EVERY FARMER

THE WEEKLY TELEGRAM AND THE FARMER'S ADVOCATE

These two great weeklies of the West from now to January 1st, 1907, for $1.50, together with The Weekly Telegram's great premium, THE NEW HOME LIBRARY WALL CHART. These two great weeklies need no introduction—they are the best the West produces.

THE WEEKLY TELEGRAM

Contains each week 24 pages of home, foreign, farm and general news, embracing the only colored comic section published by any weekly newspaper in the Dominion of Canada. It enjoys the Canadian and American Associated Press services, and nothing of importance from the four corners of the globe escapes its columns. It has a Legal Department—that will save expense and avoid litigation. Its Veterinary Department will keep you posted on treating your stock, and has often saved the life of valuable animals. Serial and Short Stories by the best authors can always be found in its columns. Every department is of as much value to the family as a special paper devoted to such topics.

THE HOME LIBRARY CHART

Is a geography and cyclopedia combined, containing a wealth of valuable information for every man, woman and child in the land. It is in the form of a wall-hanger, 24 inches by 28 inches in size, and when hung upon the wall is a most beautiful piece of artistic work. The Home Library Chart has six sheets, made up of maps of The World, The Dominion of Canada, Province of Manitoba, Provinces of Saskatchewan, Alberta, United States and Korea. Accompanying the map of Korea is a synopsis of the Russia - Japanese war. The maps of the new Provinces in The Home Library Chart are the first published for the West, making it of special interest to Western Canadians. The face of the Home Library Chart presents a most beautiful piece of artistic work, as it contains photographs of all the rulers of the world. Photographs of all the premiers of Canada can also be found in the Home Library Chart, with the coat-of-arms of all the Provinces in Confederation.
