Over 7,000 people "marched" in Toronto's Orange parade.

The Leafs open a series with the Grays to-day at Providence. The Baltimore Federals have purchased Steve Evans, right fielder and star comedian from the Brooklyn club.

Gene Dale, the former Montreal pitcher, now with Cincinnati, shut out Mathewson and the Giants yesterday, which is no very great achievement at that, Matty must slip some day, and the giants have hit the star hopelessly.

The Brooklyn club has released souh'paw Raleigh Aitchison to the Chattanooga club and has purchased from Seattle souh'paw pitcher Walter Mills, a youngster, eighteen, who stands six feet three inches and also weighs 180 pounds.

"Is Eddie Collins," queries a reader "a valuable player as Hans Wagner was at his best?" Handing all the answers to Eddie that the catcher there never was a player as valuable to a ball team as Wagner was for fifteen years to Pittsburgh.

The National League decided yesterday to adhere to the twenty-one pitcher limit by President Tener, said that the meeting did not discuss the Federals except in a very incidental way. "We are minding our business," said he. Times have changed.

Pitcher George Mullin, ace of the Newark Peeps, and infielder Eddie Holly, late of the Pittsburgh Rebels, once of the Leafs, have been engaged by the Chester club of the Independent Delaware County League, which also has signed Frank Baker and Larry McLean.

The Brooklyn club has signed Dick Wright, a catcher, and Ty Helfrich, third baseman. Both these boys played with Lafayette College last season. Helfrich was captain of the team. Frank Smith, the pitcher of the Baltimore Terrapins, has also been purchased by Brooklyn.

Dana Pilligan, the young Charleston pitcher who has just been purchased by the Athletics, shut Mac on out Wednesday, allowing two hits and striking out thirteen batters. Bankston, who was purchased from the same team, is a catcher and not an outfielder. He was filling in centre field when not behind the bat because of his hitting, but the Mackmen expect to use him behind the bat.

It is very likely that Paul Krichell, formerly of the Leafs, who jumped to the Athletics, will join the Brooklyn Federals within a few days. It was first reported that he had signed with Frank Baker's Delaware county club, but it was learned he is being bought by the Tip Tops. The Brooklyn Independents are said to have offered him a neat little salary but he has not yet definitely made up his mind as to whether or not he will accept their terms.

Uncle Connie has the proper system. In an off year he sells the high-salaried stars and starts with increased ardor on his old specialty of picking them from the bushes and moulding real players. It would not be in the least surprising to see the Athletics with a really great team next year. Cornelius McGillicuddy may, like the sun, be eclipsed now and then but he breaks forth again. The link between the club and the game, the pure marvels of the great old game, Manager Rowland's magnanimity helped Washington beat his team 5 to 3. In the third inning Gandil dislocated his knee in swinging at a slide ball and Williams took his place at the plate. After being patched up Rowland permitted Gandil to resume play, and in the fifth round his double scored Shanks with the tying run.

Walter Johnson saved the game for the Senators in the eighth, going in after Shaw had filled the bases with two out and retiring Fournier on a pop fly.

Hamilton Herald—Canadian league fans were getting a pretty good class of ball before the recent changes, but with the addition of the best of the now defunct South Michigan League to Canadian League ranks, it is one of the smartest, if not the smartest minor league organizations in the States. There are several men in the league who are good enough for faster company, and the chances are that the circuit will lose the services of not a few by the draft route at the close of the present season.
