Above is shown the new, made-in-Canada Overland 4. It is being manufactured at Toronto by Willys-Overland Limited, who announce that production on a quantity basis has now been reached.

The chassis is illustrated along with the finished touring car model because of its radical departure in spring suspension. It will be seen from the drawing that the "springbase" exceeds the wheelbase by 30 inches.

Willys-Overland Limited claim that this new Spring Suspension has been subjected to the most rigorous, mechanical, laboratory, and road tests that engineers have ever devised, including 250,000 miles of road testing.

Activities of Women

Helen Wetherall writing in the Chicago Daily News, said: "The present problem of housewife and houseworker is dealt with in an interesting manner by Mrs. Herman Frank, who under the following summary after attending a meeting of the Housewives' League:

"The tendency to eliminate home life must be overcome. The home, as an institution, is fundamental to our nation. The home must be obtained in spite of all obstacles. Five years before the war, 5,000,000 immigrants came to this country; five years during the war, 500,000 and during the first six months of 1919, the emigrants exceeded the immigrants. This lack of immigration is one of the factors contributing to a scarcity of servants. A second factor is created by attractive offers to women in the industrial world.

"The Young Women's Christian Association of New York has standardized two scales of wages, one for resident and one for non-resident workers, and will shortly make its campaign a national one. A name coined for the visiting worker is 'accommodator,' who can give specialized service. The one element which must be revolutionized is the lack of standardization. The complaint of most servants is that they are training to a certain standard before entering a home and must change their methods to suit each household.

"Education seems the third important factor in the future relations of employer and employee... an education for both. The Housewives' League recommended the following:

"The up-lifting of the position of houseworker, as that of the nurse was lifted by Florence Nightingale. "The compensating of all work in the home according to the effort of the worker. "Eventually simplifying the housewife's mode of living. "Making a study of conditions with a view to advance, as men have advanced, in the industrial relations between employer and employee. "Educating present and future generations of housekeepers in the household chemistry physics and marketing through such education, overcoming the near helplessness of the average daughter. ### UNIVERSAL APPEAL OF "EXPERIENCE"

Why All Classes Are Attracted by One of the Most Unusual of Modern Plays

"The singular feature concerning 'Experience'—the modern morality drama which F. Ray Costello and Morris Gest will present at Griffin's tomorrow, (Wednesday) matinee and night on route from Ottawa to Toronto, is the fact that it has an appeal for everyone. Plays about lawyers might interest lawyers but not the general public, a play about a saloon keeper might interest the anti-temperance forces but not the church people; a play dealing with a surgical operation might attract surgeons but here, in one play which seems to have a universal appeal, it is difficult to think of any play which reaches out so generally and draws into the sphere of its attraction and influence, young, old, rich, poor, 'society' people and those one meets in daily life.

Why is this? Because George V. Hobart, the author of 'Experience' with the inspiration of genius, hit upon a theme which instinctively aroused memories and hopes that are universal. The adventures of Youth upon a primrose path are both a warning and a reminiscence. To those who have passed their freshman days, this scene is a vivid and sometimes painful reminder of the time they themselves wasted in the pursuit of pleasure. The sight of Wealth tossing his gold away on a drunken spree, recalls the wild and adventurous days of a spendthrift folly. So it is with gambling, with the other experiences of Youth; and so on until the end of Mr. Hobart's wonderful allegory with its ever-present lesson. A preaching? Yes, but a wonderful presentation of facts which are too often forgotten. The production is one of the largest scenically and numerically that has been presented on a local stage in many seasons. The production is in ten gorgeous settings.

Balsam of Honey Has Kick

Harless looking Liquid Becomes Rival of Lemon Extract.

Toronto, Nov. 15.—Some real fire water is in safe keeping at No. 2 police station. A number of cases of drunk and disorderly recently have contributed this harmless looking liquid to the growing collection. It is harmless only in appearance, however. Experts say that when taken, it is found to have a "kick" like the famous "Maude" of the comic papers. On the wrapper, these little three ounce bottles claim to be Balsam of Honey. Inside they appear to be about 99 per cent. alcohol. As a demonstration a little of the liquid was poured out on the desk and a match touched to it. A flame a foot high which burned until nothing was left except a little sticky feeling to the spot where it had been, was the result.

Prince Buys Seals

Assisted in Boosting Red Cross Sales.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Before going to Annapolis, the Prince of Wales purchased 100 Red Cross Christmas seals from Adrienne Mayer, the five-year-old health crusader, who was recently decorated by Gen. Pershing for making a perfect score in the children's health crusade against disease. The sale was the first made this year, and the Prince promised to use the seals on his personal letters.

Starting facts on public health conditions were shown by the medical examination of millions of men during the purchase. The seals really represent the ounce of prevention I wish the campaign all success."

Wedding Bells

HARRIS — HENNESSY The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hennessy of Detlor, Dugannon, was the scene of a very interesting social event on the afternoon of Armistice Day, Nov. 11, 1919, the occasion being the marriage of their eldest daughter, Miss Jane, to Mr. Stanley Harris, of Gore's Landing, Northumberland county. The bride looked very charming and pretty gowned in blue silk and georgette. Accompanied by her father she took her place beside the groom. Miss Francis, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and was also prettily gowned in blue silk. Miss Blanche Hennessy, dressed in white silk, stood also with the wedding party and bore a bouquet of pink blossoms. Mr. Pomeroy Spence of Hylia ably supported the groom. The marriage ceremony was conducted by the Rev. M. E. Wilson, of St. Paul's church, Bancroft. After the ceremony and signing of the marriage register the wedding party and large company of guests gathered around sumptuously laden tables and enjoyed with the happiest of good cheer the very excellent luncheon provided.
