in the role of the central character, will headline the bill at Shea's next week. Mc-Intyre, who will be remembered here for his work in his comedy sketches at the Travelling Salesman, is using George V.
Hobart's latest sketch, which is said to be even more amusing than any of the others which he has appeared. The feature of the bill will be the Arnauld Brothers, the clever eccentric play boys, who play different aerial feats. Gus Van and Joe Schleusky, billed as "The Pomant-Mir-ning Battery of Songland," have a pleasing musical offering. Shirly Rives and Ben Harrison, who play a hilarious song and chatter melange, while Lady Alice's pets will prove a sort of fun to the kiddies. The character girls are whirling Gelsa dancers, while Jim and Megan, the musical comedians, will Brady and Norris, in their bright light playlet, "Loveland," and feature film section complete the bill.

THE HIPPODROME.
The spectacular scenic novelty, "The Girl With a Thousand Eyes," headlines the bill at the Hippodrome next week.
For attractive scenery, brilliant lighting effects, together with some of the most melodious, the offering is said to be unequaled in vaudeville. The special features of the bill are the appearance of those two laugh-provoking comedians, Archer and Belford, in their amusing farce, "The Jancos Troubles." William Faversham, the distinguished legiti-mate star, will be featured in the great Metro photo play, "The Girl Who Dollars." It is said to be the best of all the excellent pictures in which Faversham has appeared. The Clark Brothers have a clever comedy juggling offering, while Nevins and Bravin are two amusing black-faces, who play "Gulls and Lambert and the Wood Musical Trio in their own original melange complete a well-balanced bill.

LOEW'S THEATRE.
The clever comedy star, Ed Bondell, a noted humorist, with his company in his comedy offering, "The Actor's Boy," will be the feature attraction at Loew's Yonge Street Theatre the coming week.
In this sketch Bondell appears as a country boy and impersonates a child of 10 to 12, in spite of the fact that he weighs almost 300 pounds. The other one of the prettiest girls playing the Loew circuit, will be featured in the comedy, "The Actor's Boy," which is a organization with a company of twelve people, will offer a tersely choreographed comedy, "The Actor's Boy," presented by a series of character impressions.
The comedy will be featured by Clark and McCullough, comedians; Redington and Grant, called "The Bounding Tramps," tramp-line performers, and other acts will complete the bill.

THE STRAND THEATRE.
The feature at the Strand Theatre for Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, next will be "The Prince of War," one of the very best of dramas on the war, with a fine cast at the star. The photo-play pulsates with interest. It is the most convincing drama on the war, and the menace of the battlefields scenes are magnificent. The play grips and holds the audience from start to finish. The bill will also comprise the two-act Charlie Chaplin comedy, "A Night at the Show."

MASSED BAND CONCERT.
On Saturday evening next, at Massey Hall, the Citizens' Recruiting League will give a massed band concert for the purpose of raising money for the bands of the overseas battalions now stationed in Toronto, waiting to go to the front.
The band, consisting of five brass and five bands and two hundred players, will be on the platform. Some of the best bands in Toronto and Ontario are members of the overseas bands, and that the concert will be a decided success is almost without saying. Mrs. Frank Mac-kelcan and Marley Sherrie will be the soloists. The general admission to the hall will be 25 cents, with the first gallery reserved at 50 cents. The public are advised to secure their seats early.

"THE GLOBE TROTTERS."
At the Gaiety Theatre next week, "Blotch" Cooper will present his famous "Globe Trotters," headed by the two burlesque stars, Frank Hunter and Frankie Rice, assisted by an unusually strong company, in the merry and musical comedy entitled "The Doves Seekers." The "Doves Seekers" is the joint work of Tom McFarlane and "Bert" Cooper, who collaborated on the book.
Billie K. Wells, who furnished the lyrics, and Wm. H. Farrell, who composed the music. The complete roster of the company is: Billie K. Wells, Wm. H. Farrell, Nigel Rice, Frankie Rice, Wm. H. Farrell, Robert, Agnes, Chas. T. Brown, Maude Robert, Florence, Florence, Florence, Sarah Hyatt and Edith Mirfield. There

PROHIBITION

WORSE THAN USELESS

The history of Prohibition legislation is very interesting, and one of the most interesting things about it is the fact that so many States of the Union have at one time or other had Prohibition, tried it, and given it up as worse than useless.

States Pass Prohibitory Laws, Then Repeal Them

In SOUTH DAKOTA it was adopted in 1889 and repealed in 1896.

In NEBRASKA, adopted in 1885 and soon repealed, with a second attempt to adopt it defeated in 1880.

In IOWA, adopted in 1884 and abandoned a few years later.

In ILLINOIS, adopted in 1855, repealed in the same year.

In INDIANA, adopted in 1855 and soon abandoned, with a second attempt to adopt it defeated in 1882.

In OHIO, adopted in 1855, repealed in the same year, with a second attempt to adopt it defeated in 1914.

In NEW YORK, adopted in 1854, repealed in 1856.

In VERMONT, adopted in 1852, repealed in 1903.

In NEW HAMPSHIRE, adopted in 1855, repealed in 1889.

In MASSACHUSETTS, adopted in 1855, repealed in 1870, with a second attempt to adopt it defeated in 1889.

In CONNECTICUT, adopted in 1854, repealed in 1872, with a second attempt to adopt it defeated in 1889.

In RHODE ISLAND, adopted first in 1853 repealed in 1863, adopted again in 1886 and repealed in 1889.

In MARYLAND, adopted in 1855 and repealed in the same year.

In DELAWARE, adopted in 1855, repealed in 1857.

In MICHIGAN, adopted in 1853, repealed in 1875, the second proposal being defeated in 1887.

While ALABAMA repealed its prohibitory law in 1912.

remember that similar waves have risen and subsided, not once, but many times; that, as we have shown, very many of the most important States in the Union tried the experiment years ago, found it a failure, and repealed it; and further, as may be incidentally mentioned, that these States are among the most progressive, populous, and intelligent of all. For example, as to population, six "dry" States—Idaho, Arizona, Oregon, Colorado, North Dakota, and Oklahoma—have, altogether, fewer inhabitants by over half a million than has the one "wet" city of New York, while as to wealth, possibly one street in the city of New York could buy out all these "dry" States combined.

The Personal Liberty League of Ontario believes in temperance in all things, and in its promotion; we favor the license system under proper regulation and control, but we are opposed to prohibition or any legislation which encroaches upon or curtails the purely personal liberties of our people.
