

combined with ruggedness of manner, warm human qualities - marked by many quiet unobtrusive acts of kindness and generosity; unremitting devotion to what he conceived to be the highest interests of profession, community, party and state;

Loss to Party

a loyal and energetic supporter of party - (sometimes may have felt it did not move quite as he would have wished;)
constant in his belief that its policies were essential to good of country; over many years, his energies contributed much to place party has occupied in life of province and nation; as its leader, at all times had in him a loyal and steadfast supporter - was, as well, an old and deeply valued personal friend who will be greatly missed;

W.L.M. King Papers, Memoranda and Notes, 1933-1939
(M.G. 26, J 4, volume 230, pages C155731-C156122)

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA

