

NORWOOD CASE

The Following Letter From John E. Kelly Will Interest All Who Are Suffering From Kidney Trouble.

Mr. Kelly has been a great sufferer, as his intimate friends know, and has tried many remedies, but as he says over his own signature he found Bur-Ju Kidney Pills the best remedy he has ever taken, and has been greatly benefited. Bur-Ju Kidney Pills are a scientific combination that cure diseases of the kidneys and many painful conditions resulting from their improper action.

Bur-Ju Kidney Pills may be had at any drug store. Read what Mr. Kelly writes:

Norwood, June 17, 1904.
Gentlemen: I have taken eight boxes of "Bur-Ju" and have been greatly benefited by them. My disease is of long standing, but "Bur-Ju" Pills are the best I have taken yet, as they did me more good than any other.

Yours truly,
JOHN E. KELLY

Saw Many Sovereigns.

There died at Mimico the other day Mrs. William Burgess, at the ripe old age of ninety-five. The deceased lady was born at Eton, England, in 1810, and in her youth was employed as a domestic in the famous Eton College. She had a clear recollection of the sovereigns of England, since George the Third, and remembered having seen George the Third, George the Fourth, William the Fourth, Queen Victoria, and the present King when he was Prince of Wales, and on one occasion had helped to push the late Queen's chair in the park at Windsor. Her brother, the late John Cannon, died in Queen Victoria's personal service. Mrs. Burgess was full of interesting reminiscences. She was married in 1838, and came to Toronto in 1854, and to Mimico in 1861, where she thereafter resided.

Burdock Blood Bitters

Mrs. Frank Hutt, Morrisburg, Ont., was one of those troubled with this most common of stomach troubles. She writes:—"After being treated by three doctors, and using many advertised medicines, for a severe attack of Dyspepsia, and receiving no benefit, I gave up all hope of ever being cured. Hearing Burdock Blood Bitters so highly spoken of, I decided to get a bottle, and give it a trial. Before I had taken it I began to feel better, and by the time I had taken the second one I was completely cured. I cannot recommend Burdock Blood Bitters too highly, and would advise all sufferers from dyspepsia to give it a trial."

Inflammability of the Diamond.
The diamond, being pure carbon, will burn and be consumed without leaving a trace behind. The inflammability of the diamond of the seventeenth century, the ancients were firmly convinced that a diamond could not be burned or broken. This was disproved in 1670 or thereabout, when a four karat stone was consumed in the flame of a blow-pipe. I think it was in Rome. The Grand Duke of Florence in 1694 thought that fire would reveal the secret of the diamond's composition, and he caused a stone to be placed under the focus of concentrated sun rays. The diamond cracked, consumed and disappeared—Exchanged.

THE OLD PORTAGE ROAD.

Built by Pennsylvania With Material
Brought From England.

For some time prior to 1800 travel across Pennsylvania had been in canoes and in river barges propelled by poles or along the shores of rivers by horse and foot and by intervening portages on the different rivers. The Philadelphia-Pittsburg national pipe was built upon such a substantial basis that wherever undisturbed one still finds the gracefully modeled arches of solid masonry almost intact after more than a century has passed. The completion of the Old Portage railroad by the state of the time honored "coach and six," with the many picturesque and commodious inns and taverns along the line of this broad macadamized toll road, which with its substantial construction was in point of endurance second only to the Roman military roads of Great Britain.

This Old Portage road was constructed from material brought from England. The British government sent over experienced engineers to instruct the Americans in the running of the stationary steam engines used upon the inclined planes of the road in the Allegheny mountains. The railroad's highest point was about 2,700 feet above sea level, being only 200 feet lower than the neighboring hill, which is the highest point of the Allegheny mountains in Pennsylvania. The road consisted of ten planes, five of which were on either side of the mountain and intervening levels. In 1835 the canal boats were so constructed that they could be taken in sections and hauled over the mountain on flat cars without disturbing their cargoes. The rails were secured to stone sleepers, twenty inches square, which were sunk in the ground.

On the Old Portage road the best time for the forty miles between Hollidaysburg and Johnstown was twelve hours. Express trains on the Pennsylvania railroad now run a closely parallel distance over the Allegheny mountains in a trifle over one hour. The passenger traffic on the road in those days was usually limited to one car each way a day, with a capacity of thirty passengers.

In 1854 the Pennsylvania Railroad company bought the Portage road from the state of Pennsylvania.

PITH AND POINT.

Three-fourths of the things that are put off could be done at once.

If it is your misfortune a man is singing, it doesn't make any difference if he can carry the tune or not.

In looking back over his past every man must admit that the sun shone a great deal and that he made little hay. Occasionally you find a man who enjoys staying at home so much that he will let his wife sweep all around him. The jolly blacksmith and jolly innkeeper belong to song and history, but they have got the blues since venturing into modern life.

In every small town there is some poor old failure of a man with a big family hanging on him of whom it is said, "He was considered a great catch when he was young."

No Animals Thank?
The following facts, which I saw with my own eyes on repeated occasions, fully convinced me that animals have the powers of memory and thought. I once had a three parts bred black and tan terrier, which slept in a basket in my bedroom that opened into the nursery. One of my children was from ill health very fractious, and whenever they heard it cry she would go into the nursery, hunt about until she found a squeaking rag doll, take it to the side of the cot and, sitting up, shake it to amuse the child. If in doing this she did not display powers of memory, thought and reflection I utterly fail to see to what her clever performance could be attributed.—London Globe.

Silver Thaw.
"Silver thaw" is a name applied to winter phenomenon of frequent occurrence at Ben Nevis observatory. It consists of rain falling when the air is below freezing point and congealing whenever it reaches the ground. Of course this points to an inversion of the temperature, which is lower on the mountain top than at greater heights, and, being largely associated with a cyclonic distribution of pressure, it is of considerable "forecasting" value.

Cautious.
Markley—I say, suppose you pay me back that 10 shillings you owe me now?—Boroughs—Really, old man, I can't do that. Markley—But you've got it to spare today. Boroughs—I know, but there's no telling when I may need it.

Had His Own Troubles.
"Ate you an advocate of woman's rights?" asked the woman with the square chin.
"Not me," answered the meek and lowly representative of the other sex. "Man's wrongs take up all my spare time."

Information Bureau.
Holland—Hello, Jones! What do you think of this for weather? Jones—I'll tell you when I come back from the barbers. I am always sure to get full information on the subject from the man who shaves me.

Looking Forward.
The Invalid—The doctor says I must not smoke or drink for a year. Friend—Oh, well, he knows you'll have to economize to meet his bill.—New York Press.

Thomas Huxley it was, who described the brain as a perfect logic engine, working without friction, without fuel and without fear, with the strain equally divided. "The question then becomes," says Dr. Pierce, "how to run this engine without blowing up the boiler, without accident, and without meeting with some dire result. If the engine is properly oiled and fed, it will last a great many years, and in the same way the human mechanism is properly looked after it will last the allotted three score and ten years. As civilization progresses, but no class of work burns up blood as fast as brain work, out the invigorating air and sunshine becomes 'the face that kills'."

"Remember this, that our bodies will not stand the strain of over-work without good, pure blood any more than the engine can run smoothly without oil." After many years of study of the active practice of medicine, Dr. R. V. Pierce found that when the stomach was out of order, the blood impure and there were symptoms of general break-down, a tonic made of the extract of certain herbs and roots was the best corrective. This he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Being made without alcohol, this "M.D." is especially adapted in diseases attended with excessive tissue waste, especially in convalescence from the various fevers, whether of a malarial or typhoid character. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent on receipt of 31-cent stamps for the paper-covered book, or 50 stamps for the cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

FATS AND DRIPPING.

Those That Should Not Be Used in Making Pastry.

The use of raw suet, lard or mutton fat in pastries is to be avoided, for it leaves an unpleasant after taste. The small pieces of fat trimmed from off the piece of beef that forms the more substantial part of the daily dinner are placed in an iron pan and allowed to simmer four or five hours either in the oven or at the back of the range. The fluid fat is then strained into a small crock or tin pail and set within the refrigerator when sufficiently cooled. Here it will keep fresh indefinitely.

The drippings of poultry lend a fine flavor to the fat and add to its richness. A cup of fat or half a cup and the same of butter and a saltspoonful of salt are rubbed to a cream with a wooden spoon. Add four cups of flour and mix with the hands until the mass resembles granulated sugar. Make a hole in the center and pour into the opening a full cup of ice water. Mix quickly and lightly with the spoon and do not knead. This suffices for three pies of ordinary size. Should less be required the remainder can be kept in the refrigerator and utilized for dumplings, tarts, turnovers, etc.

Always taking out of the meal tub and never putting in, soon comes to the bottom.

International Bible Lesson for Tomorrow.

The Raising of Lazarus—John 11, 32-45.

The Lord raised several from death, but the resurrection of Lazarus made the deepest impression of any. Their brother's death was the result of Jesus' apparent neglect, and the sisters were perhaps judging Him by appearances. Yet He is their Lord, and if He had only come in time their beloved brother would have lived. Both sisters salute Jesus alike in this, if that hadst been here. Why did He tarry so long when He might have saved him? Because He was such a loving and merciful God, instead of merely preventing it. His love of God and man caused Him to delay. Jesus, groaning in spirit and in tears of sympathy is led by friends to the tomb, while some said, could not this man who gave sight to the blind have prevented the death of His own friend Lazarus? Jesus groaning again arrives at the cave and directs the stone to be taken from its mouth. Martha objects, as the body of her brother is foul with four days of death. Jesus repeats if she would only believe she would see the glory of God in it. The stone is then removed and our Lord gives thanks and prays that those standing round Him might become believers in Him: then with loud authority Lazarus is called in it. He came out of death and again and he came out of death and corruption in his shroud, with his face cloth yet on, but the first thing he did was to give his friends a sign. Mark the words of friends who they lead Jesus to the tomb, they rolled back the stone and unbound Lazarus, under our Lord's direction. So let us, with love, prayer, faith and works, co-operate with God and His Son Jesus Christ, on behalf of those who are even now dead in trespasses and sins, that they with us may have eternal life. Amen!

VERY TRYING TO WOMEN

Are the Peculiar Ills Brought on by Catarrh of the Pelvic Organs.
(Peruna is a Tonic Especially Adapted to Their Peculiar Diseases.)

Catarrh is a very frequent cause of that class of diseases peculiarly known as female weakness. Catarrh of the pelvic organs produces such a variety of disagreeable and irritating symptoms that many people—in fact, the majority of people—have no idea that they are caused by catarrh.

A great proportion of women have some catarrh of the pelvic organs, which has been called by the various doctors who have consulted by as many different names. These women have been treated and have taken medicines, with no result, simply because the remedies are not adapted to catarrh. It is through a mistaken notion as to the real nature of the diseases that these medicines have been recommended to them.

If all the women who are suffering with any form of female weakness would write to Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, and give him a complete description of their symptoms and the peculiarities of their troubles, he will immediately reply, with complete directions for treatment, free of charge. "Health and Beauty," a book written especially for women, sent free by Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

Miss Alice Dressler, of No. 1133 North Bryant Ave., Minneapolis, Minn., writes as follows concerning Peruna:

"I was suffering from catarrh of the uterus and head. One of my college friends, who was visiting me, asked me to try Peruna and I did so and found it all and more than I had expected. It not only cured me of the catarrh, but restored me to perfect health."—Alice Dressler.

Miss Mamie Groth, Plattville, Wis., writes: "I have for several years suffered with frequent backache and would for several years have splitting headaches. Several of my friends advised me to take Peruna and I asked my physician what he thought of it. He recommended it and so I took it and am entirely without pain of any kind now."—Mamie Groth.

In a recent letter from No. 2 Grant Ave., Denver, Col., Mrs. Ida L. Gregory writes:

"Some six years ago my husband suffered with nervous prostration, and advising with a friendly druggist he brought home a bottle of Peruna. His health was restored from its use, his appetite was increased and restful sleep came to him."—Ida L. Gregory.

Miss Florence Murphy, No. 2703 Second Ave., Seattle, Wash., writes:

"I suffered for over a year with female trouble, and although I tried several physicians none of them seemed to be able to help me permanently. 'It only took a little over three bottles of Peruna to make me well and strong. I never have backache, headache or bearing down pains any more.'—Florence Murphy.

Deputy Detroit Independent Order of Good Templars, writes as follows:

"Peruna has been a blessing to me and gladly do I endorse it. For two years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach. I lost flesh and grew thin and emaciated, nervous and exhausted, so that I could neither work or enjoy life. I began taking Peruna and can now eat and enjoy everything I eat. I have been well over a year now."—Miss Jessie Westland.

Assaults by Girl Strikers.
Walkerville, April 7.—Last week about thirty girls, employed in the match factory here, struck. The company filled most of their places.

Yesterday morning several of the older girls among the strikers waylaid a number of the non-strikers, and but for the assistance given the latter by a male escort, the new girls would have fared badly.

In the afternoon the strikers appealed to Mayor Dobie to assist them in keeping non-residents from coming in to take their places. They also claim the alien labor law is being violated.

Bert Bowman Died.
Frankford, April 7.—Bert Bowman the Molsons Bank clerk who shot himself four times on Tuesday morning as he lay in bed, is dead. The body will be taken to Oshawa for burial.

Bowman was 22 years of age and was formerly employed in the London branch of the Molsons Bank.

Get Glasgow's Advice.
Glasgow, April 7.—Manager Daily-temple of the city's street railroad system has been granted a month's vacation to proceed to Chicago and confer with Mayor-elect Dunne on the municipalization of street railroads.

There are no less than fourteen remedies in this standard family medicine. Among them we might mention sarsaparilla root, yellow dock root, stillingia root, buckthorn bark, senna leaves, burdock root, cimicifuga root, cinchona bark, phytolacca root. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is certainly a medicine, a genuine medicine, a doctor's medicine.
