WEDDINGS.

Russell-Taylor.

Lower, Napan, Dec. 14.—A very interesting event took place Wednesday, Nov. 24, 1920, when Miss Maude E., daughter of John B. Taylor, was united in marriage to Eldred F. Russell, son of Ernest Russell of Point St. Charles. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Harrison. The bride looked charming in a dress of grey satin de chine and georgette and black picture hat, with grey plumes and black fur. Their many friends remembered them with an old-fashioned charivari, amid peals of cow bells, and many shots were heard.

On Thursday evening of the following week friends of Mr. and Mrs. Russell tendered them a variety shower. An enjoyable evening was spent in games and dancing and a dainty lunch was served about midnight; and in the wee small hours of the morning the party broke up, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Russell best wishes for the happy future. The bride received many beautiful gifts, showing the esteem in which the young couple are held.

Middleton-Smith.

Anagance, N. B., Dec. 14.—A quiet wedding took place at the Baptist Parsonage, Sussex, N. B., on the first day of December, when the Rev. B. J. McPherson united in marriage Mary I. Middleton of Anagance to Kilgour G. Smith of St. John. The bride was becomingly dressed in a suit of navy blue serge with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside in Anagance.

Gooding-Bostwick.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Dec. 12th by Rev. Mr. McKim when Miss Eva A. Bostwick was united in marriage to Frederick Gooding, a very prosperous young dentist of this city, but formerly of Texas. The bride looked charming in a gown of duchesse satin and carried a bouquet of white roses. Her sister, Miss Mary Bostwick was bridesmaid and wore a gown of blue silk and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bride was given away by her uncle, D. Otha Bostwick. The bride's traveling suit was navy blue trimmed with Hudson Seal and Knox hat. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful fur coat, to the bridesmaid a gold pendant and to the best man a pair of gold cuff links. They received many costly gifts including a cheque from the bride's mother. Many friends will join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Gooding a long and happy life. They will reside on Waterloo St.

Reid-Williams.

At Centenary church yesterday afternoon Rev. Mr. Howard, Methodist port chaplain, officiated at the marriage of Miss Ethel Williams and John Reid. The groom is a C. P. R. employee at Calgary and the bride came here a few days ago on the C. P. O. S. Empress of Britain from her home, No. 1 Walshe Road, London.

OBITUARY

Mrs. George J. Sentell
Mrs. James E. Arthurs received a telegram yesterday morning conveying the sad news of the death of her sister, Mrs. George J. Sentell, at her home in Vancouver, B. C. She was a daughter of Samuel Armstrong, of Silver Falls, and, besides her father, is survived by her husband, one brother, A. M. Armstrong, of Silver Falls, and four sisters, Mrs. Arthurs and Mrs. David Cotte, of this city; Mrs. F. R. Snodgrass, of Lakewood, N. B., and Mrs. A. E. Hamilton, of Moose Jaw.

Apparently.

It may have been excluded from the treaty of Versailles, but just the same the girls seem to be insisting upon the freedom of the knees. Washington Post.
