MILLER FACTION BLOCKED MEETING

Dr. R. T. MacDonaid, the well-known e Dr. R. T. MacDonaid, the weik-known dentist, announces himself for aldermanic honors in this issue, for Ward 2, for 1910. He is a young man of ability, honorable and progressive, and is running on a purely moral reform platform.

Mr. Chas. Duff, the well-known grocer and butcher, is an aldermanic candidate in Ward 3. He is a successful business man, of sterling character, and will make a good representative if elected. He will likely poll a big vote on election day.

Candidates for municipal office of any sort should bear in mind that their tuxes must be paid up. Any person in arrears of taxes on which he seeks to qualify qualified.

It is reported that Adam Beck will be here next week to try to straighten out the Hydro municipal tangle, and probably speak at one of the meetings. It is sooneded by all that the promise of a job to two or three of the Hydro clique candidates would dispose of their controller aspirations.

Mr. Ed. Morwick looks like a winner a Ward 3—and he should be. He is a rotogressive citizen with broad views and large ideas of Hamilton's future. He and large ideas of Hamilton's future. He is an advocate of competition and an opponent of monopoly; believes in high-class hotels and more of them for Hamilton, and in the cutting off of such hotels as are only drinking places. His idea is to make Hamilton the best place in Canada to live in; to work in; to do business in and to manufacture in. He s against graft and party rule and in favor of all pulling together for Hamil-

Ex-Ald. W. G. Bailey, who is a candidate for controller for 1910, has his card in this issue respectfully requesting the electors to vote for him. Mr. Bailey is well known, having been identified with a successful business for over tified with a successful obsiness for over twenty years. He is thoroughly business-like and capable and will serve the best interests of citizens if elected. He has had considerable municipal experience, and in 1908 was chairman of finance.

COUNTY COURT

Two Cases From the Grimsby Fruit District.

In the action of E. G. Burland vs. R. Perry, which was tried yesterday afternoon at the sitting of the County Court, His Honor, Judge Snider, rebe. The evidence of a number of witnesses showed that the farm contained 20 peach trees less than the number supposed, and His Honor reserved the case so as to work out the value of the trees.

The action of the Co-operative Fruit Growers' Association of Grimsby vs. J.

G. Biggar was settled out of court, the defendant agreeing to pay the plaintiffs $100 and costs. J. G. Biggar was appointed last spring manager of the farm operated by the association. The directors claim the salary agreed upon was $800 a year, and $1,000 if the returns justified it, while the defendant claims it was stipulated that if he kept the expenditure below 10 per cent. of the returns he was to get $1,000. He was given $961.67, but the directors claimed the returns were not sufficient to jus-G. Biggar was settled out of court, the the returns were not sufficient to justify the increase over the minimum amount, and brought action to recover the amount overpaid. The defendant put in a counter claim for $38.33, which he claimed was still due him as the expenses had been kept below 10 per cent. G. Lynch-Staunton and R. McConachie appeared for plaintiff; S. F. #### NOT AS WELL TO-DAY.

"Joseph Mitchell, the young man who shot himself last Tuesday night, is not so well to-day. His condition is still critical. Yesterday quite a crowd of people visited No. 3 Police Station identifying goods that they have missed.

Court, His Honor, Judge Snider, reserved judgment in order to study out some of the points of the claim so as to ascertain what amount the plaintiff was entitled to.

The action was for the recovery of $300 on a note given by the defendant in part payment for a farm in the vicinity of Grimsby. The defendant had a counter claim to have the note set aside, as the property was not laid out in fruit as he alleged it had been represented to be. The evidence of a number of witnesses showed that the farm contained 20 Limited.

The skates have also been gone over carefully, so that the skaters will be able to enjoy the exhilarating sport, and be happy and merry.

The Britannia, with its large, spacious floor, appeals to those who are anxoius to have a good day's sport, for crowding is entirely out of the question. The number of skates on hand when disposed of ensures plenty of space to each and every one, for the management wishes every one to be made comfortable.

Three big sessions will be held during the day, and all popular music will be rendered at each session.
