But on the way to the depot. the young lady borrowed the last and only dollar from her escort, saying that she would purchase some chocolates to take home, and passed him a dime to buy souvenir post cards. As he returned from the post card shop, his prospective bride had disappeared and he was left with a dress suit case, two return tickets and no money and far from home.

and he was left with a dress suit case, two return tickets and no money and far from home.

After doing the "Wandering Willie" act for some time, he returned to the hotel where he deposited the dress suit case, and he says, not having any money, he was only able to secure two meals from Saturday night until the next Monday evening, when he returned home, alone, tired and hungry.

On Thursday of last week an idea came into his mind that his girl might be held in captivity by some brigands and he borrowed $20 and left by C. P. R. for Fredericton, and going directly to the hotel, he came in contact with the dress suit case, which, upon opening, he found contained bed clothing and many other articles, and found also that he experienced some difficulty in explaining to the hotel man how the contents of the bed room got into the suit case.

Having escaped being implicated in a dress suit case, he made a "bee line" from Fredericton to Milltown and "his girl' is still at large in the capital of the province. girl' 'is still at large in the capital of the province.

ing 316,000 Catholics and 729,000 non-Catholics. A writer in the "London Times," in reply to a letter by Lord Grey, puts the matter in this way:

According to the census the population consists of 316,000 Catholics and only 729,000 non-Catholics people of all sorts and descriptions, including 139 sects (Greek Church, Jews, etc) a definite percentage of whom are home rulers. The Catholics amount to almost one-third of the population of the four counties; the home rulers to still further proportion.

I should not have called attention to this error but that it rather vitiates the whole of Lord Grey's argument. He apparently thinks of setting up a separate government in the four counties in order to avoid dragooning the Orangemen. But he entirely omits the home rule minority in those counties. He forgets that his scheme would "dragoon" about 350,-1000 home rulers who would be left to "brown and the statistics and only of the proposition."

It's easy to be cured my way. You put my appliance on when you goto bed; you feel a glowing warmth passing through your body, and the electric power gives you new life. When you wake up in the morning you feel bright, lively and vigorous, and you wonder where your pains and aches have gone. My Belt has removed the cause and they will never return. That's a better way than making a drug store of your stomach. And who ever saw anybody actually cured by drugs? I tell you drugs don't cure, and if you tried them you know it. Nearly all my nations first. it. Nearly all my patients tried drugs first.

I can give you the proof in abundance. Here I give you a few samples of the kind of letters that I receive every day by the score;

CURED OF LUMBAGO

HARTFORD, Cumb. Co., N. S.

Dear Sir,—I have been wearing your Belt for some time, and after the first two weeks I could feel a change. The Lumbago in my back has completely left me, and I feel more like myself now. I have a better appetite, and can stand my work better.

Yours very truly, Yours very truly,

I am an enthusiast, you say. Why should I not be I have the gratitude of thousands of people who have been cured by my Electric Belt after the failure of the best physicians. I am enthusiastic because I know that I offer suffering humanity the surest cure for the least expenditure of money that is known today. I have gained my success by learning how to treat patients and then curing them. I understand the action of the current on the human system. My years of experience have taught me how to apply electricity. I charge nothing for my knowledge, knowing that it helps me. My patients are my friends. They are advertising my business.
