Hardest to Strike Out

Tommy Daly, a former North End boy, who is now with the Chicago White Sox, distinguished himself yesterday in a game between his team and the New York Giants in London.

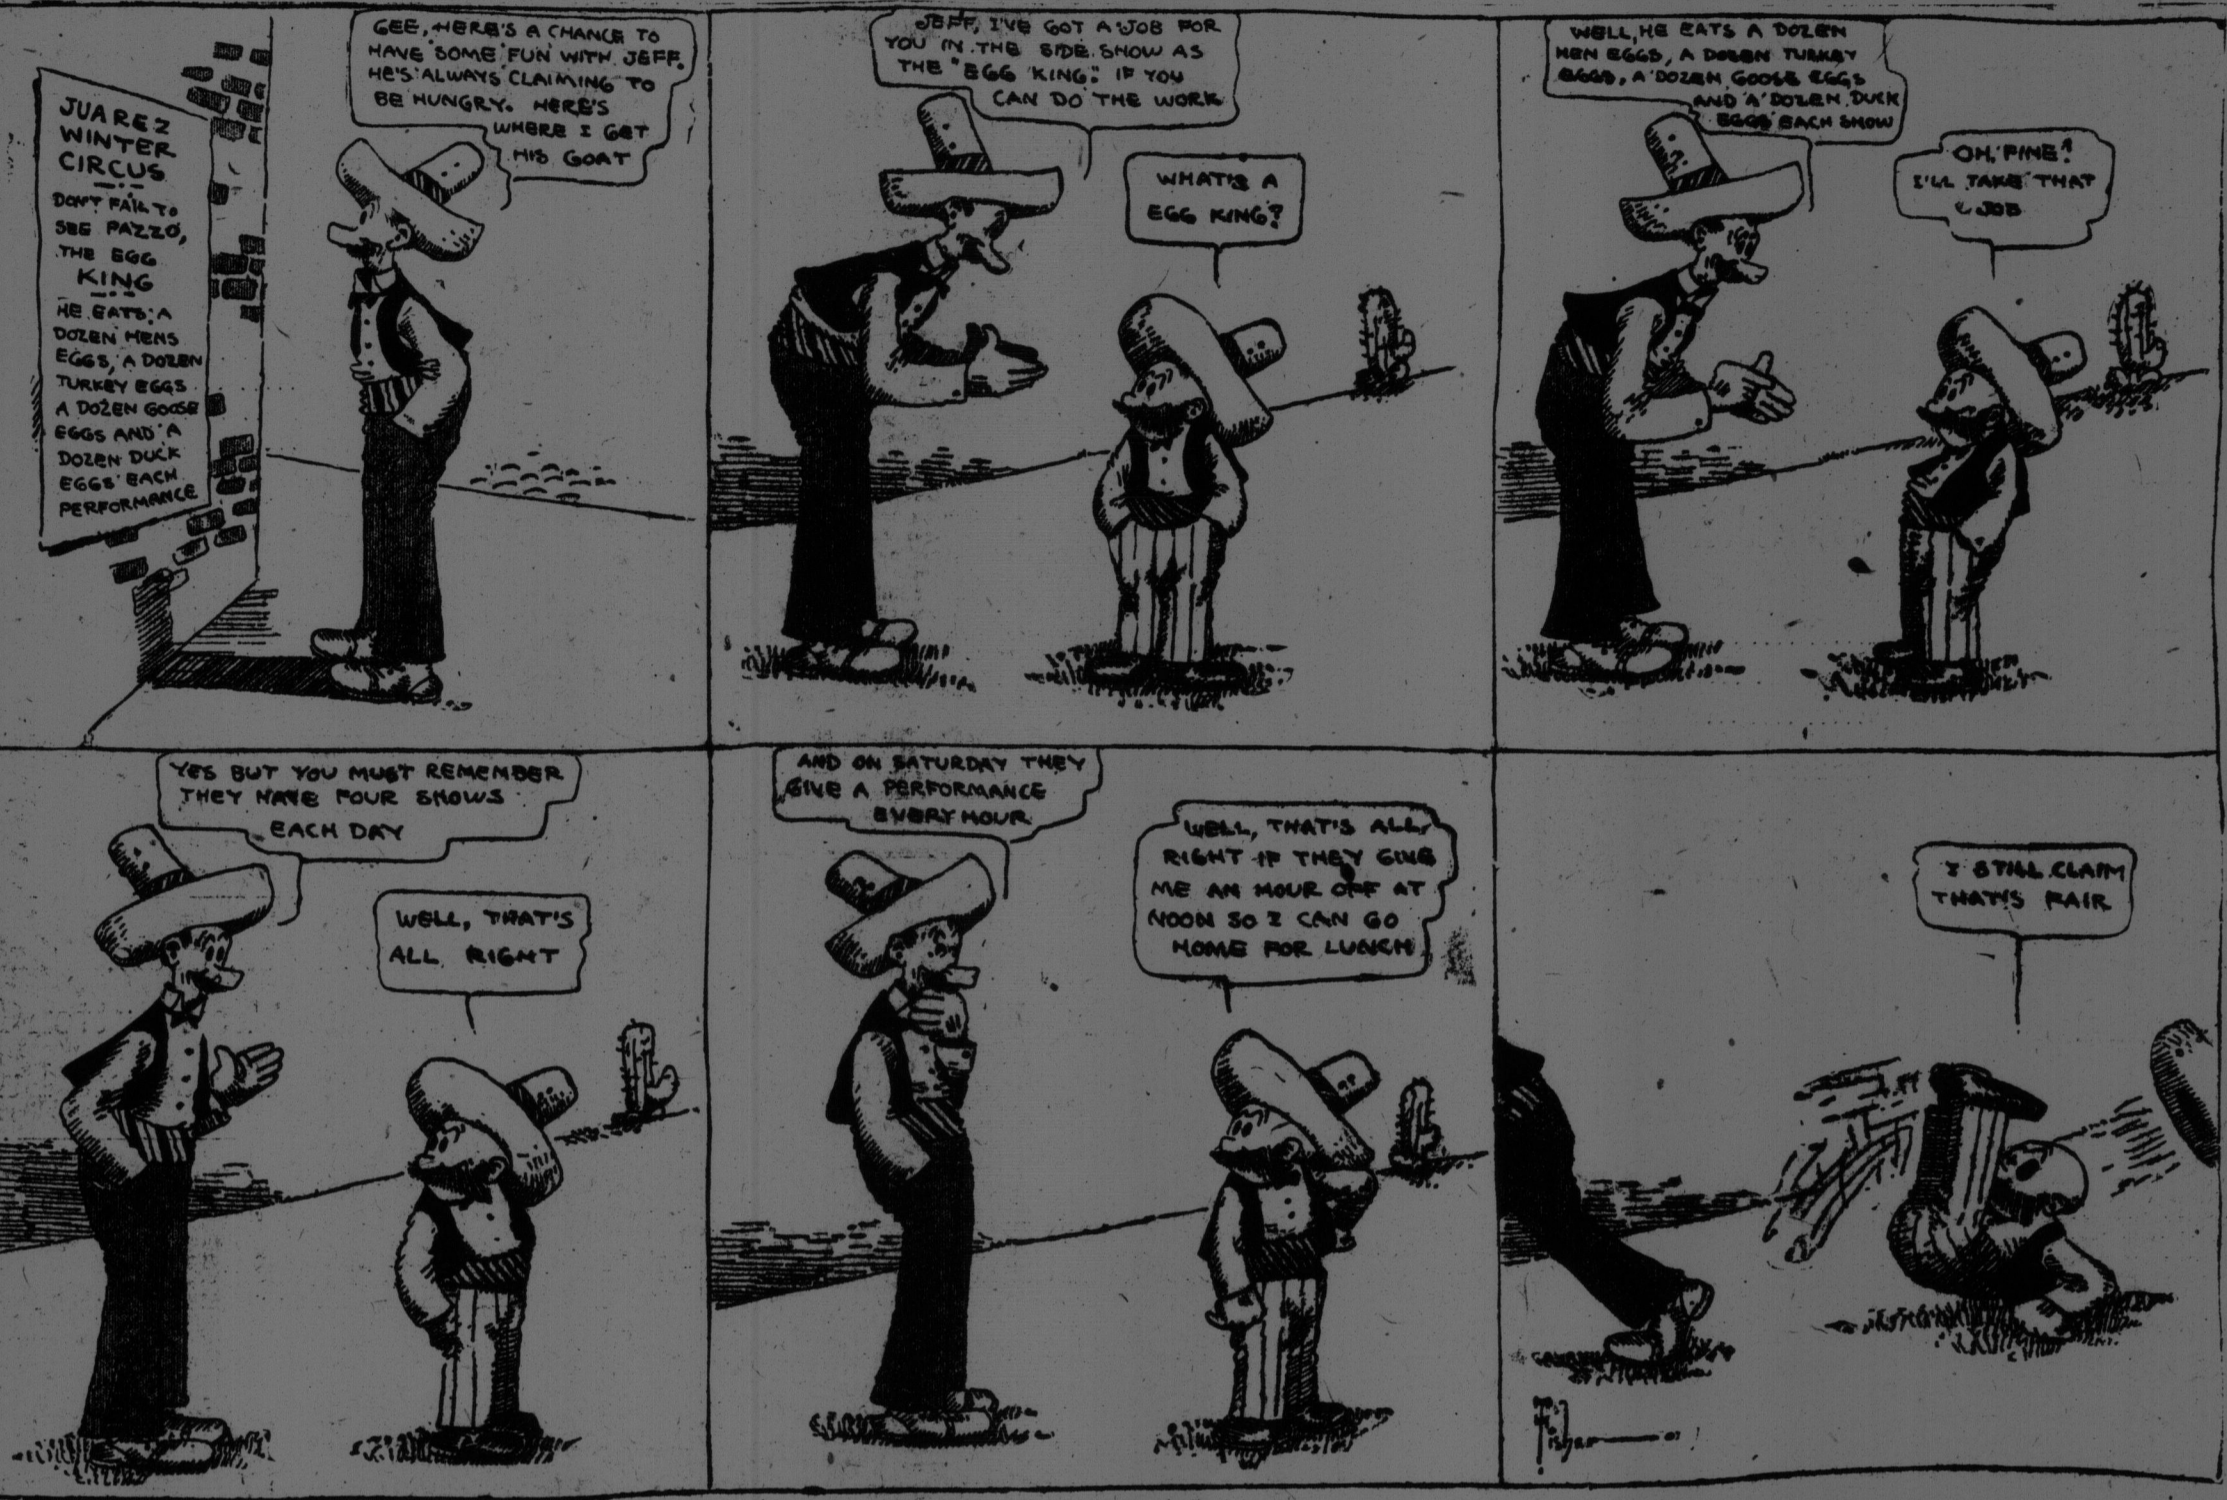

The game was played before 80,000 spectators, many of whom never saw the game played before, but they were nevertheless, very enthusiastic.

Daly, who was the hero of the game, is a nephew of James Daly, chief appraiser for H. M. Customs, this city.

In his school days he was a member of several local junior teams. When his family moved to Cambridge, Mass., six years ago, Tommy entered Harvard and it was on one of the baseball teams there that he attracted the attention of Manager Hugh Bennett of the Detroit Club, who put the Lowell club on his Milwaukee, Feb. 25.—The calling off or rather postponement of the proposed match between Mike Gibbons and Packer McFarland before the Madison Square Garden club in New York is to be regretted and it is hoped that Billy Gibbons will be able to get them together at a later date.

Everything seems to be set now for the big match of the year—the ten round tilt between Ad Wolgast, the champion, and Willie Ritchie, the present holder of the title—before the Queensbury Athletic club of Milwaukee on March 12.

It is very probable that the two stars will get together at a later date and try their skill in a ten round bout. I think that Mike will have the surprise of his life when he tucks the Chicago boy.

His fight with Jack Britton in Milwaukee should not be taken as a criterion of what he can do. On that occasion

The Trojan fanned only eighty-four times in 1912. More surprising still, no strike-outs came in the same game and no pitcher did the trick more than once.

Laloue held the crown in the American League, striking out 17 times. Tris Speaker of Boston breezed on 24 occasions, Joe Jackson of Cleveland on 26, Ty Cobb of Detroit on 32, and Frank Baker of Philadelphia on 33.

None of these men was able to equal Erser's accomplishment of avoiding being struck out twice by the same pitcher, though Joe Jackson passed through the campaign without jamming a pair of strikeouts into the same controversy.

Van Greig of Cleveland fanned Cobb twice on Sept. 4, a performance that induced an expert to declare that year ago Clark Griffith, then of the Highlanders, had once struck out the "Georgia Peach" four times.

This impeachment of the "Peach" denies.

King Applauds St. John Boy. Tommy Daly, a former North End boy, who is now with the Chicago White Sox, distinguished himself yesterday in a game between his team and the New York Giants in London.

Spirited Contests at Maritime Championships Last Night

There have been no more interesting amateur skating contests in St. John for many years than those at the Victoria rink last evening.

Washington Star:—"Working hard!" "I should say so," replied the student. "My football was so poor that I'll have to see if I can do something to please father with my Latin. The only thing is that I can never get him to take the interest in books that he does in football."

Editor (to aspiring writer): "You should write so that the most ignorant can understand what you mean." Aspirant: "Well, what part of my paragraph don't you understand?"

IN THIS THREE-PART PICTURE we carry our heroes, as it were, across the ocean to many hot and give them some startling experiences among the hands of the mountains, the problem presented to the hero and his merry band of companions of long ago.

The danger is that they will get into the hands of the most popular and daring aviators of the land.

The girl is only that they could collect heavy ransom for her liberation, the desperadoes are seen by the hero while competing in a mountaineering race.

It descends quickly to the ground but himself is captured. Astonishing, adventures and lovers are taken to the land.

What follows after that is thrilling indeed. By a clever ruse the hero escapes his captors and while being carried off to their mountain hide place is only that they could collect heavy ransom for her liberation, the desperadoes are seen by the hero while competing in a mountaineering race.
