such a foe, in such a cause as theirs is, situated as we are here, it is the best to be adopted. The country at large approves of it, and in terms far be-youl any deserts of mine. The Toronto Examiner states that Mr. Ba-hy had been publicly whipped by Col. Prince. It is probable that this circumstance gave rise to the report that the former had been killed in a duel.

The following is a specimen of the noisy nonsense with which a great portion of the American papers is filled. It is copied from the Boston Mercantile Advertiser, and is said to be written by a senator of the State of Maine:—

"I speak advisedly, when I say that if the contemplated visit of General Scott to Maine, is only to persuade a withdrawal of our troops from the dispotent territory, or a reliquisiment of our present position, he might as well stay away. I repeat that I speak advisedly when I say this. It may appear as strong language, but I say from my heart, that I had rather see our State deluged in blood, and every field bleached with the bones of our citizens, than the western the state deluged in blood, and every field bleached with the bones of our citizens, than the we shed for trace our footsteps and submit to British arrogance.
