

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
Nature of the Mission and Itinerary	5
Value of the Belgium and French Settlers	6
Economic and Social situation of Belgium and France	6
Statistics of immigration from Belgium and France to Canada	7
Our processes of propaganda in England	8-9
What we presently do in Belgium, and what we do not do	9
Who is responsible? Strange opinions of our representatives in London on the possibility of propaganda in Belgium	10
Excellent disposition of the Belgian Government	11
Programme of operations in Belgium .—Necessity of separating Holland from Belgium and to remove the Antwerp agency from the control of London, and, etc.	12
Laws of France on emigration .—Circulars of 1905 against emigration in general and of 1909 and 1911 against emigration to Canada. Particular circumstances and necessary distinctions.	13-14-15
Why our agent in France is unfavourably looked upon by the French authorities .—Responsibilities.—What our agent has done and should not have done.—What he could have done and has not done.—His relations with the Steamship Companies, and French expansion societies.	16-17-18
Evolution of our action in France from its inception —Its present situation. 19-20-21-22
Programme of operation in France .—Farmer Delegates, Co-operation of French Societies.—Relation between the Paris office and the Commissariat.—Necessity of combining the actions of the immigration office and of the commercial agency, and of creating at the Commissariat a central office of publicity.—Budget system of premiums, &c.	23-25-26
Recommendations referring to France and Belgium and transport of emigrants .—Drawing up and distribution of the official publications.—Is co-operation possible between the Federal and Provincial authorities. .28-29-30-31-32	