INTERESTING LETTERS FROM OUR STAFF OF CORRESPONDENTS. A Budget of News and Gossip—Personal Intelligence—A Little of Every-thing well mixed up.

WILKINSON. MONDAY, June 30.—On Friday, July 4th, a picnic will be held on the banks of Bowson's creek. This is not merely to celebrate the independence of the United States, but the closing of school.

The Misses Richards, who are leaving this place to live in Athens, made, in company with Miss E. A. Steady, a visit to some friends in the vicinity of Harlow.

OAK LEAF. MONDAY, June 30.—Another increase in the residents at Ormond Green's. It is a boy.

L. O. L. No. 2 intend going to Lyndhurst to celebrate the 13th of July.

Quite a number went to the church of England picnic at point Malakoff picnic grounds at the Outlet. They report a large crowd and a good time.

There was considerable grumbling at the action of the committee in charging for a passage from Charlton on the Outlet Queen, after announcing that one fare would secure passage on boat and admission to grounds.

Mr. Aaron Green is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

MONTOSH MILLS. MONDAY, June 30.—There is talk of making a change in the contract of Melintosh school house. Whether in site, size, price or person, is not yet known.

It is earnestly hoped that eggs will keep a fair price until blue berries put in an appearance, so that our choicest will be looked after more regularly.

Hurray! Ballymore is ahead! Found to be unrivaled! Especially in picnic season. Parties that have not the wherewith to put in an appearance, must sacrifice their whole hen dairy.

Mr. Charley Birch is desirous of leasing his stock farm with a few implements. It is in the vicinity of Centerville. He has secured the contract on the Poultry line between Melintosh Mills and Rock port.

MALLOBYTOWN. MONDAY, June 30.—Mrs. G. A. Lafayette, of Brockville, is spending a week here, the guest of Mrs. J. W. Lane.

Mr. C. R. Woods, of Montreal, is a home again. He is spending his holidays at Pool's summer resort.

Mr. John H. Buell and Bert Pool returned from Athens high school on Friday last.

Rev. Wm. Service, pastor for the coming year, gave his first sermon here on Sabbath morning last to a large and appreciative audience.

There will be no service in the Methodist church here on Sunday next.

Misses Flora and Kit Fields are visiting friends in Fairfield and have been absent about two weeks.

Communion service will be held in the Presbyterian church, Caintown, on Sunday next; therefore, those will be no service here in the evening.

DELTA. MONDAY, June 30.—On next Sunday the Methodists hold the anniversary of the dedication of their church in connection with which there will be a large and appreciative audience.

Dr. Mallory has moved his office to the upper part of Mr. J. Bell's store.

Dr. R. H. Wells is building a fine residence.

Delta is rapidly becoming a baseball town. There are two teams here, one called the Young Hopewells, the members of which average about sixty-five pounds. Then there is the I. X. L's. On Saturday last the young Hopewells went to Newboro to play with the third nine. We are, however, convinced that they had to play all of Newboro, which we are fully confident they could do, providing they had a scoreman.

However, Newboro beat them 1 score and probably did so fairly, but we live in doubt till the return match.

The Wicked Nine of Forfar came here on Saturday for a return match. Our I. X. L's were superior in upholding their names. Mr. H. Thielholm, of Elgin, acting as umpire, gave perfect satisfaction. After the game the ladies of the Temperance Union served a delicious banquet on the grounds. Much praise is due them, especially for the fine preparation of the chicken pie.

ELGIN. SATURDAY, June 28.—G. Sweetnam and daughter, of Venacher, have been visiting W. Sweetnam, of Elgin. They made many friends while here, a very enjoyable time was spent.

Mrs. E. Halladay had the misfortune to fall and break her arm. From latest accounts, it is doing well.

J. Beaumont, an evangelist, preached every Tuesday night in the town hall.

A few Sundays ago one of our young gents dressed in his best clothes and went to see his young lady. He was gladly welcomed and all went well until No. 2 put in an appearance. Then he had to keep in the back ground till the shades of night fell upon him, by working for his home. We are fearful he has gone away to hate himself to death, as we have not seen him lately.

Another Brockville painter went wrong last week. Mr. George Purbeck, becoming enamored of a servant girl in town, induced his wife to go on a visit to her. Friends in Minneapolis, and during her absence he eloped with his new innamorata. The girl knew he was married and so is deserving of little sympathy.

When you graduated at school and delivered your little address (partly or wholly "cribbed") what was it spoke in glowing terms of the "studied effort" and concealed its defects?

It was your Home Paper.

When you got married to the sweetest girl in a grove when you got down to practice with a view to another match next term. The game, considering the age of the players, was not "Mushkin ball" by any means, the score showing "washed" washes, honors in which were "easy."

In betting, too for Athens and Westward for Brockville had with a score of 4-3. There were a few little unpleasant frictions during the progress of the game, all disputes being promptly and amicably adjusted by the umpire, Messrs. Alex. Green and Ed. Sullivan. Following is the score:—
