WORLD OF SPORT

Nothing daunted by their recent unfortunate experience, the Tecumtions and are a doughty aggregation.

The locals will be strengthened by the presence of two fast, new home players—one of them MacFarlane, of last year's team. The game promises to be spectacular.

LAW ASSOCIATION

Judge Houston reports a very successful meeting of the Ontario Law Association in Toronto. The object of the meeting was to try to arrange a meeting with J. J. Foy, to discuss the amendments to the statutes which are contemplated by the Government.
In this respect the Association was unsuccessful, but other matters of importance were discussed.

One complaint made by the bar is that the disbursements in suits are too large and that lawyers are, under the existing circumstances, practically made collecting agents for the Government.

Mr. Wilson, K. C., of this city, presided over the meeting. Mr. Houston was appointed on the committee of arrangement for next year. Mr.
Wilson has not yet returned to the city. He being seriously indisposed when Mr. Houston left Toronto.

To pity distress is but human; to relieve it is od-like.

...SOCIETY...

Cupid, the marksman of the tiny shafts which, all unnoticed at the time, lodge in the victim's heart, and after a time render him or her powerless to withstand the gentle love God's wiles, yesterday saw the culmination of a shaft launched some time ago when Grace Ethel Jones became the wedded wife of Thomas R. Morgan. The bride, who is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.
B. Jones, is popularly known as one as 'one of Chatham's fairest daughters. The groom, formerly of Palmston, came to this city about three years ago to assume charge of the finishing department of the large Gray & Son's factory, where he is still employed.

The nuptial ceremony was performed yesterday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, 43 Kirk street, by the Rev. F. E. Malott, in the presence of over eighty guests.

The bride was gowned for the ceremony in a cream voile, made over tulle, with chiffon trimmings in which creation she looked charmingly sweet. Both were attended when they entered the drawing room to the wedding march played by the bride's brother. Under a canopy of flowers and foliage in one corner of the room, the knot was firmly tied, and the bride emerged, with her identity changed to that she will in future assume.

The interior of the house looked very pretty, indeed, in its garb of smiles and pink and white china astors, from which peeped forth glowing electric bulbs.

After the ceremony, the wedding repast was partaken of, Rev. F. E.
Malott proposing the bride's health, the toast being replied to felicitatously by the groom. The happy young couple left on the five o'clock C. T.
R. train for a two weeks' honeymoon tour to Toronto and Montreal.

The bride's going away gown was of brown, with a hat to match. The popularity and esteem of the young couple was attested by the concourse of friends at the station to bid them good bye.

Presentations were received from St.
Catharines, Exeter, Bay City, Kingston and Vancouver, in addition to the great number received from this city. One room was filled with the gifts—all handsome and useful—a tabulation of which would require too much space. A unique contribution was from an uncle of the groom, in Vancouver, B. C., and consisted of an ornate Chinese jewel case of costly wood, with drawers of varying sizes. The groom's gift to the bride was a subornst of pearls.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan expect to return to the city Sept. 9th, and will take up their residence on Lorne Ave.
The following guests from a distance were in attendance:

Mr. and Mrs. Andre, Yale, Mich.
Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, Palmerston.
Miss Newcombe, Toronto.
Mrs. Chas. Dunkley, Ridgelytown.
Miss Dunkley, Grand Rapids.
Miss Moore, Bay City.

ATTENDING TO IT.

Julia, Julia! called the woman from her dressing room.
What do you want, dear? answered her husband from his smoking room.
Why, I want Julia to come to me.
I was to have my hair washed today.

"Well, I guess Julia's attendin' to it. I just saw her going down to the laundry and she had a bundle in her hands.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

Record-Breaking Attendance For This Day at Toronto Fair.

Toronto, Aug. 31.—Yesterday was Children's Day at the Canada National Exhibition, and the attendance was greater than on any similar day in the history of the association. The children enjoyed themselves as only children can, and the exhibitors had to get extra advertising literature sent up from the city so great was the demand by the youngsters. At the directors' luncheon the leading educational lights of the city and Province made short speeches in the line of their work.
To-day is Manufacturers' Day at the Fair.

Constancy is the complement of all other human virtues.
