

public places joining the same, and all and every such Churchwarden or Churchwardens, who shall refuse or neglect to do the duties so imposed upon them, in their capacity aforesaid, shall incur and pay, for every neglect or refusal, a sum that shall not be less than shillings, and not exceeding shillings, currency.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that all and every person or persons, as well in the Church or Chapel or other place used for public worship as without, and in the environs thereof, in each of the Parishes of this Province, who shall cause any disturbance during Divine Service, or shall remain and loiter outside the said Church or Chapel or other place used for public worship, or in the environs thereof, or in the Public Hall attached or adjacent to the Parsonage House or Presbetry, or shall in anywise indecently and irreverently conduct himself in such Church or Chapel or other place used for public worship, or shall misdeemean himself towards the said Churchwardens, or other person or persons in the execution of the duties imposed upon him or them by this Act, or in any other respect whatsoever, or who so remaining and loitering outside of the said Church or Chapel or other place used for public worship, or in the environs thereof, or in the Public Hall as aforesaid, shall, upon being directed to retire or to enter the said Church or Chapel or other place used for public worship, during Divine Service, refuse or neglect so to do, shall, and may be forthwith arrested by any or either of them the said Churchwardens, and be conducted before a Justice of the Peace, and upon the oath of any or either of them the said Churchwardens as aforesaid, declaring that such person or persons have caused any disturbance as above mentioned, or have so remained and loitered outside of the said Church or Chapel or other place used for public worship, or in the Public Hall as aforesaid, or have otherwise misdemeaned himself or themselves as aforesaid, the said Justice of the Peace shall fine such person or persons in a sum not exceeding shillings, nor less than shillings, currency, to be levied upon the effects of the person or persons so fined, by Warrant of the said Justice of the Peace, by seizure and sale of the said effects.

III. Provided always and be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that if any person or