Mr. Hanington was glad to know that the Government was going to subsidize the road, and with the aid from the Dominion also, the work would no doubt be put through within a very short time.

Hon. Mr. Fraser moved that the word Island be eliminated from the title.

Mr. Hanington contended against the change as the road would be a connecting link between other places and Prince Edward Island, and the route had attracted the attention of the Dominion Government. The Legislature has the right to pass the act by this title.

Hon. Mr. King thought the title of the bill should not be misleading as this evidently was. Our earlier governors received royal instructions not to assent to bills with titles of this nature. Though there was no violation of the law in the name it might be well to strike out the one word. The word was struck out and ommitment of bills.
