

DOCTORS ANXIOUS TRAIN IS DERAILED

Pope's Physicians Admit Seriousness of Illness.

HAS FEVER AND COUGH

Bronchitis Has Probably Given Place to Pneumonia—Cardinal Merry Del Val Has Charge of Bulletins and Is Maintaining a Strict Censorship—Guards and Police Are Patrolling the Vatican.

ROME, April 14.—All indications point to the utmost gravity of the Pope's condition. At midnight the fever and cough were giving cause for great alarm. The impression had gained ground that the tracheal bronchitis had developed into pneumonia. While not absolutely denying this, Prof. Marchiafava said: "At the present time it could not properly be called pneumonia. Probably the resistant and robust fibre of the Holy Father may overcome this danger. Meanwhile we can make the statement, that the condition of albuminuria has disappeared."

In the two bulletins issued, one in the morning and one in the evening, the Pope's condition was set forth as hopeful, but it has been learned that the bulletins as prepared by the attending physicians have come under the censorship of the Papal Secretary of State. The explanation is now given that Drs. Marchiafava and Amici embody in their bulletins all the details with reference to the pulse and respiration, in addition to other pathological conditions. These bulletins are submitted to Cardinal Merry Del Val, and when they reach the public they lack what the Papal Secretary considers unnecessary and undesirable for publicity.

After midnight there was an increase in the temperature of the patient, and the fact that a large quantity of disinfectants had been brought into the sick apartment was considered as an indication that the bronchitis had developed into pneumonia. The Monk Vives y Tuto, brother of the Cardinal, who has been for some time the confessor of the Pope, entered his room and remained there forty-five minutes. It is supposed that during that time he heard the pontiff's confession.

Extraordinary measures were taken late at night by the Vatican authorities. The entire Vatican gendarmerie was on duty, patrolling both within and without the apostolic palace. At the same time the Italian Government organized a special police service around the Vatican.

Great alarm was occasioned about 11 o'clock, when the Pope during a strong access of coughing emitted a quantity of blood. Those present thought he was dying, and rushed for a doctor and Cardinal Merry Del Val. The latter on reaching the bedside restored calm, saying that probably the Pope would feel great relief as the presence of the blood was doubtless due to the rupture of small vessels in the throat.

There was another alarm yesterday afternoon. That occurred at St. Peter's. A hundred Polish pilgrims, led by their bishop, were within the Basilica when they heard the sound of many bells. Thinking that this was the announcement of the death of the Pope they gathered around the bishop and intoned prayers for the dead.

Dr. Amici, in a statement made last night (Sunday) prior to the extremely serious conditions which arose, said:—"The condition of the Pope is grave but not alarming. We can overcome the present crisis. Then, if he follows the doctors' advice, he may live some years more. The present relapse was due to the reluctance of the pontiff to submit strictly to the medical regimen. The moment he feels better he wishes to resume his ordinary occupations, which cause loss of strength and great danger."

Montreal Train Carrying People to Look at Realty Agent's Properties, Was Ditched by Spreading Rails—Thirteen Injured as Result of the Crash—Escaping Steam Added Horror to the Scene.

MONTREAL, April 14.—Seven persons are dead and thirteen were injured as the result of the derailment of an excursion train yesterday afternoon on the Montreal-Chambly branch of the Central Vermont Railway, about four and a half miles out of St. Lambert. The train was carrying about 700 passengers who had taken advantage of the free trip given by Cottrell, Limited, real estate agents, to prospective purchasers of lots at Albani subdivision, and was returning to Montreal at a speed of between twenty and thirty miles an hour, when, from some unknown cause, the engine and three first coaches left the rails a few hundred yards the other side of the Sunlight City subdivision, near East Greenfield station.

The dead are: J. Moses, fireman, Montreal; J. Lacoste, 501 Drolet street, Montreal; Margaret Deer, ten years old, 109 Conway street, Point St. Charles; unidentified man, supposed to be Christie, C.P.R. engineer; The Glen; unidentified man, supposed to be named Rochon; Martin White, Lafayette avenue, Montreal South; unidentified man.

The engine was running tender first. When the derailment occurred, the tender jumped to the right side of the track, turning bottom up, while the engine went to the left, falling on its side. The engineer and fireman were both thrown from the cab, the fireman received injuries from which he died soon after, while the engineer escaped with some painful bruises.

The three coaches which were derailed remained upright on their trucks, but the telescoping of their ends caused most of the fatalities. The first coach rested across the track nearly at right angles, its front end being superimposed upon the overturned engine. The second car stood in an oblique angle across the track, its front end jammed into the rear of the forward coach, while the third coach, to the left of and parallel to the track, was wedged into the side of the second car near its rear end. The passengers of the first and second cars suffered most severely. All the deaths, except that of the fireman, and most of the injuries, occurred in these two cars. As the train was crowded to its full capacity, many persons were standing on the platforms, and it was among their numbers that the victims were chiefly found.

Escaping steam from the boiler of the locomotive filled the derailed coaches, scalding some painfully, and added to the horror and confusion of the surviving passengers and impeded them in their efforts to escape. Between the first and second coaches two bodies were crushed, one being that of Little Maggie Deer, aged ten, and the other that of an unidentified man. They had not been released at midnight. A heartrending incident was the presence of the child's mother, herself badly shaken by the accident, who begged the rescuers to release her child.

Another man, Rochon by name, was pinned under a truck, and although fearfully injured, lived for several hours in an unconscious condition while efforts were made to effect his release. Officials of the railroad put a strict censorship on all information, making the process of identification difficult. The accident is supposed to have been caused by spreading rails.

SHE CAN DANCE NOW.

Friedmann's First American Patient Discards Crutches.

PROVIDENCE, April 14.—Sophie Berger, the 16-year-old girl who was Dr. Friedrich F. Friedmann's first tuberculosis patient in the United States, danced before Governor Pothier Saturday to show how her tubercular knees have benefited from the turtle serum.

The girl went on crutches for three years. She is the niece of Dr. Ille Berger of this city. Governor Pothier and State Senator R. Livingstone Beekman interested themselves in her case, with the result that she received the first injection of the serum on March 6. The second injection was given Friday. Meanwhile the girl was able to dispense with crutches.

Saturday she went to the state house with her uncle and Senator Beekman. Sophie shook hands heartily with the governor and told him how much better she is. "See," she said, "I don't have to use crutches. I can dance." Forthwith the girl tripped in buoyant dance steps.
