

FREE ADVICE TO WOMEN

Women suffering from any form of illness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established this confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Never has she published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the Company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which Mrs. Pinkham has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge needed in your case. She asks nothing in return except your good will, and her advice has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Address Mrs. Pinkham, care of Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Every woman ought to have Lydia E. Pinkham's 80-page Text Book. It is not a book for general distribution, as it is too expensive. It is free and only obtainable by mail. Write for it today.

ENGLISHMAN AFTER CHATHAM PULP MILL

Carl Rindon, of the Rindon paper mills in Ontario, and Charles Read of Ottawa, interested in several large pulp and paper manufacturing, arrived in Chatham Thursday morning and proceeded at once to the Millers' mill, which they inspected. They are acting as representatives of John Milbanke, of English, who has taken an option on the property, and is a possible purchaser. The visitors went through the mill. It is expected they will submit will be made, as Mr. Rindon was surprised at the character, and he sees possibilities of profit than permanent liquidator, felt justified in holding possible investors as an offer to come and inspect.

GIRL KIDNAPPED

Returning from Mass., is Seized By Brigands—Reward of $2,000 Offered.

Turin, Nov. 10 — Signorina Laura Abbate, the 20-year-old daughter of a wealthy merchant at Palermo, has been kidnapped by brigands in broad daylight in one of the main thoroughfares of the Sicilian capital. While returning home from mass in the company of her aunt the girl was seized by a powerful ruffian who had several accomplices, and was bundled into a cab which was waiting. The aunt and most of the bystanders were dumfounded, and two eyewitnesses who sought to rescue the victim were beaten off with knotted whips by a couple of coachmen.

The police manager to keep the affair secret but the family have now published a poster relative to the outrage. They offer $2,000 reward to anyone giving information that may lead to the discovery of the girls whereabouts. Kidnapping is becoming an alarming common crime at Palermo.

A SURPRISE IN STORE

Several subscribers to "The Family Herald and Weekly Star" in this district have received their copy of the beautiful premium picture entitled "Home Again." A copy has also reached this office. It certainly surpasses any picture given by that great paper before. How such a beautiful work of art, all ready for framing, can be included with such a great family paper for the small sum of one dollar year is a mystery. "The Family Herald and Weekly Star" should add thousands of new subscribers this season. They well deserve it, for no such value has ever before been given. There is a big surprise in store for those who receive the picture "Home Again."
