Listowel Standard Supplement.

NORTH PERTH.

It we the Structord Revold Views the Situation.

Mr. D. D. Hay, unable in this contest or aise the sectional cry which secured is return at the last general elections, cems somewhat at a loss what course to unsue. As a prediminary, we find him ublishing a letter once more to the lectors of Elma and Wallace on the le and be completion of the road for the form years.

The Company found a pliant tool in the person of Mr. D. D. Hay. He introduced and carried this Bill through the flowe. By it the conditions entered into by the Company with the township of Wallace when the bonus was granted, were set aside. Could any one imagine that was done without the knowledge, not to say consent, of the people of Wallace? But such however, was the case. No ratepayer of Wallace was made acquainted with what was going to. No Bill was sent to the Reeve, at Clicke, Hay & Co.
