Mayor Beaven Writes Regarding the Revenue for School Purposes

The Board of School Trustees met in Secretary Williams' office yesterday The details of expenditure with regard to teachers' salaries were further discussed, and at six o'clock the board adjourned until to-day.

Before dealing with the estimates, the matter of the board providing school books for indigent pupils was I rought up for discussion by a communication from a teacher of South Park school, in which it had been stated that two children in her charge had been sent home for books. Upon inquiry it was found that the parents were in actual want. This case and others previously reported by the truafit officer were referred to the supply committee with power to act. The chairman suggested that it would be an excellent plan for the board to authorize the secretary to buy discarded school books at, say five cents each, and that these might be used in such cases as was under consideration.

Trustees McMicking and Mrs. Grant hoped that the committee would take no action without investigation. If the board went into buying books youngsters might sell theirs before they were through with them. It was also often an excuse for not sending children to school to say that books could not be obtained. Mayor Beaven by letter addressed the board as follows: "In the estimate of expenditure for 1896, published in the Colonist of the 28th inst., I observe that the charge for interest and sinking fund on the educaroncous impression; I admit that the statements published by the city have discussion of the estimates: equally an erroneous tendency.

revenue tax should be considered an item of school revenue, just the same as the per capita grant from the government. The trustees had nothing to do with providing the required revenue, and had gone out of their way in providing an estimate of revenue and then trimming the expenditure to meet this estimate. The latter part of his worship's communication might be met by simply publishing no estimate of revenue next year. He moved the following resolution: "That the mayor be informed that the item of $4,402 for interest and sinking fund on educational loan cannot properly be included as an item in the estimates of expenditure for 1896, as under the terms of section 34 of the School Act it is not a sum payable by the city treasurer by the order of the trustee board, but that the board are quite willing to have the item published in their annual statement as a part of the total cost of education to the city of Vic-

Trustee McMicking seconded the resolution, which after a short discussion, was carried.

C. W. Murray, secretary of the Vancouver board, requested to be informed of the date of the proposed conference of city school boards to be held in Victoria before interviewing the minister of education on proposed amendments to the School Act. The following resolutions were enclosed:

"1. That this board endorses clauses 1, 2, 3 and 4 as contained and stated in your letter. "2. That city school boards be empowered to regulate teaching hours of classes in the tablet and first primer divisions.

"3. That the city school boards have

That section 29 of the School Act be amended by adding after the word 'secretary,' in the first line, the words 'who may be one of their number,' and that section 39 be amended by adding to the same section the words except as provided in section 29.'

The proposals of the Victoria and Vancouver boards were, on motion, referred to the special committee on legislation for an early report, and the secretary was instructed to inform the Vancouver trustees that the conference referred to will be held next Tuesday at 8:30 p.m., Nanaimo and Westminster also being invited to be present

To the legislative committee was also referred a suggestion from Chairman Hayward that Leland Stanford University be placed in the some position as the British and Canadian universities whose graduates are entitled to appointment as teachers without examination in other than professional subjects. > Resolution of Condolence Passed by the Legislature - Premier's Remarks.

Many old time Victorians attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Work, which took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon from Hillside House, and half an hour later from St. John's church. At the church Rev. P. Jenns conducted the funeral services. The full surpliced choir was present and sang appropriate hymns. The pall-bearers were Messrs. B. W. Pearse, H. D. Helmcken, M.P. P., J. W. McKay, R. H. Hall, A. W. Jones, D. R. Harris, Alex. Munro, and Capt. H. G. Lewis.

Mr. Turner trusted that when the turn of others came to take leave of the scene of their earthly labors, they would leave behind them as good a record of kind works and charitable actions as this Christian lady, Mrs. Work, has done. Mr. R. P. Rithet seconded the resolupassed in silence: "That the members of this legislature having learned with regret of the death of Mrs. Work, wife of the late Hon. Tom Atkinson Throws Himself in Front of an Esquimalt Car Last Night.

He is Only Saved From Instant Death by the Guard Board of the Wheels.

Last night when tram car No. 12 on the Esquimalt line was passing James street, Wm. Atkinson, a stonecutter, came from behind a huge stump near the car line and deliberately threw himself in front of the car. It was impossible to stop the car before it struck the prostrate man, and he was thrown violently to the side of the road. The guard board was luckily close to the rail, which alone prevented the wheels from usually hard to raise owing to the fact passing over his head. Atkinson was that 700 tons of flour were placed well at once removed to St. Joseph's hospimade to raise the steamer, and as the several ugly wounds around his head water was still above the location of the and neck, but he will probably recover. Important Judgment of Divisional Cour. in Hudson Bay Co., v Hazlett.

Conditions on Which "Goods and Chartels" de Exempt from Seizure.

In the Supreme Court Chambers this morning Mr, Justice Drake made an order striking out several paragraphs in the allegations made by Matilda Levy in her petition for divorce from her husband, Joseph Levy. The petition alleges several acts of cruelty by the husband before marriage, and all of these were ordered struck out, as only acts during the duration of the marriage are material. The petition sets out that the parties have lived together during the last ten years, but were not married until last July, and that some time in December last the wife was turned out and deprived of the custody of two of her children. J. A. Aikman appeared for the petitioner and J. P. Walls for the respondent.

Mr. Justice McCreight and Mr. Justice Drake to-day dismissed the defendant's appeal in Hudson's Bay Co. vs. ment against defendant and a receiver was appointed to collect the book debts as being the only available assets of the defendant, who claimed $500 exemption. Section 10 of the Homestead Act enacts that "the following personal property shall be exempt from forced pizure or sale by any process at law or in equity, that is to say, the goods and chattels of any debtor, or if dead, of his personal representative, to the value $500." It was contended on behalf of the defendant that the "book debts" come within the definition either of 'goods and chattels" or of "persona! property," and are therefore exempt. The chief justice, before whom the question first came up, decided against the defendant, holding that unless the "goods and chattels" are such as might be seized or sold they are not exempt. The defendant appealed, and the court to-day dismissed the appeal on the ground that sections 2 and 3 of the Homestead Act, 1890, limit the exemption of such gods and chattels as may be seized and sold. ## REDUCED

A General Cut i- Mad by the Board of Trustees in Teachers' Salacies.

A Tuition Fee Will be Charged All Pupils A tendi g the High senool.

At last night's meeting of the Board of Trustees a sweeping reduction was made in teachers' salaries. It was originally intended to make a reduction of $2273.10 in salaries, but after the trustees had vigorously used the pruning knife, it was found that the total mount for salaries had been reduced $4500. A general reduction is made in the High School, the services of Mr. J. N. Muir, the fourth teacher, being dispensed with and a cut of $650 made in the salaries of the remaining teachers. The salaries in the eight divisions of the Boys' Central' Girls' Central. North Ward and South Park schools, in the fourth division at Victoria West and in the third at Spring Ridge were increased from $480 to $550.

The suggestion recently offered by the Municipal Reform Association to make the Collegiate Institute in a measure self-supporting, was complied with, in the manner outlined by the following resolution:

"That in accordance with the terms of section 38 of the Public School Act, a fee of $5 per term be charged all pupils attending the High School, such fee to commence on the 1st day of March. 1896, and the charge for the unexpired balance of the present term to be $2.50 payable to the principal in advance."
