About 9.30 all adjourned to the church where a beautiful banquet had been provided by the ladies. The blessing was sung and after every one had done justice to the good things which had been provided, the toast was given by a member of the congregation, who had heard Mr. Wilkinson preach his first sermon on Canadian soil. He dwelt at some length on the reverend gentleman's good qualities as a man and preacher, and how he had been followed by the pastor in three different fields. However, the speaker had nothing to regret for that, and pointed out that the beautiful church at Wellington would always be a living monnich were greatly appreciated by all. shrouded in gloom. Quite a compliment was given to Mrs. Wilkinson as an ardent worker and a great deal of Mr. Wilkinson's success is due to her. Quite a number of friends spoke on the good qualities of both the pastor and his wife, and sang "Fore He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and long may he live. Mr. Wilkinson replied in a few well chosen words. Ice cream was served and after a most enjoyable evening the company departed and I honestly believe they saved my life."
