Calendar, Aspects, &c.
ALL FOOLS' Day, so called.
Tuesday in Easter week.
April opened finely.
 The sun has warmed the earth, and melted large quantities of snow.

1st Sunday after Easter.
 The spring prospects are good and cheering.
 Farmers west making arrangements for work.
 Very fair and fine.
 Some cold showers.

2nd Sunday after Easter.
 Continues fine and fair.
 If wind be N. or N. E., cold with rain and sleet.
 Sleighting coming to an end.
 mostly, but lingers in Quebec. Cold nights.

3rd Sunday after Easter.
 Changeable weather.
St. George's Day.
 Very unsettled times.
St. Mary's Day.
 Becoming quite warm.
 The wind very high.

4th Sunday after Easter.
 Agreeable Weather.
 Month ends pleasantly.

"If all the world were blind," said an Irish clergyman, "what a melancholy sight it would be!"

A smart young lady, in reply to why she did not get married, said she was unable to support a husband.

Much of the false hair sold to ladies is cut from the heads of convicts and dead people.

"More bread, landlord. I always eat a good deal of bread with my meat."—"So I see, sir, and a good deal of meat with your bread."
