

BETTING ON HORSE RACES BRITAIN'S GREATEST AMUSEMENT

LARGE AMOUNT WAGERED EACH YEAR IN ENGLAND

Estimated $940,000,000 Changes Hands—New Tax Will Raise Good Sum

LONDON, July 21.—Bet on horse racing is Britain's greatest amusement.

In the pursuit of this amusement, the government estimates that $940,000,000 changes hands every year. One-tenth of this the government has reason to believe, changes hands literally in street betting, which is illegal; the other nine-tenths, or around $840,000,000 is race course or "credit betting" and is perfectly legal.

When the new tax, 2 per cent. on all "legal" betting goes into effect on November 1, the hard-pressed British treasury will take in at least $300,000,000.

This is $1,000,000 more revenue than the treasury gets from all the theatres and movie palaces in Great Britain.

It is $7,000,000 more revenue than the treasury gets from the licenses issued to all places where alcoholic liquors are consumed.

Practically all the leading clubs in Great Britain, except the "merit" Women's club in Grosvenor street, and its British sister, the Lyceum club on Piccadilly, have been obliged to install "credit" betting, which is perfectly legal.

At the earliest possible moment the results from Epsom or Ascot or Newmarket or Goodwood. All hotels and theatres post the results as a matter of course. On the other hand, there has never been any demand for the installation of tickers covering Stock Exchange transactions.

Tabloid of New Light Heavyweight Champion Winning Crown

"Well, how 'bout it, Paul?" Delaney seems to be thinking as they squared away. And Paul is set to start something.

There goes a left lead, with Delaney's right hand, but it's a feint. Paul's right hand is set to start something.

Back into a clinch goes Paul, ducking under Jack's right hand. Delaney's right hand is set to start something.

A sock to the head greets Delaney as he backs in, but it's a feint. Paul's right hand is set to start something.

A new champion, Paul! And there were few to disagree as the judges raised Jack's hand after the fifth round.

ST. STEPHEN, N. B., July 21.—The fourth race meeting of the Maine and New Brunswick Harness Racing Circuit, opens at the St. Stephen Driving Park this afternoon.

Three classes compose the opening card and although Peter Kennedy, 2,085, Joe Johnson's candidate, has been touted as going to have a walk-over in the Junior free-for-all, there are those who favor the chances of Lambert Todd, 2,024, Will Utter's pacer, owned in Sherbrooke, Que., so well that they sold for $50 apiece and were well backed.

Gleaming Silk, 2,134, which "Red" Hunsfin thinks is at the top of her form now, is such a favorite in Hall's trot that she sold at even money against the field, composed of Bonnie Girl, 2,134, Ella Watts, 2,144, Little Bondsman, 2,094, and Blue Jay, 2,134. There are eight starters in the 2:17 class and they were split in "tops" and "bottoms" in the auction pools; the top lot was T. J. Devlin, Money-monger, and the bottom lot was Peter and Bottoms.

John Willard, the veteran Aroostook reinsman, has arrived and says that John R. Braden, 2,224, will make his first start of the season in the free-for-all tomorrow; the other starters are Hal Malone, 2,01, Besse McKillop, 2,014, Auto Pace, 2,064, and El Verso, 2,054.

ST. STEPHEN, N. B., July 21.—A little brown gelding named Holyrood Walter, seven years old, owned by Roger V. Whitehead, of Duluth, Minn., won the $25,000 American racing Grand Circuit meeting here today after a race that went four killing heats before the honors were decided.

Louis Direct, owned by Walter T. Candler, of Atlanta, Ga., son of the millionaire "Coca Cola" King, was second, with Holyrood Walter, the entry of Getty and Thomas, of St. Paul, Minn., third.

GALLANT FIGHT FAILS.
Louis Direct, however, made a gallant attempt to overtake the flying Holyrood Walter in the stretch, but finished half a length back with Holyrood.

How To Swim
BY LILLIAN CANNON

ACTION OF THE HANDS AND FEET, STANDING POSITION

Before any stroke is learned one should be able to remain afloat upright in the water.

That is where the scissors kick is invaluable and why it is described first. Ability to remain afloat will give the basis for any stroke that is learned, and remaining afloat is the easiest thing in the world if one knows the scissors kick and doesn't mind the head going under the water.

Stand in water at the same time. In the first movement as the body rises and the second and third as the body pauses for an instant and then goes down.

As soon as there is some proficiency in making the scissors kick while standing upright, stretch the arms out from the shoulders with the hands flat in the water just below the surface.

While standing, move the hands back and forth for a distance of about 16 inches, lifting the head to oppose the water at each movement. The hands should at all times while they are moving present a 30 degree plane from the horizontal.

Take care that the arms are not held too stiffly and that the movement back and forth is easy and natural. A very short practice in this movement should develop the scissors kick. The first time it will not be successful, but the first thing one knows the real swimming has begun.

Some one naturally, comes suddenly, sometimes after one has almost given up hope. Persistence is always rewarded, if the correct methods are followed.

Games Tonight

WEATHER permitting, the Saint John's and St. Rose's will play a City League game on the North End grounds. The St. Rose's will make a strong effort to stop the winning streak of the Saint John's, who are leading the second section of the league by a good margin.

A good Intermediate League game is expected to be played this evening on the South End diamond between the Nationals and Imperials.

If the Nationals win, the two teams will be tied for first place in the league race.

A South End league postponed game will be played on St. Peter's Park between the St. John's Baptists and the Nationals.

WATERMEN AND NATIONALS WIN

The Water Department defeated the Trojans on the East End diamond last evening by a score of 8 to 0. The battle was a pitchers' duel from start to finish. The Watermen's pitcher, allowed seven scattered hits, while Kerr, his opponent, was touched for nine.

Loose fielding practically lost the game for the Orange and Black Kerr. A single and double in four times at bat, allowed seven scattered hits, while Kerr, his opponent, was touched for nine.

JACK MCKENNA PUTS K. O. ON FRUZETTE

Cape Breton Boxer Outweighs Boston Opponent—End Game in 7th

SYDNEY, N. S., July 20.—Jack McKenna, Maritime welterweight champion, tonight knocked out Jimmy Frusette, of Boston, in the seventh round of their scheduled ten round bout.

Frusette's weight, taken at 2 o'clock this afternoon, was announced as 138 pounds, while McKenna, who did not weigh-in today, announced through his manager that he tipped the beam at 148 pounds, although he appeared five pounds heavier.

Frusette put up a great exhibition of gameness for six rounds, but the visitor found the odds too great against him to mix things with McKenna, whose heavy punching rushes left Frusette groggy at the end of every round.

In the third round, Frusette, taking a crushing right to the jaw, fell to the canvas, but rose again at the count of nine. Clever boxing and fast foot work enabled him to keep away from the local boxer until the bell rang.

END COMES IN 7TH.
The end came in the seventh, after two minutes of boxing. Frusette, weak and groggy from the effects of the terrific punishment he had received, was unable to escape McKenna's heavy punches.

Frusette was not knocked out badly, but as his referee was counting over him, he cried out: "I don't care," and waited until the count was completed.

Frusette claimed McKenna hit him low in the fourth round, but the referee ordered the fight to continue. The Boston boxer was not kept badly.

The bout was attended by about 800 fans, and was refereed by "Archie" Boston, of Dominion.

HUMAN FLY WILL AID OARSMEN'S FUND

Jerry Hudson Engaged to Give Exhibition Here on Friday Evening

Jerry Hudson, styled the "human fly" on account of many daring feats in climbing skyscrapers, has arrived in Saint John. It was announced last evening that the purpose of his visit here was to help the Saint John Rowing Club raise money with which they can help along the younger generation of the city, who are showing some signs of progress in the rowing game.

Hudson is billed to give an exhibition of building-climbing in the city on Friday evening. A committee of the local rowing club has interviewed several proprietors of large buildings here with the idea of getting permission to allow the "human fly" to demonstrate his ability before a Saint John public.

It is planned to have Hudson scale several large buildings in the city on Friday evening. The hat will be given along the crowd, which is expected to assemble, and the proceeds will be devoted entirely to help the young local scullers.

Boats will be purchased and it is planned to expend the money in a manner that will be for the best possible advantage to the rowing game here.

Hudson comes to Saint John with an enviable reputation as a daring, dashing building climber. He has thrilled large crowds in many of the big cities of the United States and elsewhere.

A strong committee is at work in Saint John in connection with Hudson's visit and it is hoped that the proceeds from his appearance will be large enough to promote full well the plans of the Saint John Rowing Club in regard to its proteges.

MARYSVILLE SLUGS WAY TO VICTORY
FREDERICTON, July 20.—Marysville slugged the way to a victory over Fredericton in the York County Baseball League tonight. The score was 8 to 2.

Marysville won the game in the first inning by heavy batting.

Score by innings:
Marysville.....3 0 0 2 8 0
Fredericton.....0 0 0 1 0 0

Now begin to swim. Take care not to get into deep water at first. Make sure that you are really swimming before trying any stunts that might endanger life.

A setback at the beginning will do more harm than a month's delay. Move the hands and arms as described. When the upward pull is sure, take a little jump and make the scissors kick. The first time it will not be successful, but the first thing one knows the real swimming has begun.

Some one naturally, comes suddenly, sometimes after one has almost given up hope. Persistence is always rewarded, if the correct methods are followed.

Summary.—Two base hits, Current, 3; of Dalton 9; of Leary, 1. Sacrifice hit, Rogers, Written. Base on balls, of Dalton 9; of Leary, 1. Dermott. Score, Watling.

ALERTS TO ROTHESAY.
The Alerts, intermediate ball players, will journey to Rothesay tonight to clash with the Rothesay nine there. The Alerts will have their strongest lineup on the field tonight. A good game is expected.

Struck out by Dalton 7; by Leary 4; Solen base. Current 2, White, Yeomans, Leary, Nixon, Payne. Hit by pitcher, Jones, Leary by Dalton. Left on base, St. John's Baptists 8; Nationals 7. Time of game 1 hour, 40 minutes. Umpires, Sprout and Crocker, of Montreal, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4.

CANADA ELIMINATED.
HAYANA, July 20.—Canada was eliminated from the Davis Cup tennis this year, when Rogelio Paraisangales, champion of Cuba, defeated Willard Crocker, of Montreal, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4.

Chandler of California May Become Brilliant Tennis Star

NEW YORK, July 21.—The victory, for the second year in succession, of Chandler of the University of California in the intercollegiate tennis championship increases the suspicion that he is due for a ranking among the first 10 men players in this country.

It is possible that Chandler might have won a place among the leaders last year had he remained for the important Eastern tournaments. This year it is understood that he will be possibly will stay for the national championship.

Since the sudden rise of France in the world of tennis, America must look to its colleges for the stars that will succeed Tilden, Johnston, Richards, et al. In Chandler and his fellow-Californians, Cranston Holman, there are many possibilities.

Holman has been runner-up for two straight years in the intercollegiate and has given Chandler a great final battle on both occasions.

The Stanford youth is apt to wear himself out on impossible "sets," whereas Chandler has more court craft and knows when much can be gained in lulling for a game or a set if need service and a strong backcourt game.

The intercollegiate tournament, held this year at Haverford, Pa., was a remarkable demonstration of how perfect the seeding system can become. Not only did the eight seeded players reach the round before the semi-final, but the top four went into the semi-finals and the two outstanding favorites met for the title.

Leading foot specialist tells dangers of paring corns at home

"Home paring of corns is opening the door to infection," writes Dr. J. S. Anley, the prominent chiropodist and foot specialist of Cleveland, Ohio. "Corns should be cut only by a chiropodist."

Indeed, see your chiropodist as often as you see your dentist, if you would keep your feet in prime condition. But between visits, when a corn needs attention, put on a Blue-jay plaster. It is the safe, sure and gentle way of removing corns at home. So recognized by leading authorities for 25 years.

Blue-jay is scientific. There is no guesswork about it. You do not have to guess how little or how much to put on. Each plaster is a standardized treatment—with just the right amount of medication to end the corn. At all drug stores.

Bald Men Grow Hair
Surprising reports are coming from men who were bald or losing hair and who, after using a peculiar compound, had their hair grow again. "Four inches of hair have grown over my bald spot," is the report of G. W. Mitchell.
