THE ASTHMATIC'S AGONY

Wakeful nights, suffocating sensations difficult breathing. Who can describe it? This disease, partly nervous, partly congestive, part the result of microbic ritation, is no longer treated by nauscous stomach destroying drugs, but the by Catarrhozone, that destroys the microbe, relieves coagestion and relaxes the nervous irritability that renders breathing so difficult. The medication is carried by the air you breathe to the very seat of the disease, and removes it is known as Catarrhozone prevents as well as at once the cause. The great discovery its known as Catarrhozone prevents as well as stress, and is the only remedy guaranteed to cure. Your money back if it fails. Two sizes at all dealers, 25c, and $1.00.

SUFFERERS

A Marvellous Cure After Ure of Seven Bottles of the Great Compound

Paine's Celery Compound, has absolute proofs that it has affected complete cures in 97 per cet of the cases of rheumatism in which it has been used. The worst rufle er is healed, crutches thrown away, and the 'poor cripple of yesteriasy becomes the vigorous man or woman of to-day. Mr. William Morisette, of Koxton Pend, Que., writes thus:

Having been given up to die some time ago by some of the best doctors in the United States, I rame to Canada last autumn terrible ill, and had lost all hope. Suffering agonies from inflammatory rheumalism. I was strongly arged to use Phine's Celery Compound I gave it trial as recommended, and the firs bottle did me so much good I continued with the medicine until I had used seven bottles, when I found myself perfectly cured; indeed, I never lett better in all my life than at present, I use every possible means to tell, others of Paine's Celery Compound, and will always recommend it to those troubled with rheumatism.
