

254 OI2/39B.

Ottawa, 12th March, 1912-

Sir,

With further reference to your Requisition for August last, in which application is made for Patent for Island No. 2, in Lake Huron, opposite the Township of Amabel, I have to inform you that, upon referring the matter to the Surveyors of the Department, they advise that it might be well for you to examine this Island, as it is very close to the shore, and opposite the Reserve, and trouble might arise later.

You will therefore, be good enough to examine the Island, and that part of the main land, as soon as possible, and favour the Department with a full report, and state what you would recommend in the matter.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy & Secretary-

W. J. Ferguson, Esq.

Indian Agent,
