Were 55 Cents in Fredericton at Noon - Much Produce Taken Away Unsold.

(Special to Times.)
Fredericton, Dec. 24—The feature of the Xmas market in Fredericton today was the decidedly downward tendency of the prices of turkeys, geese, chickens, and fowl. All were offered in such quantities that they were not all sold. The prices asked were so high that purchasers would not buy and as time went the prices asked were so high that purchasers would not buy and as time went. of National Unity-Further

AN INTERESTING FACT.
Combining his season's greetings with a statement of fact that will dispel the mistaken idea that St. John is perpetually in the grip of the fog demons, Mayor Schofield has issued an attractive and novel card this year. The front bears in colors the arms of the clty. Inside is a panorama picture taken from Market Square, showing Water, Prince William, King and Dock streets, while on the back is a statement showing that St. John Matinee Only—Mary Pick-ford and Larry Semoni.
