THE play, "Lady of Lyons," rendered in the Lyceum last evening in aid of Queen Square was a decided success. The hall was well filled and the parts O'Leary of the play assigned to the different rs of the cast were well sustained Miss Claire Scott appeared as Pauline Deschepelles (Lady of Lyons) and admirably sustained the character. Mr. S. K. Coburn, as Claude Melnotte acted his part in such a manner as to win well merited praise. The acting of Miss Katie Scott as Widow Melnotte was faultless. Too much cannot be said was faultiess. Too much cannot be said in commendation of the manner in which the parts assigned to the local talent were performed. Mr. A. E. Mc-Eachen as Monsieur Beauseant acted his part well. Col. Dumas was mos strikingly reproduced in the person of Mr. J. P. Murray, while Mr. F. Haley med to have been transformed in a Deschepelles. Mr. J. Maloney made a good Glavis, and Miss Maggie Connolly

The Templeton Opera Company which is to appear at the Lyceum in this city on Monday and Tuesday evenings, June 27 and 28, is one of the strongest musical organizations at present in the United States. For the opening on Monday night "The Mikado" will be put on with entirely new and will be put on with entirely new and elaborate scenery which the company brings from New York. A full New York orchestra is one of the features. The popular opera will be produced with the following cast:
