Two Bottles Cured Her

20 Years Suffering

Spainard's Bay, Jan. 1st, 1916.

I have been a sufferer for 20 years suffering from that dreadful disease, Indigestion. I felt so bad that I would faint away and be gone as long as 10 minutes. I tried everything I could hear of. I had five different doctors but they all failed to cure me. I then decided to try this A. I. C. and I took 2 pint bottles, and to-day I am perfectly cured of all stomach trouble. I can't help praising this A. I. C. because I believe it was the means of saving my life. I was almost starved. I couldn't keep any of my food down, but now I am able to eat anything just as well as ever. Anyone doubting this statement may call and see me personally. 20 Years truly.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

Various questions were asked and answered.

The Pension Bill was read a third time.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Seal Fishery Bill.

MR. OF MARINE & FISHERIES said he thought Messrs. Bowring Brothers had acted very fairly in retaining the ships Florizel and Stephano in the local trade instead of selling them to the Russian Government at an immense profit, as they might have done.

He thought it would be reasonable to let them continue at the ice. The Premier agreed. The owners had put a lot of money in these ships, and it would be harsh to drive them at once out of the seal fishery. That did not apply to the ships sold to Russia, because if the owners brought them back they would do so with their eyes open.

But he thought the ships which were still here might be allowed to sail. He agreed, however, that no future ships above 450 tons should be allowed to enter the fishery.

MR. LLOYD said he would not agree to this, but would resist.

HON. MINISTER OF FINANCE agreed with the Premier. The comfort of the large ships was greater, and he did not see why they should not go out if their catches were limited.

MR. COAKER said if the Florizel was allowed to go to the ice it would lead to all Capt. A. Kean's sons getting wooden ships and being assisted by him to get seals, which would be favoritism, and unfair to others.

MR. PUBLIC WORKS was against allowing steel ships to go to the seal fishery.

MR. DEVEREAUX said that the Florizel had a few days ago enriched the country to the extent of $140,000 in 20 days, without hindering the other ships in any way. She ought to have fair play. Capital ought not to be wantonly destroyed or attacked, or people would not invest in the country. Only a few years ago Mr. Coaker was calling the wooden ships coffins and man-traps, and now he was supporting them. It was not right to penalize a firm like Bowring's, who had for a century been foremost in all our commercial affairs, nor a man like Capt. A. Kean, who had raised himself from a fisherman to be our foremost sealing captain, and was a man of whom we should be proud. He did not believe in the possibility of going back to the old days of sealing ships. A ship built and used for sealing would be no good for anything.

MR. LLOYD said the whole object of the amendment was to give Capt. A. Kean a monopoly of the seal fishery.

MR. COAKER said Capt. Kean's success was entirely due to his having all ways had the best ships. He hoped Capt. Kean would live a few years longer, because, as soon as he, Mr. Coaker, got into power, Capt. Kean would have to stand his trial, and might go to the Penitentiary.

MR. DOWNEY thought the action of the Bowring firm in refusing to sell their ships was meritorious, and deserved recognition. He believed, in a short time, we would have to go back on the present legislation, and admit steel ships again.

HON. MIN. OF FINANCE referred to the fact that Mr. Coaker had said some speakers of the Government side knew nothing of what they were talking about. He himself was born at the fishery, and he had forgotten more about the fishery than Mr. Coaker or Dr. Lloyd ever knew. It was a rotten and disgraceful state of affairs that Capt. Kean had been so attacked for years in the press for a misfortune that was no fault of his own.

He was a man who had made his way, and ought to be admired, and should not be criticised by men who did not know as much about the fisheries as they thought they did; he referred to Mr. Lloyd and Mr. Coaker. The attempt to exclude the Florizel was merely an attempt to have revenge on Capt. Kean.

MR. MOULTON said it was only common justice to the Bowring firm to allow the steamers they had paid for to continue to go to the ice.

MR. GRIMES opposed letting the Florizel sail.

The Committee adjourned until tomorrow.

The House adjourned until tomorrow at 3 p.m.

Wednesday, April 19th, 1916.

The House met at 3 p.m., pursuant to adjournment.

Petitions were presented by Mr. Targett and Hon. Minister of Finance and Customs.

Bills were introduced and read a first time to amend the Law relating to Exportation of Timber, and Regulation of Saw Mills.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Seal Fishery Bill.

MR. JENNINGS expressed his agreement with the section preventing the "Florizel" from going to the ice. The House divided, and Mr. Devereux's amendment permitting the "Florizel" to go to and bring in 35,000 seals, was carried.

An amendment punishing officers who send men on the ice if bad weather is coming, and an amendment to enable the men to sell their own share of seals where they liked, both proposed by Mr. Coaker, were accepted.

The Bill then passed Committee.

The House adjourned to Tuesday next, at 3 p.m.

Orange Heroes Honored

L. O. L. 111 Unveiled Honor Roll
—Thirty ninth Annual Supper

Of fifteen members of L. O. L. 111 now on active service, two of them have already laid down their lives, and fitting tribute was paid the dead heroes at the thirty ninth annual oyster supper and concert given in the Masonic Hall, Gerard street east and Logan avenue last evening.

W. M. Sgt. G. W. Elms presided, and Past Master, now corporal, Prince, was presented with a jewel. Most of the men present followed the lead of the leaders of the lodge and appeared in khaki, and the semi military atmosphere was added to by the presentation to the lodge of an honor roll bearing the names of two members who have given their lives for the Empire, and thirteen others, who are in training or fighting in France.

They are:—J. A. Alexander (di-d prisoner of war); T. H. Alderman (killed in action); A. Blew, C. Baio, J. Cruickshanks, E. Edwards, M. E. Breene, A. McAskill, T. Penfield, W. Pashier, W. Parsons, W. Robertson, A. Wylie and W. Cottrell.

The concert was voted the best in many years. Ray Carlsile and the Sisters Denver made a big hit; Miss C. Nicholas sang sweetly; Mr. E. Johnson proved himself a fine soloist; Messrs. Bennett and Calhoun provided the comedy; and Sgt. W. E. Tarley told a few tales of the trenches.

A County Master W. B. Gray, W. B. Crawford, W. B. Elliott and other well known Orangemen delivered addresses, and a presentation was made to Care taker Gallagher.—Toronto Telegram.

New Charges

The people of this section supplied with electric light and power by the United Towns Electric Co. should see to it that the rates and charges are kept within reasonable bounds. It will not do after the people have gone to considerable expense wiring their houses, shops, etc., for advantage to be taken of the circumstances and rates unnecessarily raised.

People who put meters in were for awhile charged 25c a month meter hire and 12c per kilowatt. Now they are informed the minimum monthly charge is 50c. This may be the first step in the raising of rates generally.
