

CARVELL AND COL. SAM HUGHES IN LIVELY TILT

Member for Carleton Punctures Warrior's Balloon— Alfred Jury Doesn't Know Much About North Atlantic Co., Except that He Couldn't Get In — His Fight With Preston.

OTTAWA, June 1.—The most strenuous parliamentary performance of the season was furnished by the agricultural committee of the house of commons today when Alfred Jury, an immigration agent, was put on the stand to tell what he knew about Mr. Preston and the North Atlantic Trading Company. His testimony showed that he had a good deal of animosity toward Mr. Preston, but no fact against him.

Frank Carvell, member for Carleton, N. B., said Col. Sam Hughes furnished most of the excitement. Col. Hughes has been swearing before the committee in a domineering manner since the session opened. He met his match when he attempted to interfere with the examination of Mr. Carvell, who was conducting "The New Brunswick member characterized him as a bluffer who did not want the truth. He gave Col. Hughes a laying out which surprised him to the delight of the liberal and conservative members of the committee. Col. Hughes shook his fist and stormed, but sat down when Mr. Carvell told him he was not to be bluffed and would be rather pleased to take extreme measures.

Mr. Jury declined to take an oath before giving testimony, and was therefore permitted to make affirmations. To Mr. Carvell, Mr. Jury said if the bonus system were discontinued there would be a great falling off in immigration from Great Britain. Mr. Jury said he did not know much about the North Atlantic Trading Co. Mr. Jury said he wrote to Mr. Preston trying to get in on the Trading company. Mr. Monk asked the witness what was the impression among Liverpool steamship agents as to the North Atlantic Trading Co.

BULL FIGHT WILL BE RECORD ONE

Will Eclipse All Former Tournaments of the Kind. Eight Magnificent Beasts Will be Slaughtered in Madrid Circus—Remainder of Programme.

MADRID, June 1.—Below is the programme yet to be carried out at the wedding festivities of King Alfonso: June 2—Battle of flowers in the park of St. Beato, and a gala performance in the opera house. June 3—Official divine service in the royal chapel, open to the public in the morning. In the evening a gala ball. June 4—Excursion to Aranjuez. In the evening a military tattoo. Departure of the foreign princes. June 5—Banquet in the royal palace to local authorities. June 6—Diplomatic banquet. June 7—Reception in royal palace and ball in opera house, organized by the mayor.

RECORD BULL FIGHT.
The bull fight which will take place during the royal wedding festivities is expected to eclipse all former tournaments of the kind in Madrid. Eight bulls from the famous breeding parks of the Duke of Vargas (the last descendant of Christopher Columbus), and of Murvied, will be slaughtered in the Madrid Circus, in the presence of 15,000 spectators, including most of the grandees of Spain, and all the foreign official guests at the royal wedding.

Two cavalry captains, Senors Ledesma and Grane, wearing costumes of the time of Philip IV. and riding magnificent horses, will first wound the bulls with short spears. These captains, officially known as "caballeros," are under the patronage of certain grandees, who pay for their costumes and equipment.

The bulls will then be dispatched by the most celebrated "toreros" or professional bull fighters in the kingdom: Bombita, Machaquero and Algabeo, the idols of the Spanish bull ring, will each kill two bulls. Manolete and Bombita II, known as "novilleros," or fighters of young bulls, will kill the remaining two.

The magnificent caquet, which will include the address of welcome to Princess Ena from the Spanish municipalities, is laid with more than 700,000 pieces of tortoise shell.

NOT A GREAT LOSS.
This story of the absent-mindedness of a professor of Phillips Exeter Academy, is told by Booth Tarkington, the novelist, who was a graduate of that institution.

"This man's wife hastened in to him one morning as he sat in his study making exercises.

"Oh, she cried, 'oh, I've swallowed a pin!'

"Don't worry about it, my dear," he said, in a soothing tone. "It is of no consequence. Here—here I fumbled at his lapel—here is another pin."

LONDON, June 4.—The Daily Telegraph's Tokyo correspondent says the rebels at Honju, Korea, have murdered thirty members of a political society and are looting right and left.

Piles Make Life Wretched
BUT THERE IS QUICK RELIEF FROM ITCHING AND THROUG CURS IN
Dr. Chase's Ointment

It may be truthfully stated that piles produce more excruciating pain, misery and wretchedness of feeling than any other ailment. Life becomes a perfect burden during the attacks of itching, burning, stinging pain.

It is a great mistake to imagine that the effects of piles are local, for, as a matter of fact, they sap the vitality of mind and body and slowly but surely lead to the ruination of the health.

This is true of itching and protruding as well as of bleeding piles, which, because of the loss of blood, are more rapid in their disastrous effects.

Dr. Chase's Ointment brings almost instant relief from the itching, burning, stinging sensations of piles and is a positive and thorough cure for every form of this wretched, torturing and oftentimes stubborn disease. This has been proven in so many thousands of cases that there is no longer any room for doubt that Dr. Chase's Ointment is the most satisfactory treatment for piles that has ever discovered.

Mr. James Hurley, Postmaster, Gloucester Co., N. B., writes:—

"I cannot find words of praise to express my opinion of Dr. Chase's Ointment. For thirty years I was troubled with itching piles and tried all sorts of remedies, none of which gave me more than temporary relief. What other treatments have done, it has positively cured me of itching piles. Mr. J. McDonald, McLean, Kent Co., N. B., writes:—

"Less than two boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment cured me of itching piles. Any one who has suffered from this wretched disease can imagine what this means. I am indeed grateful for this great remedy."

Frequently when doctors have failed to cure piles and the surgeon's knife has effected thorough cure, 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

HOTELS REAPING A RICH HARVEST

During Week of Spanish King's Marriage. Private Rooms and Meals Alone Cost Twenty-Five Dollars Per Day in Gay Madrid.

MADRID, June 1.—Madrid is a merry city during this week of the wedding of King Alfonso and Princesa Ena. It is also one of the most cosmopolitan of the world, albeit one of the most uncomfortable by reason of the crowded condition of the hotels.

Many of the hotels have been full for weeks past, but a few of the more expensive ones are reserving accommodation for the late-comers, who will arrive in "late fash," so to speak.

At the Hotel de Paris and the Hotel de la Paix, in the Puerta del Sol, the famous square in Madrid, and other big hotels, the charges will be:

Bedroom and breakfast	Per Day
Private rooms and meals	$ 7.50
Bedroom and meals	25.00

To what extent persons letting furnished flats or rooms will put up their tariff can be seen from an advertisement which appeared in yesterday's papers. It offers a flat, consisting of five bedrooms and six sitting rooms, for twelve days, for $300. This means $25 per day for apartments alone. The advertiser adds that the rooms might be let singly for $75 each for the same time.

Notwithstanding these forbidding prices, hundreds of visitors are arriving from England, but the touring companies are not organizing any special trips, as the hotel charges would necessitate a sum being charged which the tripper could not afford.

AN ELABORATE PROGRAMME.
Meanwhile, the Spanish courts' programme in connection with the marriage ceremony, the Spanish nation delights in ceremonial, and especially in ceremonial connected with the holy estate.

It is said that the royal bridegroom himself suggested what has been one of the most striking historical pageants ever seen—a procession through the streets of Madrid, embodying the light and chivalry of Old Spain.

Every province in the kingdom, and historic events connected with each place are being commemorated. Thus Aragon came forward with her Matron of Saragossa, groups of Moors recall the past glories of the Alhambra, and Don Quixote, Sancho Panza, and his squire, Sancho Panza, paid honor to the royal lovers. The idea was a charming one, and artists and workmen worked day and night in order that it might be carried out in an adequate manner.

The following is the official wedding programme to date:

May 29—The arrival and reception of the foreign princes and a performance in the theatre of the Palace of El Prado.

May 30—Betrothal of the august Princess Ena in the Palace of El Prado.

May 31—Royal marriage in the church of San Jeronimo at 11 a. m.

June 1—Gala banquet in the Royal Palace of Madrid.

NILHISTS PLAN TO KILL PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

Society Unearthed in Portland, Oregon. Members Only Waited for More Money Before Sending Assassins Across to Washington.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 2.—As the outcome of the arrest of a Pole in this city for an assault upon several Russians, local detectives have learned of the existence here of a large body of Russian nihilists, who it is alleged, have been plotting the assassination of President Roosevelt. Awaiting the accumulation of sufficient funds before sending a deputation to Washington to carry out the scheme.

The Pole, who has been arrested, is threatened with death by several of the plotters, and who was arrested for assault, was acquitted yesterday, and it was then that the detectives learned of the alleged true purpose of the organization.

Friends of the Pole informed the police of the doings of the Nihilistic group, of their eulogistic praise of Coolidge, the assassin of President McKinley, and finally of their desire for the death of President Roosevelt. Detectives have been put on the case.

PEKIN, June 3.—The government has handed to Mr. Carnegie the British charge d'affaires, its promised written assurances concerning the recent conflict. It is understood that the treaty will be pledged as security for China's foreign obligations.

SURPRISE A PURE HARD SOAP

FRANCE'S MOST NOTED LITERATURE, THE HEAD OF THE HOUSE OF DE CASTELLANE, COMMENTS ON OLD WORLD EVENTS.

By Marquis de Castellane.

(Special to the Sun.)
(Copyright, 1906, by the Hearst News Service.)

PARIS, June 2.—Notwithstanding the disorders which reign at home, and the numerous preoccupations which the socialist turn of the elections cause France, we still have time and attention to give to the events of the day.

However much Russia may choose to shut her eyes to the real condition of things there, is no denying that very much the appearance of things as they were here towards the close of the eighteenth century.

This year in Russia looks as if it would turn out like 1772 in France. We too, had an excellent government, but that monarch took a wrong path with one hand what he had given with the other. We also had an excellent army, but when the time came to sit upon the throne he revolted and refused to obey the orders of his subjects. We have legislators who are not in the least respect for their avocation, and at the very first call of the mob which invaded Paris for the purpose of making Louis XVI. prisoner, they joined in some at the head, some at the tail of the crowd, carried away by the pressure of public opinion instead of resisting it.

It looks pretty much as though Russia was going to go through exactly the same series of events. The revolutionary party has for its chiefs the princes who are revolting against the Emperor; Dolgoroukoff, Troubetzkoi, etc., who represent the element which in 1789 was led by such men as Lafayette and especially Mirabeau.

The czar, wrongly advised, does not seem to take their complaints seriously. He is making a grand show of the pride of his house, which in flashy uniforms, are appearing at the Duménil military display to drown the cries of the people, whom he has hitherto been in the habit of holding under his heel.

We Frenchmen cannot help experiencing considerable anxiety on witnessing the cavalier fashion in which the czar treats his people, and the opposition which he offers to the demands of his representatives. We are tempted to remind the world that between the day in 1789 when the celebrated French drama met, and January 21, 1793, when Louis XVI. was beheaded, only a little more than three years passed.

If anybody thinks that the French aristocracy remains forever stuck in the customs of its ancestors, they are greatly mistaken. As an example of the progressiveness of the modern nobility I would call attention to the following facts:

On May 1, day on which the deputies who are to form the new parliament were elected, a number of the most prominent members of the aristocracy were gathered in the salons of a celebrated newspaper, sitting on the pavement looking the boulevardier's eyes over.

From the street one could see the graceful silhouettes of marquises, duchesses, countesses, passing "black" and nibbling cakes, quills, liqueurs, and event were in force. But not at all, these distinguished ladies were merely enjoying the hospitality of the paper.

A WONDERFUL POTATO!

MOST ENORMOUS CROPPER. PERFECTLY BLIGHT PROOF.

Double the crop-off the same ground, and every one a sound one. Introduced in England in 1903 at $100 per 14 lbs.; three months later its blight proof and enormous cropping features caused the greatest sensation, resulting in record prices of all time, as high as $125 per lb. being paid, and $250 for one tuber.

Even so recently as September last, when Mr. G. Massey sold 14 lbs. of Eldorados for $20 ($100) people were amazed and incredulous; yet three lbs. of the same variety—Free Press (England), Jan. 18th, 1904.

The yield of the Eldorado potato, the kind that brought the record price, is reported to run from 150 to 300 lbs. from one lb. of seed tubers.—Rural New York, Jan. 14, 1905.

Introduced here by us in 1905 at $16 per lb. Eldorado is repeating on a smaller scale the sensation it created in England, making the record price of all time for the U. S. and Canada. April 30 to S. J. Connolly, Fishers, N. Y., 2 lbs. (250 lbs.) of Eldorados for $200. April 25th last, to Mr. F. S. Behrill, Jarvis Street, Toronto, 40 lbs. for $40. A great many sales of 30 to 60 lbs. made to the leading seed potato growers. Experimental Farmers, etc., in Canada and the U. S. These are aware of the history of the truly wonderful potato.

One lb. planted now, within two years will yield enough to plant all the acres you want. Every lb. planted is worth $10. Plant now, next year sell seed to your friends.

One lb. planted by the 20th June last raised 140 lbs. that year. Crops of 800 to 1200 bushels per acre common.

Pure Seed Eldorados, $1 per lb. Sold only by us in Canada. Send for literature, containing history, photos of potatoes, checks paid, extracts of papers, etc. Also 25 other kinds.

Until we arrived, "old" the total in trade of this and date so far back in Nowhere that all of earth seem as if morning newspaper "Old" is merely a small boy used to awe at a court house business brought out the paper was carried in around them.

Less than ten years ago these ladies would have hesitated to be seen in a newspaper office, and yet a few Sunday mornings they openly paraded through from 9 at night till 3 the next morning, in these days the aristocracy is not ashamed to be seen even in public places, engaged in pursuits which the very nature of their profession obliges them to follow.

Nowadays our noblewomen leave their pride at the door and with open minds engage freely in the battle of ideas, just as years ago they faced the cannon of Versailles, bravely with foolish prejudice, it no longer exists in France.

The recent scare which has prevailed in France has given rise in the minds of certain people to the thought of a form of government which would be very popular in a word, to the Napoleonic regime.

As however, the Napoleonic regime is officially represented only by Prince Victor Napoleon, who maintains the most absolute silence, the attention of the imperialists is turned toward another member of the family, Prince Louis Napoleon, whose by a spirit of conservatism, rather than one of gratitude or family tradition, are treated to the imperialist party are now wondering if the time is not ripe for another coup d'état.

But where is Prince Louis, who is he doing, what has become of him? Let those who hope to see him march before the standard of conservatism, French than his Prince Victor. Prince Louis has just been raised by the czar to the grade of brigadier general to the Russian army, a dignity which will bind him more closely than ever to the land of his adoption.

Moreover, his engagement is announced to Princess Galtzina, who is a Russian, and an evidently more ambitious for herself than for her future husband. Just now the couple are honeymooning on the Riviera. It is not there that the French nation can look for those old-fashioned, well-worn, and energy which would be its salvation.

The case of Count Mathieu de Noailles, inaudibly and abused by his rival candidate, M. Millevoix, in the recent electoral campaign, ever seen in France. That such a thing should take place in a country where such sentiments exist on all points touching individual honor is inconceivable.

It took the insult, nine days to make up his mind to give the object of his attention an opportunity to demand satisfaction upon the field of honor. In older times a quarrel was settled at once. The combatants did not even wait to find a place for combat from public view; they took their swords and went before; and had it out in the street, and so earnest was the combat that usually one of the combatants remained upon the pavement.

Nowadays people begin by discussing the insult; it is contested; all sorts of distinguished clauses are introduced into the argument, such as would put the craziest jury to shame. It is sought to establish a jurisprudence to determine that in electoral times the most violent epithets are honey speeches, are even charming compliments.

However, this time the advocates of talk instead of action did not carry the day. Count Mathieu de Noailles died, upon a duel, with a tenacity which did honor to his musketeer ancestors, and honor was satisfied.
