want some revenge," guard Scott Nicholson commented during the week. "We know we're a much better ball club than we were then - we're playing much more consistent basketball now. We just hope that they (York) come in with the attitude that we're the same team they beat so badly three months ago - and if they do they'll certainly be in for a surprise."

Raiders' mentor Don Nelson feels that UNB is going to have to execute almost perfectly to have a shot at beating York. "They're strong at every position, and they certainly would appear to have an advantage on the boards, because of their large power forwards," he stated this past week. "We're going to have to do what we do best and try to keep it close throughout the game, to the point where our experience on the court may help us. We plan on playing some zone defence to help control the boards in our own end."

Nicholson agreed that the team's defence would go a long way to determining how well the Raiders would fare in the game. "The key is going to be our defence," he concurred. "We broke down a little in our own end in the X game, and that allowed them to build a 15 point lead. If your defence isn't doing the job, it just makes it that much harder on your offence."

The first game of the tournament pits the Brock Badgers against the Huskies, and that game promises to be a thriller, with two of the best teams in the nation squaring off. And for those Raider fans who just can't make it to Friday's game, you can catch it "live" on CHSR-FM, beginning at 8:55 p.m. This weekend promises to have some excellent basketball action at the Aitken Centre, so if you can possibly make it to the games, you certainly won't regret it. Win or lose, the UNB Red Raiders will certainly finish off their home season in some fine company.

With Apologies to Don Nelson (sorry we goofed)

To: The UNB Student Body
From: Don Nelson, Basketball Coach, UNB

Through the medium of your Student Newspaper I should like to bring to your attention the forthcoming CIAU Eastern Regional Basketball Tournament to be played on our campus March 11-12, 1983.

The Red Raiders have enjoyed the student response to our program this season. Although not overwhelming, we do have a solid nucleus of faithful student fans. I now invite you to give us further student support as we entertain this Championship Tournament to be played on the Aitken Centre court. Your response to this and other Tournaments we host will to a great extent determine the future of basketball here at UNB. This is especially true when it comes to the use of our University Aitken Centre as a home Basketball court.

May I invite you to enjoy two great days of Basketball and hopefully give you, our loyal Red Raider fans, something to cheer about.

Sincerely,
Don Nelson
Head Coach, UNB Red Raiders

RE: Badminton Club

Want to get into the swing of things? The UNB/STU Badminton Club will hold its organizational meeting March 22 at 8 p.m. in The LB

Gym Lounge. This meeting will serve to elect a new committee to run next year's club. All people interested in either playing or organizing should attend.

Athletes of the Week

This week's Athlete of the Week goes to Scott Devine, captain of the Red Raiders. He scored 18 points, 15 in the second half, and had 11 assists in UNB's AUAA playoff game against St. F.X. last Friday. The Raiders were upset by St. F.X., 81-77.

"Scott's outstanding performance kept us in the game until the dying minutes," said Coach Don Nelson. For the fourth consecutive year, Devine was selected to the AUAA All-Star team. He is a Business Administration student in his final year, and comes from Hyde Park, New York.

There is no female nomination this week.
