A touching instance of his kindness of heart occurred quite recently, and was told me incidently by one of the servants. A poor woman from Philadelphia had been waiting, with a baby n her arms, for three days to see the President. Her husband had furnished a substitute for the army, but some time afterward was one day made intoxicated by some companions, and in this state induced to enlist. Soon after he reached the army he deserted, thinking that, as he had provided a substitute the Government were not atitled to his services. Returning home, he was, of course, arrested, tried, convicted, and entenced to be shot. The sentence was to be executed on Saturday. On Monday, his wife oft her home with her baby to endeavor to are
