

ED 1809

ay hang
get next
ided for
e seating
s needed,
may ex
More
for both
ins, the
and the
we are
of live
the Fair
unity to
there are
work who
of them.

y the di
judging
various
ecute the
ed them
hibition,
sed their

ducers—
students
the lack
to the
On be-
mers, the
agricul-
may soon

OWS.

, includ-
by the
of Great
mental in-
ology and
rtion in
whether
remedial
oted with
s first re-
studying
and pass
ory. Un-
view, at
and the
afield, to
abortion
y consid-
for some

als pur-
mination
which is
ugh the
Honorary
tee were
armers in
of whom
to for-
fatuses,
d cotton-
om abor-
s of cows
field, and
laboratory,
that the
als were
adopted
al imme-
s of the t to the
n no case
ith abor-
e uterus.
when af-
ortion, is

ed in-calf
d, and be
when they
s ways in
is impos-
whether a
ows which
es of af-
inues to
may con-
he animal
isolated,
ne pasture

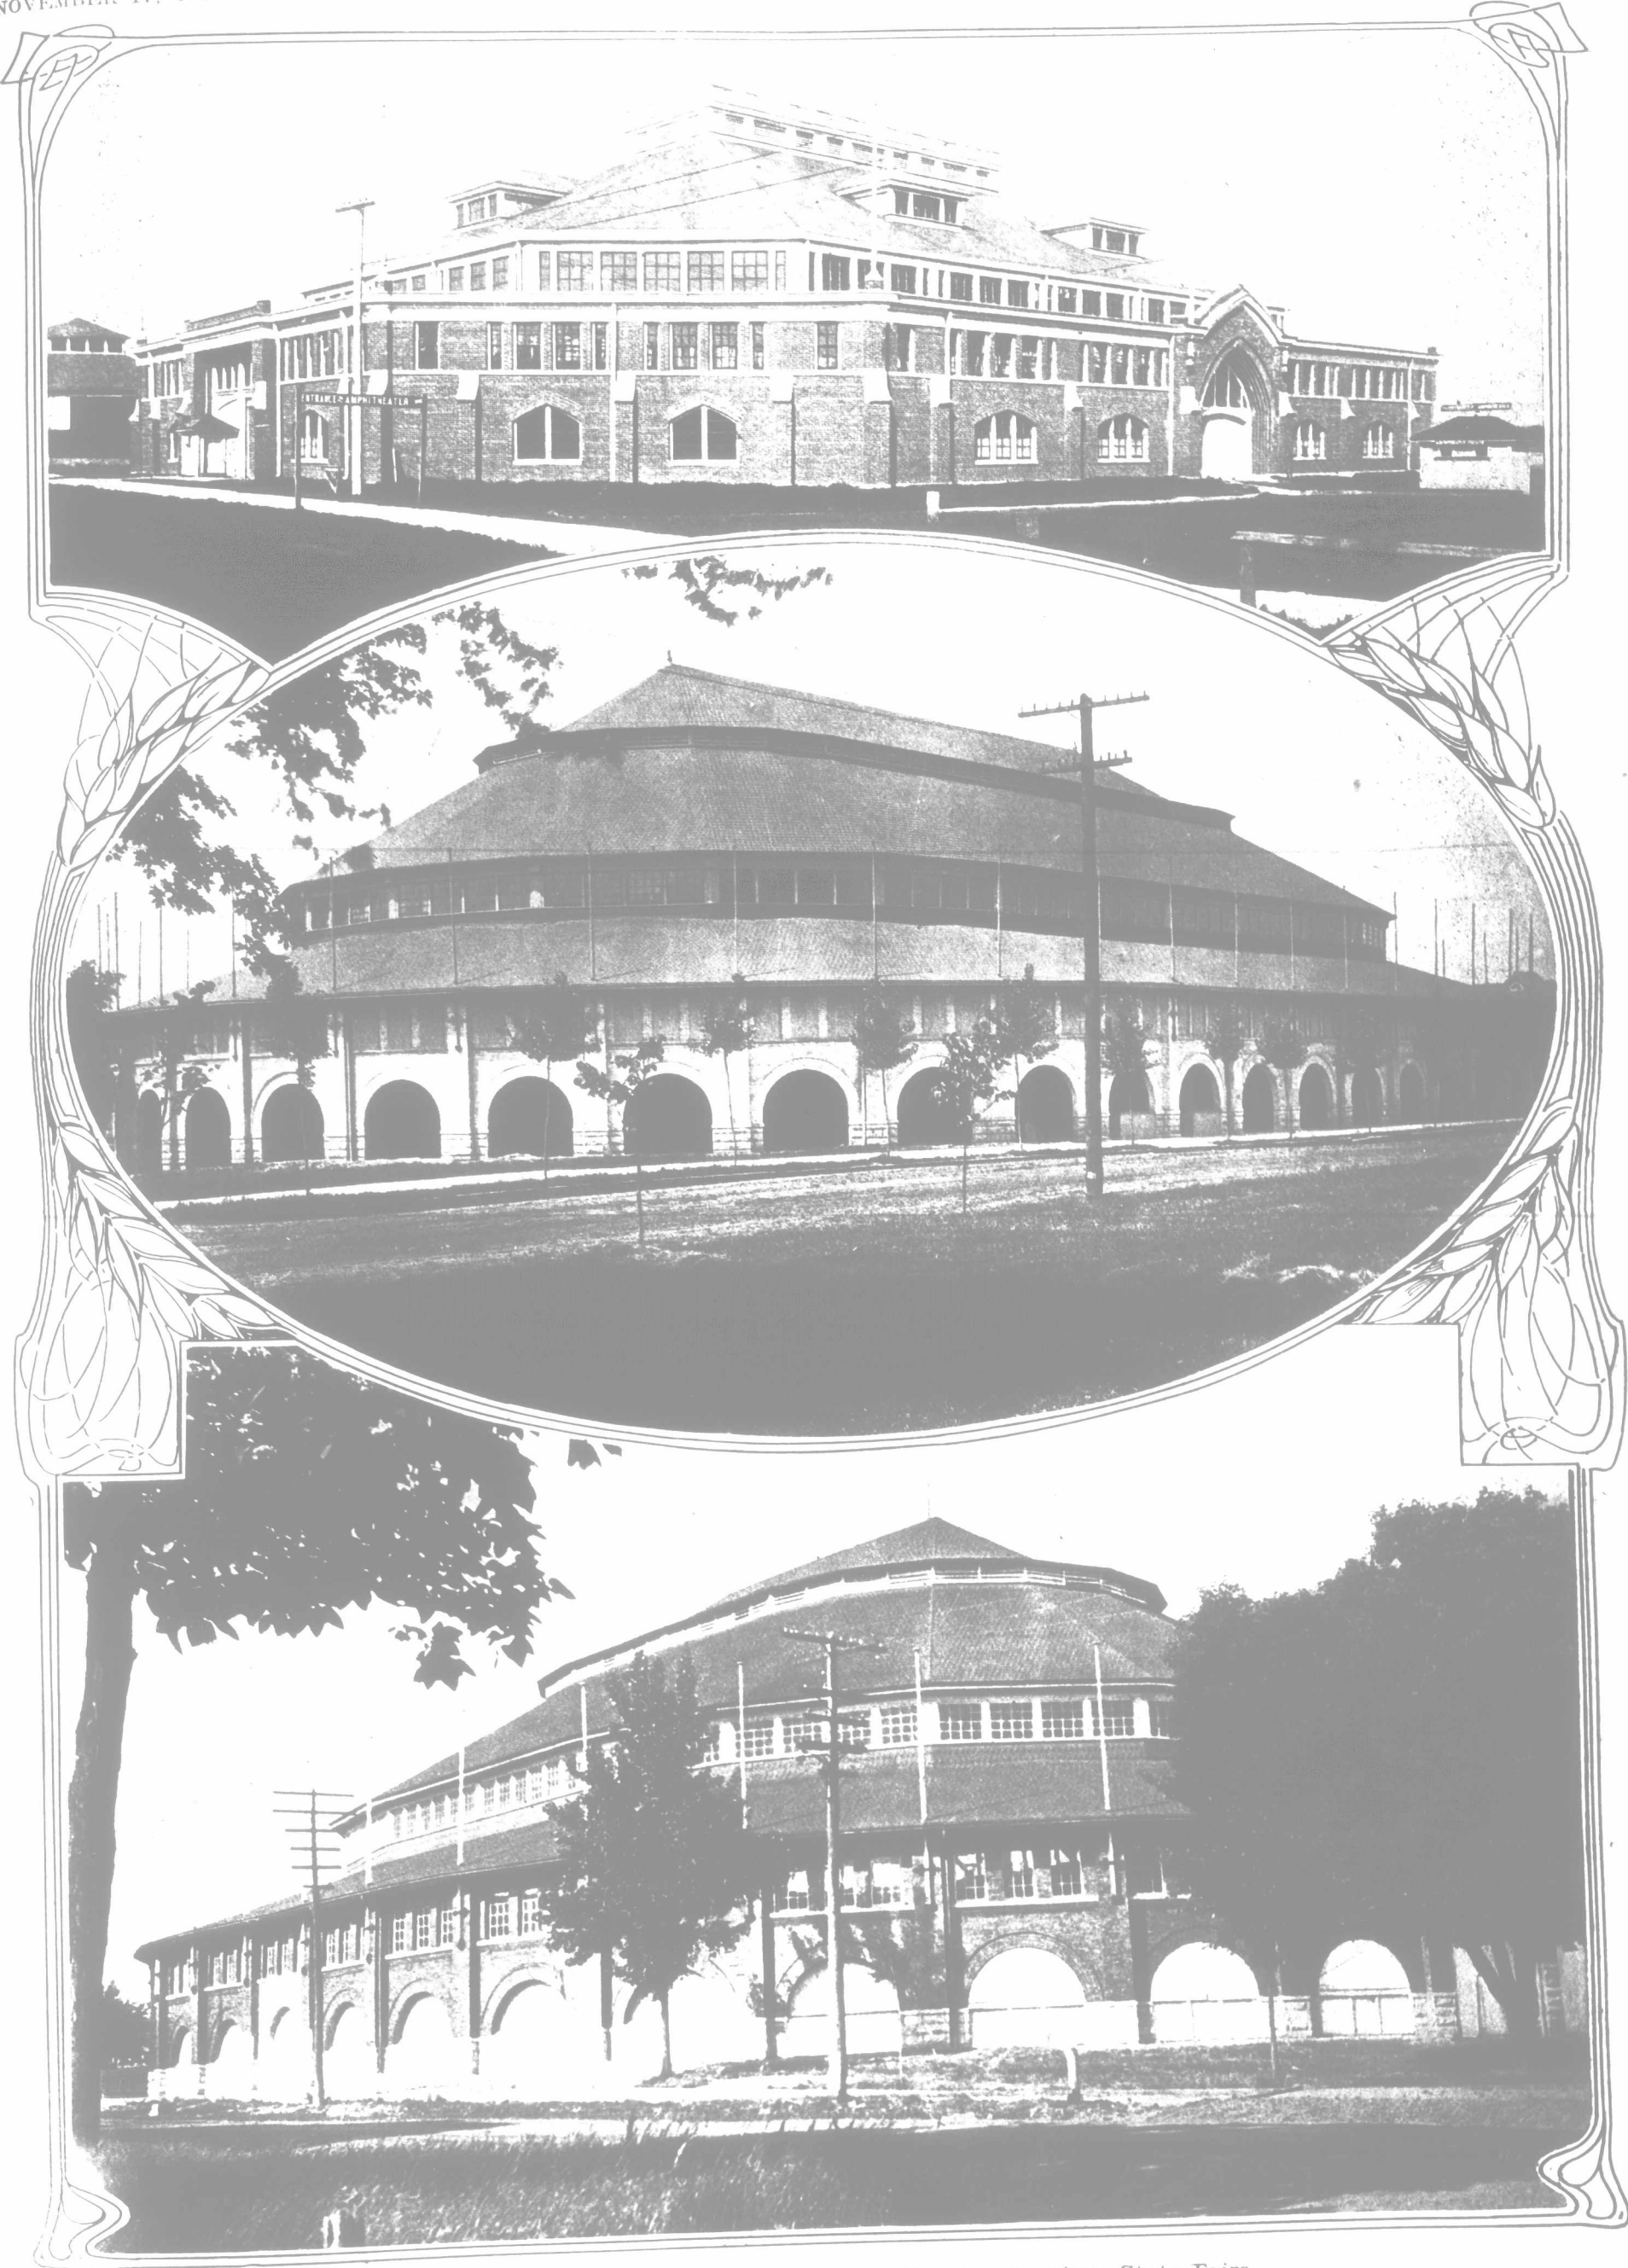

infection.
ent mate-
erus, viz.,
table in
virulent
and three
her table
h), three
one nega-

arrantable,
of experi

NOVEMBER 17, 1910

THE FARMERS ADVOCATE

1809

Provision for Stock Judging at Some Leading American State Fairs.

Upper view: Live-stock judging pavilion at the Wisconsin Fair. Center view: The Coliseum, Illinois State Fair. Lower view: Live-stock Pavilion at the Iowa State Fair.