Daughters and Maids of England Benevolent Society.

The Daughters and Maids of England Benevolent Society is formed of Englishwomen, the descendants of English men or English women, or wives of Englishmen, who are in good bodily health and between the ages of 16 and 50 years. The members are associated for mutual aid; to educate one another in the true principles of womanhood, whereby they learn to be charitable, loyal and self-reliant; to practice true benevolence, to keep alive the dear memories of their native land; and to care for each other in sickness, adversity and death.

The Society offers the benefits of medical attendance and medicine on joining; with financial benefits (sick and funeral) after a year's membership.

The initiation fees are: 16 to 25 years, $2.00; 25 to 35 years, $2.50; 35 to 45 years, $3.00; 45 to 50 years, $3.50. All candidates joining this year received at special charter initiation rates of $1.25. Yearly contributions, payable quarterly: 16 to 25 years, $5.00; 25 to 35 years, $5.50; 35 to 45 years, $6.00; 45 to 50 years, $6.50.

Applicants of any age may join as honorary members.
