CIRCASSIANS
 TO SUBMIT TO
 RULE OF PORTE

Special Deputation from Community Met Turkish Sultan With Sword of Their Famous Leader—100,000 Affected.

SWORD REQUIRED
 AS TALISMAN

St. Petersburg, Aug. 28.—A Constantinople dispatch announces that a special deputation of Circassians from Russia recently headed by the new Sultan the sword of their famous leader, Schamyl. This action symbolizes the submission to the Turkish sovereignty of the 100,000 Circassians still inhabiting the Caucasus out of the 1,000, 000 who inhabited it before its final conquest by Russians, the bulk of whom have emigrated to Turkey.
 The great Circassian leader's sword has served as a talisman to this tribe ever since 1859, when, after waging guerrilla warfare with the Russians for nearly twenty years, he was captured on a mountain top and the Circassians were subdued.

NEW YORK'S NEW COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS HAS PUT HIS FOOT DOWN ON SMUGGLING GAME

Former Secretary Loeb
 Makes it Hot for the Returned Travellers
 from Europe.

New York, Aug. 28.—Not for many years, if ever, has the local customs department furnished so much interesting "copy" as under the present collector, former secretary Loeb. For many years smuggling has been carried on by passengers arriving in this port on the big ocean liners and the customs officials were so ready and willing to be accommodating for a consideration, that smuggling ceased to be fine art and became a mere business. When Collector Loeb assumed charge of the office and became acquainted with the state of affairs, he inaugurated a thorough shake-up and issued new rules so stringent and irrevocable that the employees of the office that it became almost impossible to cause smuggling. The new Collector Loeb remained firm, however, and after a while things began to run more smoothly.

Under the present conditions smuggling, even on a small scale, is a rather risky matter for any person arriving in this port. The customs officials at the piers are so fearful of being watched, that they do not dare to be accommodating to travelers offering them tips and as a result scarcely a day passes on which the goods are not searched. The new collector, Mr. Loeb, has determined to do all in his power to make Collector Loeb's administration unpopular with the travelling public and the officers of the steamship companies. These officials have already caused considerable trouble and dissatisfaction among the passengers. It seems, however, that he is not of the yielding kind and is determined to carry out his policy. In view of the general assertion that property is at its height at present, it is rather strange that so many cases of suicide and crimes against property, attributed to extreme poverty, are recorded in this city daily. The number of such cases has been unusually large recently. Some of the cases have more than the ordinary pathetic human interest. One poor fellow, who has reached the end of his string and not even a single penny—left in the world, took his life and was found dead in his squalid lodgings. When the body was found one of the cold and hard hands was clutching the last cent.
 When the body was moved the coin dropped upon the floor and a little Italian boy, who had sneaked into the room, snatched up the coin and escaped with it, making a bee-line for the first candy shop, where he invested the cent in a candy.

ANNAPOLIS MAN HAS THRILLING EXPERIENCE

Is Caught in Prongs of Automatic Hay Storer and Lifted Over Twenty Feet in Air—Rendered Unconscious.

Special to the Standard.
 Annapolis Royal, Aug. 27.—Caught in the prongs of an automatic hay storer and lifted over twenty feet in the air was the rather thrilling experience of Henry Kirkster one day last week. Kirkster was storing about ten tons of hay in the loft of the barn, where the storing is all done by a gasoline lifter. The employee for the hay when he gave the signal to the word to "go ahead." He did not get out of the way speedily enough, however, and was lifted up with the hay. His cries failed to reach the prompt action of the man in the loft, who was storing and who happened by the merest chance to see him. Kirkster would have undergone a horrible death. As it was necessary for the doctors to take thirteen stitches, and eight were taken in his side.

 istry was formed this evening. M.
 Mavromichalis, ex-minister of war, succeeds M. Rallis as premier. He also assumes the portfolio of foreign minister and temporarily of war.
 Quiet reigns in the capital and the

MANY BERLIN RESIDENTS WERE DISAPPOINTED

Berlin, Aug. 28.—A series of acci-contrary winds combined to keep Count Zeppelin from the fulfillment of his promise to visit Berlin in his airship on August 28. The Zeppelin III is now at Bitterfeld, having started from Friedrichshafen at 4.30 a. m.

 Friday. The delay, however, will only last one day, as the Count tonight announces his intention to leave Bitterfeld about 7 o'clock tomorrow morning, arriving at the capital at noon in the airship.

 ley. The capacity of the new ware-size is 190 by 40 feet deep. The foundation is was used.

Special to the Standard.
 Montreal, Aug. 27.—Delegates to the League of American Municipal-here for three days, completed their labors this afternoon. The chief busi-city to meet in next year and the election of officers, as was anticipated, Western town was selected. St.

 Paul getting the required majority on the second ballot. Both of the Canadian delegates, Alderman L. A. Lapointe, Montreal, and Comptroller Evanson, Winnipeg, voted for the Western city. The only serious rival was Atlanta, Georgia, which city received ten votes on the first ballot, and fourteen votes on the second ballot, out of a total of forty-three cast.
