Harold O'Brien, George Rickets, Abraham Lavigne, and W. Lavigne have been reported by the I. C. R. police for trespassing on I. C. R. property and annoying people in front of the Union Depot. Nomination Day Count at Otawa

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 14—(Special)—Nomination day finds the Liberals more confident than ever. It is confidently stated here by those who have gone over the whole country, constituency by constituency, that the indications are that the Liberals will have at least forty of a majority, and probably fifty. There is no prospect of any landslide for the antireciprocities, indeed they seem doomed to the worst defeat which Laurier's opponents have yet had.

Montreal, Sept. 14—(Canadian Press)—
The price the candidate of 1911 has to pay to be elected is higher than ever before, the Herald finds, so far as Montreal is concerned. A few years ago, it was stated that the cost to a candidate in the counties would be in the neighborhood of $10,000. Though conditions in the countries have changed but little, in the city there is scarcely a candidate who will count on going through the election without going through nearly $20,000.

The canvassers have raised their rates, now $2.50 a day is the minimum price.

One hundred and fifty people from points along the C. P. R. arrived here this morning and took the boat to Gagetown to attend the nomination proceedings. A telephone message from Gagetown says that Col. McLean was nominated by the Liberals and Luther B. Smith by the Conservatives. There are fifteen hundred electors on hand for the proceedings. Some 600 came from Chipman by the steamer May Queen. A wager of $50 to $5 was made on the boat that Col. McLean would win. This afternoon the candidates and J. D. Hazen are addressing electors from court house steps. Two-thirds of the gathering seem to be for McLean.
