

Do You Like Good Pictures?

Would you accept four good pictures for nothing?

Would you accept four good pictures by a Canadian artist if they were offered to you free of charge?

These four pictures are each 17 x 22 inches, made from original paintings by John Innes, and well worth hanging in the best-furnished Canadian Home.

The four original oil paintings, from which these prints are made, were produced for the Canadian Courier, and are the exclusive property of that publication. The prints are therefore not likely to become common.

The four pictures are:

I

"His Majesty's Mail"

A postman in the wintry North with his dog train.

II

"The Disputed Trail"

A bear and a pack-horse meeting in the Rockies.

III

"The Surrender"

A stirring incident in N. W. M. Police life. A wonderful scene.

IV

"Kla-How-Yah"

A British Columbia coast scene, showing the natives in their canoe. The word signifies "Welcome."

The four pictures giving absolutely free, postpaid, in strong tube, to those who become new subscribers to the Courier during March. Also to any present subscriber sending us a new subscription during the same month. Fill out the following blank:

HOW MANY PERSONS IN YOUR HOME CAN PLAY THE PIANO?

Everyone can play the Gourlay-Angelus Piano

It provides for the pianist and student not only a superb piano whose tone and touch are an inspiration, but through the ANGELUS (built inside the piano-case) a means for study of composition that is a great educator. For those who have not learned to play, it opens up a wonderful field. To be able without previous practice to play anything in the world of music, and play it artistically, is a source of entertainment that needs to be experienced to be fully realized.

THE MELODANT (Patented)

This crowning achievement in piano-player construction brings out the complete melody of every composition, accentuating each melody note and subduing every note of the accompaniment. Its use requires no practice or special dexterity. Anyone can use it and with its aid play artistically. The Gourlay-Angelus is the only Canadian player piano in which the Melodant is found and no other Canadian piano has any similar device.

SIXTY YEARS IN UPPER CANADA WITH AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL RECOLLECTIONS

By CHARLES CLARKE, Late Clerk of Legislature of Ontario

Cloth, 321 pages, net $1.50.

"The book naturally deals with political events, and the epoch-making events of the past sixty years are clearly outlined. Interesting comparative sketches of Sir John A. Macdonald and Hon. George Brown are given, but the bulk of the book is devoted to the period covered by the active life of Sir Oliver Mowat. The personal references to the men, great and small, who guided the political destinies of Ontario during its career as a province are full of interest, and the work, so far as a layman can judge, has been done with discretion and good taste. Mr. Clarke's book is certain to appeal to a large constituency."—The Presbyterian.
