SUNBURY CO.

Upper Maugerville, May 24.- The last act in the tragedy connected with the sudden and mysterious disappearance of Charles E. Harding on Christmas morning last was played at the Court house, Burton, yesterday. bex was made and the bloated and discolored remains were buried in the corner of the graveyard under the shadow of the Court house. The corner did not even adjourn the inquest, which was being conducted in the Court house at the time.

Robert Bartlett, an old resident of this place, some time ago, told a dream he had respecting the finding of Harding's body, and said that if he was ever found it would be near the Court house, and strange to say it was just at that place where the remains were overtaken by those who towed them shore. The above was told your correspondent some time ago. The de-ceased was about fifty years of age and unmarried. He leaves four sis-ters, who are all married, to mourn their loss, Mrs. Thos. F. Barker, Mrs. Geo. Miles, Mrs. Hanford Brown and Mrs. Charles Harding, jr.; two whom reside here, one in St. Marys and one in Peel, C. Co.

Three hundred and forty joints are rafted at the Mitchell boom per day, or about 2,000 a week. About 300 men are employed here now in the different divisions of rafting and bracketing. Tugs Lillie Glasier, Ada G., Admiral, and Sea King, left here today with rafts and carried away over 1,000 joints Eighteen tugboats are employed in this service in towing, etc.
