them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Tal'itha cu'mi ; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.

42 And straightway the damsel arose, and walked ; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.

43 And he charged them straitly that no man should know it ; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

THE LESSON RETOLD

The little ship with Jesus and his disciples on board arrived safely at the other shore. There was a great crowd on the shore to meet him. One of the great rich men of the city hurried down to meet Jesus. His name was Jairus. He was a ruler in the synagogue or church of the Jews. His little daughter, who was about twelve years of age, was very sick and was going to die. Jairus had heard that Jesus cured the sick and healed all kinds of diseases. "If I can only get him to come before she dies, he will heal her," Jairus said. He heard that Jesus had just come back, so 21 And when Je'sus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him : and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jai'rus by name ; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet,

23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death : I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed ; and she shall live.

35 While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead : why troublest thou the Master any further ?

36 As soon as Je'sus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Pe'ter, and James, and John the brother of James.

38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep ? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth.

40 And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and he hurried to the seashore. When he saw Jesus, he knelt down at his feet and begged him to come to his home. "My little daughter lies at the point of death. I pray thee come and lay thine hands upon her and she shall live," he cried.

While Jairus was speaking, one of his servants came running to him, saying, "Your daughter is dead ; why do you trouble the Master any more ?" As soon as Jesus heard that, he said to the father, who was weeping, "Be not afraid, only believe." Jesus at once started off with Jairus to his house. He took
