THE ACADIAN

WOLFVILLE, N. S., FEB. 7, 1890.

Local and Provincial.

DEATH.—Mr John C. Jones, of Grand Pre, lost a valuable horse one day last week.

WINTER AGAIN.—On the first day of this month we were shown by Mr T. E. Smith, of Church St., a full-blown Mayflower.

RECEIVED.—The second of the series of music recitals given under the patronage of the faculty of the College will take place on Friday evening next, the 14th inst., in College Hall.

MISSIONS.—At the regular monthly missionary meeting in the Baptist church, on Sunday evening last, a very interesting paper on the life and work of the Rev. Dr. Johnson was read by Dr R. V. Jones.

Wheat Bran in Bags at PRAT'S.

ACCIDENT.—Mr Charles Paine met with a serious accident on Saturday last. A horse that he was riding to water slipped on the ice and he at once jumped from the horse full upon him, injuring his ankle quite severely and causing him to be laid by for some days.

Laborer Herring very choice, 1/2 barrels and barrels at PRAT'S.

DIED AT SEA.—The brig Genoa, which was recently loaded with lumber at Port Williams for Buenos Ayres, was spoken January 31st, in lat. 36° N, lon. 38° W, and signalled that her master, Captain Albert Davidson, of Hantsport, died on the night of January 4th.

Acme Club Skates at WALTER BROWN'S.

OBITUARY.—We regret very much to be called upon to chronicle the death of the wife of Captain C. O. Allen, notice of which appears in another column.

Mrs Allen was a daughter of Mr A. A. Pines, of this place. The remains were brought to Wolfville and interred in Willow Bank yesterday. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Lanterns, the latest and best, 75c at PRAT'S.

THE RINK.—We spent a few moments at the rink on Friday evening last and found a large company of skaters enjoying themselves. The ice was in good condition and well covered with skaters from different parts of the county, while the brilliant electric light and the sweet music of the Kentville band helped to make the rink bright and attractive.

Good Rabbits for sale low at WALTER BROWN'S.

THE BANK.—A few weeks ago we referred briefly to some changes that had been made in the office of the People's Bank Agency at this place. The alterations have now been completed and add very much to the appearance and convenience of the office. The Bank now presents a very nice appearance and is a credit to the town. We are glad to note such improvement in our public buildings and places of business.

CHEAT.—40 cents will buy a Nice Glass Table Set (6 pieces) at PRAT'S.

THE METHODIST TEA.—The oyster supper, tea and fancy sale given by the ladies of the Methodist church in their vestry on Wednesday evening was a very successful affair. Notwithstanding the disagreeable state of the weather and roads, the attendance was good. The oysters were spoken of with praise by all, the tea-table was all that could be desired, and the fancy table was soon relieved of its pretty things. About $70 was realized.

JUST RECEIVED.—A stock of Table Silver Ware, specially selected for Christmas trade, WALTER BROWN'S.

ELECTORAL.—The electoral list for Ward 8 are posted in the following places: For district 15, at J. L. Frank's blacksmith shop, and at Frank Woodman's shop, in Wolfville; and at Fred Fankner's blacksmith shop, Grand Pre. For district 16, at Hunter's mill, Gaspereau; at Forsyth's blacksmith shop, Greenwood; and at J. S. Morse's shop, Wolfville. R. A. Payzant will do well to examine these lists and see that their names are on. Application to have names placed on or erased from the above lists must be made to the revisors on or before the 25th of this month.

Minard's Liniment for Rheumatism.

Chaff from the Hill.

During the last fortnight occurrences of more than ordinary moment have been noted in the acts of some of the students. The first was when a tall and stately freshman startled "the boys" with the unexpected news that he had noticed "the majority." It had been noticed that this "foreigner" had somewhat of an uncertain look and action since College opened. He appeared to possess sprigs of comfort that others knew not of, not brandy, for he had been a member of Acadia Lodge. These expressions gave place to that of budding hope when on a Friday he boarded the train at Wolfville and yielded himself to a fortuitous combination of circumstances, which impelled him toward Berwick. Not long afterwards Acadia had the name of another married man upon her roll.

The College has lost one of its bright lights. He of the cloudy brow, who had spent more than four years at Wolfville, here no longer can be seen, for he has vanished like Ignus Fatuus leaving the dark still darker. The noble twenty of 1890 who soon expected to hear the acolyte sounding in their ears, no longer exist and only nineteen are left to tell the tale, and go out from the closed doors of Acadia in the balmy days of the approaching June, with the first two letters of the alphabet attached to their names. Though absent, this late member of the class of '90 yet speaketh, and any student, with but a slight stretch of imagination, may hear his deep response: "When was I silent? My ambition may have grown as did the bean in the fable of Jack and the Bean Stalk, but circumstances arose which were difficult to be overcome by one so youthful, and he eventually succumbed to the non parvatus.

Just a week ago and some actions of a wild and South Sea nature were exhibited by a Senior. With valise and umbrella in hand, he started from his room, and not returning that day his anxious class-mates made investigation. When informed by the genial station agent that their friend had taken ticket for the Junction, speculation was rife, especially as he had made anxious inquiry for the location of the residence of the Baptist minister in one of Nova Scotia's prominent educational towns. Then it was believed that he was about to follow the precedent established by the Freshman. After an absence of three days, spent in Elysian dreams and sober realities, the susceptible wanderer returned to his studies. Many were the questions he was called upon to answer concerning his hasty visit, and at last all were convinced that his absence was not to enter matrimony, although he had made undoubted progress towards that end. That night his sleep was sweet, and he dreamed of a cottage in some pleasant retreat, with a snug little porch, ornamented with honeysuckle and woodbine twining!

ROBERTO.

SNOW GONE.—The continued mild weather of the past week has melted the snow and ice and spoiled the sleighing, greatly to the annoyance of those who were planning on sleigh-drives and good roads.

POLITICAL CONVENTION.—A convention of the Liberal-Conservative party of King's county is to be held at the Court House, Kentville, on Thursday next to select candidates to contest the county in the interests of that party at the approaching provincial election.

VANDALISM.—Mr Jos. Allen, of Long Island, had the misfortune to upset a load of hay on the Grand Pre dike on Tuesday last. That night some rascals set fire to it, and burned hay, wagon and an overcoat that Mr Allen had left on the hay. We should like to see the scoundrels who would perpetrate such an act brought to justice.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—The officers of Acadia Lodge for the current quarter were installed as follows on Saturday evening last:

C. T.—A. C. Johnson. V. T.—Miss Fannie Roscoe. Secy.—Edgar Chipman. A. Secy.—Miss Nellie Chipman. F. S.—C. S. Fitch. Treas.—Miss Mianie Chipman. Chap.—Miss Kate Reid. Marsh.—Edward Higgins. D. M.—Miss Ethel Johnson. Guard.—Sentinal. S. J. T.—Miss Jennie Chase. P. C. T.—W. S. Wallace.

WHY WILL YOU cough when Shiloh's Cure will give immediate relief. Price 10 cts, 50 cts, and $1. Sold by George V. Rann.

Temperance Column.

Edited by the Members of Wolfville Division. Go, feel what I have felt, Go bear what I have borne, Sink 'neath the blow a father dealt. And the cold, proud world's scorn; Thus struggle on from year to year, Thy sole relief the searing tear.

Go, weep as I have wept O'er a loved father's fall; See every cherub's promise swept, Youth's sweetness turned to gall; Hope's faded flowers strewn all the way I hat led me up to woman's day.

Go, kneel as I have knelt, Implore—beseech and pray— Strive the besotted heart to melt, The downward course to stay; Be cast, with bitter curse, aside, Thy prayers burlesqued, thy tears defied.

Go, stand where I have stood, And see the strong man bow, With gnashing teeth, lips bathed in blood, And cold and livid brow, Go, catch his wandering glance and see There mirrored his soul's misery.

Go, hear what I have heard, The sobs of sad despair, As memory's feelings' fount hath stirred, And his revealing tears, Have told him what he might have been, Had he the drunkard's fate foreseen.

Go to thy mother's side And her crushed spirit cheer, Thine own deep anguish hide, Wipe from her cheek the tear— Mark her, dimmed eye—her furrowed brow,

The gray that streaks her dark hair now, Her toil-worn frame, her trembling limb, And trace the run back to him Whose pledged faith in early youth Promised eternal love and truth— But who—fore sworn—hath yielded up This promise to the dreaded cup, And led her down from love and light, From all that made her pathway bright, And chained her there, mid want and strife,

That lowly thing—a drunkard's wife! And stamp'd on childhood's brow so mild That withering blight—a drunkard's child!

Go—hear and see and feel and know All that my soul hath felt or known— Then look upon the wine cup's glow, See if it's brightness can atone, Think if it's flavor you would try, If all proclaimed—"Tis drink and die."

Tell me—kiss the bowl! Hate is a feeble word—I loathe—abhor—my inmost soul With deep disgust is stir'd, Whene'er I see—or hear—or tell Of the dark beverage of hell.

Fruit Growers' Meeting. The 26th annual session of the Nova Scotia Fruit Growers' Association has been in session in Wolfville this week and held their last meeting last evening.

The meetings have been of the usual interest and profit. The election of officers took place on Thursday morning when all the officers of the past year were re-elected with the exception of Mr Starr, who was elected 1st Vice President in place of Mr W. H. Blanchard. Messrs C. R. H. Starr and Stratrat were elected representatives to the Dominion Convention of Fruit Growers. Next week we intend giving an extended account of the proceedings, our space and time this week being too limited to allow of a proper report this week.

Personal Notes. Mr Ralph Fuller, head salesman at W. Brown's hardware establishment, has gone home for the winter. We are glad to notice that Miss S. A. Hamilton has so far recovered as to be able to return to her business in Wolfville.

Mr Jos. Jones, Jr., is home on a holiday. His vessel, the Newfield, is now laid up for the winter. He intends returning to Halifax on Monday to attend the marine school.
