action he would take regarding civil servants in the city who refused to pay income taxes. He was instructed to ascertain if means could not be found to make them pay. It was remarked in passing by Ald. Calbeck and confirmed by the Mayor that he, the mayor, was not a delinquent in this respect.

The usual accounts were passed. Also the time lists were confirmed. The time lists were—Cemeteries $38,407; sewers, $714.56; streets, $445.43; FINANCES.

Mr. A. K. Bunnell submitted a memo to the Finance committee showing expenditure by the different committees to Dec. 20th. This memo really covers thirteen months, as the Council assumed the obligations of December, 1914. After showing the details of each committee's outlay, the memo adds:

"After providing $2,000 as a fund for possible claims under Workmen's Compensation Act, a surplus is available of $4,355, to offset share of salaries of Engineer's Department and other executive expenses.

"In fixing the appropriations it was estimated that $2,000 would be required to be met out of the General Fund in connection with street oiling and watering. This is not necessary and constitutes a further surplus.

"The Police Department have a number of outstanding accounts awaiting disposition of their board, and surplus in this department should not be considered.

"The net result of the expenditures to date, as compared with the estimates, show a surplus of $3,369.00, which is more than sufficient to pay any outstanding accounts.

"The payments on account of Mohawk Park and the Post Office building have been provided for from special funds held in trust by the treasurer.

"The overdraft on streets and walks, and sewers is offset by accounts due to the department.
