

PROVINCIAL RED CROSS

Grant of $50,000 for Work
This Year—Reports of Officers.

The New Brunswick provincial division of the Red Cross at its meeting yesterday received word through C. B. Allan that the central council had granted it $50,000 for the coming year. The division promised assistance in the health week being planned by the department of health for the end of April and decided to extend to the women's institutes, the chapters of the I. O. O. F. and the council of women an invitation to name representatives as members of the provincial executive of the society.

R. T. Hayes, the president, was in the chair. In the absence of the treasurer, C. B. Allan, his report was read. It told of total receipts $12,618.16 and expenditures, including $1,000 for the hospital committee and $1,500 for the Victorian Order training school, $3,078.37. The balance on hand was $9,539.79.

A letter was read from Dr. Abbot of Toronto fixing the dates for the '45th. A letter praising the work of the port committee received by the dominion president from the minister of immigration was forwarded. The sub-district of the board of health wrote asking assistance in health week planned for April. The Soldiers' Settlement Board sent thanks for the nurse supplied by the society to give lectures for Soldiers' wives and for a gift of socks.

Mrs. J. V. Anglin reported for the hospital committee that there were 150 soldiers in hospital and that $1,196 had been spent for comforts for them in two months. The report of the port com-

POLICE COURT.

In the police court yesterday afternoon Leonard Cowan, charged with driving a horse that was unfit for use, was again arraigned. Dr. Donovan, in his evidence, supported the charge. The accused told the court that he bought the horse at auction and was under the impression it was a sound animal, but later found it was not. Commission Thornton said the horse was not one of the city horses that the accused thought he was buying. The case was postponed. J. King Kelley appeared for the defence.

A case against Hyman Tassar, charged with having liquor unlawfully, was resumed, and the accused said he went to the station to get the liquor which he had bought in Montreal recently and that his residence was private, as the door leading from the hall to the store was nailed up. W. M. Ryan appeared for the prosecution, and J. A. Barry for the defence.

Two retail vendors were before the court charged with selling liquor without a bona fide prescription. The doctors issuing the prescriptions said they did so in good faith, and the patients in each case were in need of the medicine prescribed. W. J. Mahoney and J. B. Dever appeared for the vendors, and Wm. Ryan conducted the prosecution.

FURTHER EVIDENCE IN ST. PIERRE CASE

In the case against William St. Pierre, charged with murdering Minnie Stevens, was resumed yesterday. Dr. Fred Herbert was called and told of seeing the accused at a dance and of his telling him of a fight at Green River. The accused said at the time that there had been blood on him but he had changed his clothes. Later he said accused told him that he felt uneasy about the finding of the body. The witness said there was a stain on the accused's shirt. Leon Gagnon, Charles Magoon, Frank Bourgois, bank manager William Pickard and Madame Bellefleur, also gave evidence. It was thought the case for the Crown was closed and it is expected the case will go to the jury on Tuesday.

USE The Want Ad Way

A workman in a Utah mining camp threw a bucket of water upon a sputtering electric wire. The electricity "played back" over the stream to the bucket in the man's hands, causing his instantaneous death.
One of the peculiarities of the Eskimos is that brides are selected principally because of the condition of their teeth. This is because women are expected to chew leather for moccasins and to soften skins.

Empire, the Women's Institutes, and the Council of Women be asked to appoint representatives as members of the executive of the New Brunswick division of the Red Cross was carried. Hon. W. P. Roberts, minister of health, appeared to ask co-operation of the society in a health week in April. On motion it was left with the progress and activities committee to render and assistance possible. Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Walter Harrison were added to the committee.

Miss Kate Stewart of Fredericton, convenor of the Junior Red Cross reported progress. Mrs. W. F. Ferguson of Moncton reported that that branch hoped to undertake the support of a public health nurse shortly. The report of treasurer, C. B. Allan, was read by the secretary in Mr. Allan's absence. In the budget it was included a grant of $50,000 for New Brunswick for this year, although the central council felt that New Brunswick had in some measure failed to grasp the opportunity which it had in the Red Cross for public health work and in comparison with the other provinces its record of achievement was small. The good wishes of Lady Tilly were extended to the division in a message.

The secretary's report was presented by Miss Ethel Hazen Jarvis, and said that the month had been one of the most active since the close of the war. It dealt with the work of the society in its various phases and told of the intended visit of Dr. McCready in the interests of Junior Red Cross work.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

The minister of justice has granted the application for a new trial in the case of the King against Alva Peel, charged with arson, on the ground that the evidence did not warrant a conviction. The indictment followed a fire in Oxford, N. S., about a year ago.

In a statement made yesterday at Ottawa with reference to a possible attempt to unseat him, Senator George W. Fowler of Sussex, said his domicile was in New Brunswick, that he practiced law here and that his property was here. The situation was not varied by the fact that his wife happened to own a house in Ottawa.

Incited by his father to shoot another man, Romeo Remillard of Quebec escaped with a prison term for manslaughter while his father, Joseph Remillard, must go to the gallows. An appeal was entered based on two grounds: Whether the father could be guilty of murder when he had merely counselled his son who was of age, and whether the trial judge erred in not charging the jury that it might find the father guilty of manslaughter as well as murder.

Five young men of Dublin have been sentenced to death by hanging by a court martial after being convicted of high treason in carrying on war against the king. The vice-roy has commuted the sentence of one of the men to life imprisonment because of the fact that he is only seventeen years of age.

His Lordship Bishop Chalmers at Bathurst today, conferred holy orders on Alfred Lezer of Upper Aboussagang, Westmorland county, and William Briceau of Tracadie, Gloucester county, and subdeaconship on Omca McGreevy of Grand Anse, Gloucester county. All are students of Eudist Seminary.
